THAT a community of women should offer to the English Church a new book of Offices, appears presumptuous as well as unnecessary, unless some explanation be given of the causes which led to the attempt. S. Margaret's Sisterhood, founded by the Rev. J. M. Neale, in 1854, was early provided with a Ms. translation, abridged and simplified, of the shorter Sarum Hours, and with various other offices, selected from Roman or Gallican uses, where Sarum was insufficient or apparently unsatisfactory. For although Dr. Neale considered the Sarum book as that of which the adoption was generally binding upon us, he preferred a degree of eclecticism to a servile following of the old English use, when better offices were to be found elsewhere.

Other persons, aware of our possessing many Mss., asked us to prepare a book which should supply offices yet wanting in existing manuals, and provide abundance of materials for devotion from which they might select portions suitable for use. We have thus endeavoured to respond to their request, and the present volume is the careful, but very imperfect result of our labours, containing, besides much supplementary matter, the Breviary Offices from Prime to Compline inclusive, Matins being already in course of publication separately.

In this compilation, our founder's plan has been retained; i. e. Sarum has been followed wherever possible. The Psalter, and Proper of Seasons exactly reproduce Sarum, with a few abbreviations and simplifications; except a few alterations, mentioned below.*

If it be asked why the Roman books would not suffice us, and why we should try to resuscitate a use long dead, we answer that the Gallican breviaries present us with rich and varied treasures of Scriptural applications, and mystical interpretations, which might be sought vainly in the Roman forms; and that Sarum far surpasses Rome in the dignity and variety of its daily office; in its absence of unseemly haste, (as when Rome continually replaces longer Psalms by Ps. cxvii.) and in its sedulous and hearty use of continual intercession for living and dead.†

But when we arrive at the Common and Proper of Saints, Sarum shines no more. Every one acquainted with the Roman breviary must have been struck by the excessive poverty of the Offices of the Blessed Virgin Mary, where one commonplace idea is repeated continually, with mere transposition of words, and almost the whole mass of Old Testament type and prophecy is neglected or ignored, (if not misapplied, as in the case of Ecclus. xxiv.). Sarum disappointingly

* The Antiphons to the Psalms are doubled at certain times, according to ordinary present use. The Christmas Eve Vesper Hymn is continued through the Octave, as in the Benedictine Breviary, instead of, as in Sarum, using A solis ortus both at Lauds and Vespers. The proper Office of S. Thomas of Canterbury is changed for the Common of a Martyr, the Antiphon, ℣. and ℟. to the Memorial, being all that are retained from the original. The Ants. at Vespers in Epiphany-tide are according to York, Sarum retaining the Ants. of Christmas. The Saturday Ants. after Trinity are from the Roman Breviary: because it was necessary to take the lectionary for Matins from that source, and those Ants. must agree with the lectionary of the current month. The Memorials are simplified. The Whitsun-tide Sequence at Compline is exchanged for Veni Sancte Spiritus. It should be added, that, also according to Dr. Neale's usage, in accordance with the present custom of the English Church, invocations of Saints and Angels are as a rule omitted, except when occurring in Psalms, Canticles, etc.

† With regard to the last assertion it may be mentioned, that, as will be seen in the body of the book, the fifteen Gradual Psalms were recited daily in Lent, with the noble Litany, "for the whole Church of God"; and that one nocturn of the Office of the Dead was to be said, whenever unhindered by Festivals, after Matins of the day. Our forefathers grudged no time nor pains in their prayers, and although it may not now be practicable for many to use them in extenso, it is well, in these days of hurry, to have such full and leisurely Offices before our eyes.

falls to quite as low a level in this respect. Besides this, the Offices are disfigured by jingling and alliterative Antiphons, which indeed bear their testimony to the English love of the grotesque, but possess neither dignity nor beauty.

For these Offices therefore, we have drawn extensively from other sources, principally the Breviaries of Paris, Rouen, Coutances, Beauvais, Noyon; besides the Benedictine, (whose authority in England ranks next to that of Sarum). Added to which, we have drawn from the Reformed Roman Breviary, for several points of practical utility. But we have invented nothing anywhere, except one Office in the Common of Saints:—Vespers for the Sick; Matins and Lauds having been prepared long since by Dr. Neale from Card. Thomasius, who however furnishes scarce any hints for Vespers.

In the Proper of Saints, the Offices of S. Andrew, Conversion of S. Paul, Nativity of S. John Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, Commemoration of S. Paul, S. Mary Magdalene, Holy Name, S. Michael and all Angels, (chiefly) are from Sarum. The rest are principally Gallican. In the Common of Holy-days, all the Hymns and the selection of Psalms, the Common of Apostles in Easter-tide, and through the year, are Sarum. The Common of the Blessed Virgin and the other Offices are chiefly Gallican. The Commendatory Prayers are from the Parisian and Benedictine books. The Office of the Dead is Roman.

We are at a loss to express our sense of the extreme and unwearied kindness of all to whom we have applied for that assistance, without which, our task, difficult for us in any case, would have been entirely hopeless. For advice, information, loan of valuable books, permission to reprint translated Hymns, and the translation of several expressly for this book, we return thanks to the Revs. L. Alison, R. F. Littledale, G. Moultrie, W. J. Copeland, E. Caswall, and J. D. Chambers, Esq.; and most especially to the Rev. W. J. Blew, "whose learning is only equalled by his courtesy," and who, in addition to other most important assistance, has been at the pains to draw out for this work a Sarum table of occurrence and concurrence.

We have also to acknowledge the obliging politeness with which Mr. Masters and Messrs. Novello and Co. have permitted us to reprint many of Dr. Neale's copyright Hymns.

Great pains have been taken to discover and secure the permission of the translators of the Hymns used in this book: but if any inadvertent mistake has been made in this matter, we beg to be apprised of it, in order to its correction in a future edition.

GENERAL NOTES.

MEMORIALS. Memorials are made at Lauds and Vespers only. When the Office of any Feast or of a greater feria is superseded by that of a greater Feast, a Memorial is made of the day whose office is omitted altogether, or at first or second Vespers only. Memorials are formed thus:

(1) Antiphon to Benedictus or Magnificat from the Office which is omitted.
(2) ℣. and ℟. following the Hymn in the same Office.
(3) The Collect of the Office, preceded by The Lord be, etc., and Let us pray.

Common Memorials are set down at the beginning of the Common of Saints, to be used on those Feasts, when it may appear expedient not to use the whole Office of the Saint. They will take precedence of the Memorials in the Psalter. These Feasts are marked * in the Kalendar and in the Proper of Saints. If a Feast having its own Office set down in the Proper of Saints be commemorated by a Memorial only, such Memorial may be formed from the Proper Office, according to the rule given above. The Memorials on page 65 are said on Saturdays from Trinity to Advent exclusively. The number of Collects said at one Office must not be greater than seven, that being the number of petitions in the Lord's Prayer; therefore more than six Memorials cannot be said.

ANTIPHONS. The Antiphons to Benedictus, Magnificat, and Nunc Dimittis are sung before and after the Canticles on all Principal and Greater Doubles. At other times the first few words only are said before the Canticle, the whole being said after. In this latter way Antiphons to Psalms are always said according to the use of Sarum. The Roman use, as being more generally practised, is followed in this book. When the words of an Antiphon are taken from the beginning of the Psalm or Canticle, they are not repeated, but the Psalm is continued from the point where the Antiphon ceased.

COLLECTS. If the Collect be addressed to the Father, it is concluded, Through Jesus Christ our Lord, etc. If to the Son: Who livest and reignest, etc. If in the beginning of the Collect the Son has been named: Through the same, etc.; if the mention of the Son occurs at the end: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, etc. If the Holy Ghost has been named, in the ending is said: In the unity of the same Holy Ghost.

When many Collects are said, the first only shall end: Through Jesus Christ, etc., or otherwise, as above. The others shall be said without any ending at all, except the last; but every Collect shall have Let us pray before it.

Whenever Proper Collects have been supplied by the Common Prayer-book, they have here been inserted; but in cases where they were not taken from the Sarum book, translations of the Sarum Collects are supplied in brackets, except with regard to a few, the reproduction of which appeared undesirable. This note of course applies to those parts of the book only which, as stated in the Preface, are translated from the Sarum Breviary.

There are certain points in which it may seem more expedient to follow the directions of the Reformed Roman Breviary, which are clearer, less elaborate, and in more general present use. These are placed here first, for the use of those who may prefer them; it being noted that one use or the other must be wholly followed in these particulars, as there are great discrepancies between the two.

1. Dignity of Feasts. See tables of Concurrence and Occurrence.

2. Doubling of Antiphons. The Antiphons to the Psalms at Lauds and Vespers are doubled, as well as the Antiphons to the Canticles. The rubric in the Psalter, p. 1, accords with this use.

3. The Office of the Dead. The Office of the Dead is said on the first day unhindered in every month, and on every Monday in Advent and Lent, but not in Holy Week.

4. Festivals in Holy Week. Any Feast occurring on any day in Holy Week is deferred till the first day unhindered after Low Sunday.

NOTES ON CERTAIN POINTS (Sarum).

Advent. If any Double Feast falls on Sunday, it is transferred to Monday, and on Sunday are said first Vespers of the Feast. If on Monday, on Sunday are said first Vespers of the Feast. If on Saturday, Vespers are of the Feast, except the Saturday before Advent Sunday, when first Vespers are of Sunday. Any Feast which is the Feast of the place is not transferred, but the whole Office is said on its own day. On all Feasts in Advent a Memorial of the feria is made at Lauds and Vespers.

Christmas tide. Rubrics for Christmas and Epiphany are fully set down in the text, except that it is to be noted, that if the Octave of Epiphany falls on Sunday, the whole Office is of the Octave, of course with Memorial of Sunday.

If Candlemas Day falls on Sunday, the whole Office is of the Feast. If on Monday, its first Vespers are said on Sunday. If on Saturday, Vespers are of the Feast.

Lent. If the Annunciation falls on any Sunday, including Palm Sunday, it is transferred to Monday, and in this case, and also when it falls on Monday, on Sunday are said first Vespers of the Feast. If it falls on Saturday, Vespers are of Sunday.

But if it be the Feast of the place, the whole Office is said on its own day, unless it be Palm Sunday, in which case it is transferred to Monday.

If it falls on Wednesday in Holy Week, the Office is of the Feast, but its second Vespers are superseded by first Vespers of Maundy Thursday.

On Tuesday in Holy Week, the Office of the Dead is said throughout, unless prevented by a Double Feast, in which case it is said, if possible, on the day before. No Feasts are celebrated on or after Thursday in Holy Week; but Double Feasts are transferred to any convenient day after the Octave of Easter; Simple Feasts are omitted for that year.

On all Feasts in Lent, a Memorial of the Fast is made at Lauds and Vespers. Lent Compline is never altered, except that on the Feast of the Annunciation, the Hymn is sung with the proper doxology.

Tenebræ. Twenty four candles are set before the Altar and lighted before Matins on Maundy Thursday, according to the number of Prophets and Apostles. One is extinguished at the beginning of each Antiphon and ℣., to signify the cruelty of the Jews towards the Prophets and Apostles. While the fifth Antiphon at Lauds is being sung a light is hidden where it cannot be seen, and after the singing of the fifth Antiphon all the lights throughout the Church are extinguished. For further rubrics concerning the Tenebræ Office, see Proper of Seasons.

EASTER TIDE includes the season from Easter Day till Nones on Saturday in Whitsun Week inclusive. Any Double Feast occurring in Easter Week, or on the three days preceding, is transferred to a convenient day after the Octave. Simple Feasts are omitted for that year. This same order serves for Whitsun Week. If a Double Feast occurs on Low Sunday, it is transferred to Monday. If on Rogation Sunday, it is kept. But Simple Feasts occurring on either of these Sundays are transferred. If any Double Feast is to be kept on the morrow of Low Sunday, or of Rogation Sunday, Vespers on Sunday are of the Feast. No Memorials of ferias are made in Easter tide on any Double Feast, except when such falls on Rogation Monday or the Vigil of the Ascension, in which case Memorial is made of the Fast at Lauds only, before other Memorials. If a Simple Feast occurs on either of these days, it is observed only by a Memorial made at Lauds. The Memorials of the Resurrection are said on Sunday, whether the Office be of Sunday or of a Feast, except on the Invention of the Cross. Easter Compline does not change for Festivals, except in the doxology of the Hymn on the Annunciation.

VIGILS. [The Office of a Vigil, according to Rome, is that of the feria, with proper Collect, unless otherwise ordered in the Proper Offices. See Rubric in Common of Vigils, p. 331. If a Feast, having a Vigil, falls on Monday, the Vigil Office is said on Saturday, and no notice is taken of it on Sunday. When a Feast falls on the Vigil of another Feast, a Memorial of the Vigil is made at Lauds.] The vigils observed in Sarum are those of the Epiphany, S. John Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, S. James, S. Lawrence, the Repose of the Blessed Virgin Mary, S. Bartholomew, SS. Simon and Jude, All Saints, S. Andrew, S. Thomas, and Christmas.

OFFICE OF THE DEAD. The Office of the Dead* is said on every feria through Advent till Christmas Eve, from the morrow of the Octave of Epiphany till Tuesday in Holy Week inclusive, and from the morrow of Trinity Sunday till Advent, with this exception, that it is never said on Double Feasts, or through their Octaves.

SIMPLE FEASTS. On Simple Feasts the Antiphons and Psalms at First Vespers are of the feria, and the Proper Office begins at the Chapter, continuing till Nones inclusive on the day following.

OCTAVES. When a Feast is kept with an Octave, the Office of the Feast, beginning at Lauds, is said for the six following days, with these exceptions:—at Lauds the five Psalms are said under the first Antiphon. The Antiphons to Benedictus and to Magnificat at Vespers are taken from among the Antiphons to Psalms at first Vespers, unless otherwise provided for. At Vespers the Psalms of the second Vespers of the day are said with the Antiphons at Lauds. The ℟. is not said.

But if Sunday falls within the Octave, at first Vespers are said Psalms of second Vespers with the first Antiphon of Lauds; all the rest as at first Vespers of the Feast, except that the ℟. is not said. Lauds is said as through the Octave. Second Vespers is said as on the Feast, except that the ℟. is not said.

On the Octave day, all is said as on the first day, except that at first Vespers the Psalms are all said under the first Antiphon; and no ℟. is said at either Vespers.

The Festivals intended to be said with Octaves, as contained in this book, besides those set down in the Psalter, are: Corpus Christi, S. John Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, the Visitation, the Holy Name, the Repose of the Blessed Virgin Mary, All Saints.

* Vespers, one Nocturn, and Lauds: Noct. 1 on Monday and Thursday, Noct. 2 on Tuesday and Friday, Noct. 3 on Wednesday and Saturday: but, if festivals intervene, so arranging as, if possible, to get the 3 Nocts. said once in the course of the week.

Of Saying Office.

The bell being rung for the commencement of the Office, all rise, make the sign of the Cross, and say in silence the Lord's Prayer (and if it be so ordered, the Angelic Salutation and Creed). The officiant then begins aloud, (signing himself with the Cross,) ℣. "O God, make speed," etc., and the Office proceeds. (In Lent, all kneel till the officiant begins the ℣.) The Alleluia following the Gloria is said by all together. In Christmas and Easter tides the whole Office is said standing. At other times, those not engaged in singing are permitted to sit during the Psalms; the ferial Petitions and other Prayers are said kneeling, the priest, if present, alone standing where it is so noted in the Psalter. All stand during the recital of the three Gospel Canticles. The Hymns, when not sung, are said antiphonally. The Psalms are repeated antiphonally, whether said or sung, in this manner:—the first half of the first verse of each Psalm is said by the officiant; the whole choir joins him in the second half; after which the even verses are said on the Cantoris, and the uneven on the Decani side. But when Psalms occur amongst the Petitions, they are not so said, but the officiant says the first half of each verse, and the congregation the other half. Antiphons are said in this manner: 1. Before the Psalm or Canticle, the officiant says or sings the first two or three words alone, and the Psalm is then begun. 2. Afterwards he again begins the Ant. alone, and the choir joins in for the remainder. But when an Ant. is doubled, it is said or sung before the Psalm or Canticle according to rule 2. After, the whole is said or sung by the choir.

The manner of saying the ℟. differs at Vespers and at the Little Hours. At Vespers, the officiant says the first few words, and the choir take up the rest. At the hours, (i. e. Tierce, Sexts, Nones) the officiant says the whole of the first sentence, and the choir repeats it all afterwards; except in Lent, when the rule is the same as at Vespers.

The Lord's Prayer and Apostles' Creed are said wholly in silence wherever they occur in Office.

The Confessions and Absolutions are said in a low voice.

The organ is not used during Lent, except on Sundays and on Maundy Thursday.

Space does not allow us here to dwell on the spiritual meaning which underlies the whole Office, and so richly repays investigation. We conclude in the words of the "Myrroure of our Ladye": "Though this be true after the spiritual meaning, yet after the letter the changing that is in God's service from one thing to another, is ordained to let it drive away your dulness, that ye should not wax tedious and weary, but gladly and joyfully, not in vain joy, but in joy of spiritual devotion, continue in God's service. Therefore sometime ye sing, sometime ye read, sometime ye hear; now one alone, now twain together, now all. Sometime ye sit, sometime ye stand, sometime ye incline, sometime ye kneel, now toward the Altar, now toward the choir. And all to the praising of our Lord Jesus Christ; and so to exercise the body to the quickening of the soul, that all such bodily observances should not be found without cause of ghostly understanding. Now join to all this the fruit of that thing that is sung and read, and thereto the fellowship of the Angels among you in time of God's service, and most of all the marvellous and unspeakable presence of God Himself, from Whom our Lady is not far, and see whether it be not nigh another Heaven to serve and praise God in the choir."

At Matins bound, at Prime reviled, condemned to death at Tierce;
Nailed to the Cross at Sexts; at Nones His blessed side they pierce;
They take Him down at Vesper-tide, in grave at Compline lay;
Who henceforth bids His Church observe these seven hours alway.

Prayers that may be said privately before the Divine Office.

GRANT, O Lord, that what we sing with our lips, we may believe in our hearts, and practise in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer of the Venerable Bede.

GRANT, I entreat Thee, Almighty God, that speaking with understanding and good will, and in plainness, I may deserve to be heard by Thee: for I need Thy help in all things; so that by the gift of Thy grace, I may be enabled not unworthily to sing the words of Thy Majesty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT, I beseech Thee, Lord God, that by the melody of this holy Psalter, my soul may be refreshed; cause me always to apply myself to Thy praises, and joyfully to come to Thy blessedness; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Matins.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at this Matin Hour didst will to be born, to be betrayed, taken, beaten with stripes, buffeted, and spit upon for the salvation of mankind; make us, we beseech Thee, joyfully and patiently to endure injuries and reproaches for the glory of Thy Name; and so continually to keep in remembrance the memory of Thy most Sacred Passion, that we may be enabled happily to attain to the glory and fellowship of Thy Resurrection; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

At Prime.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who in the First Hour of the day wast brought before Pilate: Who, the Judge of all judges, didst yet endure the severest doom; we most devoutly beseech Thee that Thou in Thy judgment wouldest be lenient to us miserable sinners; that in the last eternal judgment we be not condemned to punishment, but may rather attain to the fellowship of Thy faithful ones in heavenly places; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Tierce.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at the Third Hour of the day wast led forth to the pain of the Cross, for the salvation of the world; we humbly beseech Thee that by the virtue of Thy most sacred Passion, Thou wouldest blot out all our sins, and mercifully bring us to the glory of Thy blessedness; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Sexts.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at the Sixth Hour of the day in Golgotha with great tumult didst ascend the Cross of suffering, whereon, thirsting for our salvation, Thou didst permit gall and vinegar to be given Thee to drink; we, Thy suppliants, beseech Thee that, kindling and inflaming our hearts, Thou wouldest make us to thirst for the cup of Thy Passion, and continually to find delight in Thee only, our crucified Lord; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Nones.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at the Ninth Hour of the day, with hands extended upon the Cross, and bowing the head, didst deliver up Thy spirit to God the Father, and with the key of death didst most meritoriously unlock the gate of Paradise; grant to us, Thy suppliants, that in the hour of death Thou wouldest mercifully cause our souls to attain unto Thee, Who art the true Paradise; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Vespers.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at the Vesper Hour of the day, being now made subject unto death, didst will to be taken down from the Cross, and (as is piously believed) to be received into the arms of Thy Mother; mercifully grant that we, casting away the burthens of our sins, may be enabled to attain even unto the presence of Thy divine Majesty; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

At Compline.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, Who at the Compline Hour rested in the sepulchre, and wast bewailed and lamented by Thy most gentle Mother, and by the other women; make us, we beseech Thee, to abound in the sorrows of Thy Passion, and with entire devotion of heart to bewail that same Passion, and to keep it ever as it were fresh in the ardent affection of our hearts; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

Prayers after the Divine Office.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TO Thee, O Lord, I commend the Service which I an unworthy sinner have offered up unto Thee. God be merciful to me, a sinner; and after Thy good knowledge and will, have pity upon me; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PSALTER.

SUNDAY.

Lauds.

These Dominical Psalms are said at Lauds on every Sunday throughout the year, (except from Septuagesima to Easter, when certain Psalms are changed, as below,) and on all festivals.

Lauds, being said immediately after Matins, are not begun with the Invocation, &c., like the other Hours, but straightway with the Sacerdotal ℣. and ℟.

℣. The Lord is high above all people.

℣. O God, make speed to save us.

℟. O Lord, make haste to help us.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

[From Septuagesima till Wednesday in Holy Week, inclusive, instead of Alleluia is said:

Praise be to Thee, O Lord, King of eternal glory.]

The Antiphons are said entire both before and after each Psalm on Sundays of the first Class, and on double feasts: at other times the first words only are said before, and the whole Antiphon is said after each Psalm.

Ant. The Lord is King * and hath put on glorious apparel : He hath girded Himself with strength, and His seat is from everlasting.

Psalm XCIII. Dominus regnavit.

THE Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel : the Lord hath put on His apparel, and girded Himself with strength.

2 He hath made the round world so sure : that it cannot be moved.

3 Ever since the world began hath Thy seat been prepared : Thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice : the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly : but yet the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are very sure : holiness becometh Thine house for ever.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel : He hath girded Himself with strength, and His seat is from everlasting.

[Instead of Ps. XCIII. is said, between Septuagesima and Easter, with Antiphon of the Season:

Psalm LI. Miserere mei, Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences

2 Wash me throughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.
4 Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.
5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.
6 But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.
7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.
9 Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.
10 Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.
11 Cast me not away from Thy Presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.
12 O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.
13 Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.
14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.
15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall show Thy praise.
16 For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.
17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise.
18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.
Glory be, etc.]

Ant. Let us all know * that the Lord He is God : in Him let us be joyful, and exalt and praise His Name for ever.

Psalm c. Jubilate Deo.

O BE joyful in the Lord, all ye lands : serve the Lord with gladness, and come before His presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord He is God : it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.

3 O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise : be thankful unto Him, and speak good of His Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, His mercy is everlasting : and His truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Let us all know that the Lord He is God : in Him let us be joyful, and exalt and praise His Name for ever.

[Instead of Ps. c. is said, between Septuagesima and Easter, with Antiphon of the Season :

Psalm cxviii. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : because His mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let Israel now confess that He is gracious : and that His mercy endureth for ever.
3 Let the house of Aaron now confess : that His mercy endureth for ever.
4 Yea, let them now that fear the Lord confess : that His mercy endureth for ever.
5 I called upon the Lord in trouble : and the Lord heard me at large.
6 The Lord is on my side : I will not fear what man doeth unto me.
7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me : therefore shall I see my desire upon mine enemies.
8 It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed me round about : but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.
11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in, I say, on every side : but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.
12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns : for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall : but the Lord was my help.
14 The Lord is my strength, and my song : and is become my salvation.
15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous : the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.
16 The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence : the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.
17 I shall not die, but live : and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected me : but He hath not given me over unto death.
19 Open me the gates of righteousness : that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.
20 This is the gate of the Lord : the righteous shall enter into it.
21 I will thank Thee, for Thou hast heard me : and art become my salvation.
22 The same stone which the builders refused : is become the head-stone in the corner.
23 This is the Lord's doing : and it is marvellous in our eyes.
24 This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice and be glad in it.
25 Help me now, O Lord : O Lord, send us now prosperity.
26 Blessed be He that cometh in the Name of the Lord : we have wished you good luck, ye that are of the house of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord who hath shewed us light : bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unto the horns of the altar.
28 Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee : Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.
29 O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.
Glory be, etc.]

Ant. As long as I live * will I magnify Thee : that I may behold Thy power and glory.

Psalm LXIII. Deus, Deus meus.

O GOD, Thou art my God : early will I seek Thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for Thee, my flesh also longeth after Thee : in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for Thee in holiness : that I might behold Thy power and glory.

4 For Thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself : my lips shall praise Thee.

5 As long as I live will I magnify Thee on this manner : and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth Thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered Thee in my bed : and thought upon Thee when I was waking?

8 Because Thou hast been my helper : therefore under the shadow of Thy wings will I rejoice.

9 My soul hangeth upon Thee : Thy right hand hath upholden me.

10 These also that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword : that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shall rejoice in God; all they also that swear by Him shall be commended : for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Here is not said Glory be, etc.

Psalm LXVII. Deus misereatur.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : and show us the light of His countenance, and be merciful unto us;

2 That Thy way may be known upon earth : Thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise Thee.

4 O let the nations rejoice and be glad : for Thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praise Thee, O God : let all the people praise Thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : and God, even our own God, shall give us His blessing.

7 God shall bless us : and all the ends of the world shall fear Him.

Glory be, etc.

14 O all ye Beasts, and Cattle, bless ye the Lord : O ye Children of men, bless ye the Lord.

15 O let Israel bless the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

16 O ye Priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : O ye Servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord.

17 O ye Spirits and Souls of the righteous, bless ye the Lord : O ye holy and humble Men of heart, bless ye the Lord.

18 O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

Instead of Glory be, etc.

Let us bless the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost : let us praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven : and above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

Ant. Let every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, bless the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

Ant. Let every thing that hath breath * praise the Lord : for He spake the word, and they were made; He commanded, and they were created.

Ps. CXLVIII. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord of heaven : praise Him in the height.

2 Praise Him, all ye angels of His : praise Him, all His host.

3 Praise Him, sun and moon : praise Him, all ye stars and light.

4 Praise Him, all ye heavens : and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord : for He spake the word, and they were made; He commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for ever and ever : He hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

7 Praise the Lord upon earth : ye dragons, and all deeps;

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours : wind and storm, fulfilling His word;

9 Mountains and all hills : fruitful trees and all cedars:

10 Beasts and all cattle : worms and feathered fowls;

11 Kings of the earth and all people : princes and all judges of the world;

12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord : for His Name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth.

13 He shall exalt the horn of His people; all His saints shall praise Him : even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth Him.

Here is not said Glory be, etc.

Psalm CXLIX. Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the Lord a new song: let the congregation of saints praise Him.

2 Let Israel rejoice in Him that made him : and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise His Name in the dance : let them sing praises unto Him with tabret and harp.

4 For the Lord hath pleasure in His people : and helpeth the meek-hearted.

5 Let the saints be joyful with glory : let them rejoice in their beds.

6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth : and a two-edged sword in their hands;

7 To be avenged of the heathen : and to rebuke the people;

8 To bind their kings in chains : and their nobles with links of iron.

9 That they may be avenged of them, as it is written : Such honour have all His saints.

Here is not said Glory be, etc.

Psalm CL. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE God in His holiness : praise Him in the firmament of His power.

2 Praise Him in His noble acts : praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

3 Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet : praise Him upon the lute and harp.

4 Praise Him in the cymbals and dances : praise Him upon the strings and pipe.

5 Praise Him upon the well-tuned cymbals : praise Him upon the loud cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath : praise the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord : for He spake the word, and they were made; He commanded, and they were created.

CHAPTER. Rev. vii.

BLESSING, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

℟. Thanks be to God.

[For Chapter at other times, see Proper of Seasons.]

After Trinity, on Sundays and all ferias.

HYMN. Ecce jam noctis.

DARKNESS is thinning, shadows are retreating,
Morning and light are coming in their beauty;
Suppliant seek we, with an earnest outcry,
God the Almighty.

So that our Master, having mercy on us,
May repel languor, may bestow salvation,
Granting us, Father, of Thy loving-kindness,
Glory hereafter.

This of His mercy, ever Blessed Godhead,
Father and Son, and Holy Spirit, grant us:
Whom through the wide world celebrate for ever
Worship and glory.

℣. The Lord is King.

℟. He hath put on glorious apparel. Alleluia.

Benedictus. St. Luke i.

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel : for He hath visited and redeemed His people;

2 And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us : in the house of His servant David;

3 As He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets : which have been since the world began;

4 That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate us;

5 To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers : and to remember His holy covenant;

6 To perform the oath which He sware to our forefather Abraham : that He would give us;

7 That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies : might serve Him without fear;

8 In holiness and righteousness before Him : all the days of our life.

9 And thou, Child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways;

10 To give knowledge of salvation unto His people : for the remission of their sins,

11 Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;

12 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be, etc.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

FOR THE PEACE OF THE CHURCH.

Said after Lauds daily throughout the year, except on Double Feasts, and in Christmas and Easter tide.

Psalm CXXIII.

Ad Te levavi oculos meos.

UNTO Thee lift I up mine eyes: O Thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hands of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until He have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy: and with the despitefulness of the proud.

Glory be, etc.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. O Lord, arise, help us.
℟. And deliver us for Thy Name's sake.
℣. Turn us again, O Lord God of Hosts.
℟. Show the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.
℟. And let my crying come unto Thee.
℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, mercifully to hear the prayers of Thy Church, and grant that we, being delivered from all adversities, may serve Thee with a quiet mind; and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end. Amen.

MONDAY.

Lauds.

This ℣. and ℟. are said on all ferias from Epiphany to Lent, and from Trinity to Advent, when the Office is of the feria.

℣. Let Thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us.
℟. As we do put our trust in Thee.
℣. O God, make speed to save us.
℟. O Lord, make haste to help us.
℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Have mercy.

(Antiphons are never doubled on ferias.)

Psalm LI. Miserere mei, Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies, do away mine offences.

2 Wash me throughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6 But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall show Thy praise.

16 For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Have mercy : upon me, O God.

Ant. Consider.

Psalm v. Verba mea auribus.

PONDER my words, O Lord consider my meditation.

2 O hearken Thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God : for unto Thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt Thou hear betimes, O Lord : early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up.

4 For Thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness : neither shall any evil dwell with Thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in Thy sight : for Thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing : the Lord will abhor both the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into Thine house, even upon the multitude of Thy mercy : and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in Thy righteousness, because of mine enemies : make Thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth : their inward parts are very wickedness.

10 Their throat is an open sepulchre : they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy Thou them, O God; let them perish through their own imaginations : cast them out in the multitude of their ungodliness; for they have rebelled against Thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in Thee rejoice : they shall ever be giving of thanks, because Thou defendest them; they that love Thy Name shall be joyful in Thee;

13 For Thou, Lord, wilt give Thy blessing unto the righteous : and with Thy favourable kindness wilt Thou defend him as with a shield.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Consider my meditation: O Lord.

Ant. O God.

Ant. O God, Thou art my God : early will I seek Thee.

Ant. Thine anger is turned away.

SONG OF ISAIAH.

Confitebor Tibi. Is. xii.

AND in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise Thee : though Thou wast angry with me, Thine anger is turned away, and Thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid : for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; He also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water : out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon His Name : declare His doings among the people, make mention that His Name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the Lord; for He hath done excellent things : this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion : for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Thine anger is turned away, O LORD : and Thou comfortedst me.

PETITIONS.

(These are not said in Christmas or Easter tide. Lauds then end as on Sunday.)

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me.
℟. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.
℣. Turn Thee again, O Lord, at the last.
℟. And be gracious unto Thy servants.
℣. Let Thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us.
℟. As we do put our trust in Thee.
℣. Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness.
℟. And Thy Saints sing with joyfulness.
℣. O Lord, save the Queen.
℟. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.
℣. O God, save Thy servants and handmaidens.
℟. Which put their trust in Thee.
℣. O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance.
℟. Govern them, and lift them up for ever.
℣. Peace be within Thy walls.
℟. And plenteousness within Thy palaces.
℣. Let us pray for the faithful departed.
℟. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and light perpetual shine upon them.
℣. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto Thee.
℟. Have mercy upon me, and hear me.

Psalm li. Miserere mei, Deus, p. 1, with Glory be, etc.

[Here follows in Lent.

Psalm vi. Domine, ne in furore.

O LORD, rebuke me not in Thine indignation: neither chasten me in Thy displeasure.
2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.
3 My soul also is sore troubled: but, Lord, how long wilt Thou punish me?
4 Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for Thy mercy's sake.
5 For in death no man remembereth Thee: and who will give Thee thanks in the pit?
6 I am weary of my groaning; every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.
7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.
8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.
9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.
10 All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed: they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.
Glory be, etc.]

(Here the reader, if a Priest, rising, stands at the step of the Sanctuary),

℣. O Lord, arise, help us.
℟. And deliver us for Thy Name's sake.
℣. Turn Thee again, O Lord God of Hosts.
℟. Show the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.
℟. And let my crying come unto Thee.
℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Ferial Memorials.

Said on all ferias, according to the rubric before Sunday Memorials, p. 6.

[For memorials from Advent Sunday till the Octave of Epiphany, see Proper of Seasons.]

From the Octave of Epiphany till Ash-Wednesday, and after the Octave of Trinity till Advent:

Memorial of S. Mary.

Ant. The Root of Jesse hath budded; a Star hath risen out of Jacob; a Virgin hath brought forth the Saviour: We praise Thee, O our God.

℣. After child-bearing thou remainedst a Virgin.
℟. O Mother of God.

Collect.

O GOD, Who through the fruitful virginity of the Blessed Virgin Mary hast bestowed the rewards of eternal salvation on the human race; grant, we pray Thee, that she may intercede for us, through whom we have received the Author of Life, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Memorial of All Saints.

Ant. The Saints shall be joyful with glory: they shall rejoice in their beds.

℣. Wonderful art Thou, O God, in Thy Saints.
℟. And glorious in Thy majesty.

If this ℣. has been said before in any occasional Memorial, then in this Memorial is said:

℣. The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God.
℟. And there shall no torment touch them.

Collect.

WE pray Thee, O Lord, let the intercession of all Thy Saints be acceptable unto Thee; and grant us forgiveness of our sins and the remedies of eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[For Memorials from Ash-Wednesday till Whitsuntide, see Proper of Seasons.]

From Monday after the Octave of Trinity till Advent, before the Memorials of S. Mary and All Saints, Memorial of the Holy Cross.

Ant. Save us, O Christ our Saviour, by the virtue of the Holy Cross: as Thou savedst Peter in the sea; and have mercy upon us.

℣. All the world shall worship Thee, and sing of Thee.
℟. And praise Thy name.

Collect.

KEEP, we beseech Thee, O Lord, in perpetual peace, those whom Thou hast vouchsafed to redeem by the wood of the Holy Cross, O Saviour of the world, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

For the Peace of the Church.

Ant. According to the multitude of Thy mercies : have mercy upon me, O God.

Ant. The help of my countenance.

Psalm xliii. Judica me, Deus.

GIVE sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people : O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

2 For Thou art the God of my strength, why hast Thou put me from Thee : and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

3 O send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me : and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness : and upon the harp will I give thanks unto Thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soul : and why art thou so disquieted within me?

6 O put thy trust in God : for I will yet give Him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Song of Hezekiah.

Ego dixi. Isaiah xxxviii.

I SAID, in the cutting off of my days : I shall go to the gates of the grave.

2 I am deprived of the residue of my years : I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord, in the land of living.

3 I shall behold man no more : with the inhabitants of the world.

4 Mine age is departed : and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent.

5 I have cut off like a weaver my life : He will cut me off with pining sickness.

6 From day even to night, wilt Thou make an end of me : I reckoned till morning that, as a lion, so will He break all my bones.

7 From day even to night wilt Thou make an end of me : like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter; I did mourn as a dove.

8 My eyes fail : with looking upward.

9 O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me : what shall I say? He hath both spoken unto me, and Himself hath done it.

10 I shall go softly all my years : in the bitterness of my soul.

11 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit : so wilt Thou recover me, and make me to live : behold, for peace I had great bitterness.

12 But Thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption : for Thou hast cast all my sins behind Thy back.

he shall dwell in Thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple.

5 Thou shalt show us wonderful things in Thy righteousness, O God of our salvation : Thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

6 Who in His strength setteth fast the mountains : and is girded about with power.

7 Who stilleth the raging of the sea : and the noise of His waves, and the madness of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at Thy tokens : Thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise Thee.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it : Thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water : Thou preparest their corn, for so Thou providest for the earth.

11 Thou waterest her furrows, Thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof : Thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

12 Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness : and Thy clouds drop fatness.

SONG OF HANNAH.

Exultavit cor meum. 1 Sam. ii.

MY heart rejoiceth in the Lord : mine horn is exalted in the Lord.

2 My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies : because I rejoice in Thy salvation.

3 There is none holy as the Lord : for there is none beside Thee : neither is there any rock like our God.

4 Talk no more : so exceeding proudly.

5 Let not arrogancy come out of your mouth : for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed.

6 The bows of the mighty men are broken : and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

7 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread : and they that were hungry ceased.

8 So that the barren hath born seven : and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

9 The Lord killeth, and maketh alive : He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

10 The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich : He bringeth low, and lifteth up.

11 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust : and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill.

12 To set them among princes : and to make them inherit the throne of glory.

13 For the pillars of the earth are the Lord's : and He hath set the world upon them.

14 He will keep the feet of His saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness : for by strength shall no man prevail.

15 The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces : out of heaven shall He thunder upon them.

LORD, Thou hast been our refuge : from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made : Thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction : again Thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday : seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soon as Thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep : and fade away suddenly like the grass.

6 In the morning it is green, and groweth up : but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

7 For we consume away in Thy displeasure : and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee : and our secret sins in the light of Thy countenance.

9 For when Thou art angry all our days are gone : we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years : yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of Thy wrath : for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is Thy displeasure.

12 So .teach us to number our days : that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Turn Thee again, O Lord, at the last : and be gracious unto Thy servants.

2 The Lord is my strength and my song : and is become my salvation.

3 He is my God, and I will prepare Him an habitation : my father's God, and I will exalt Him.

4 The Lord is a man of war : the Lord is His Name : Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea.

5 His chosen captains are drowned in the Red Sea : the depths have covered them; they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power; Thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy : and in the greatness of Thine excellency Thou hast overthrown them that rose up against Thee.

7 Thou sentest forth Thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble : and with the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were gathered together.

8 The flood stood upright as an heap : and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil : my lust shall be satisfied upon them.

10 I will draw my sword : my hand shall destroy them.

11 Thou didst blow with Thy wind, the sea covered them : they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

19 They shall be as still as a stone : till Thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over, which Thou hast purchased.

Psalm CXLIII. Domine, exaudi.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for Thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2 And enter not into judgement with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all Thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of Thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto Thee : my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not Thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear Thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in Thee is my trust : show Thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto Thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God : let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for Thy Name's sake : and for Thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of Thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul; for I am Thy servant.

Glory be, etc.

SONG OF HABAKKUK.

Domine audivi. Habakkuk iii.

O LORD, I have heard Thy speech : and was afraid.

2 O Lord, revive Thy work : in the midst of the years.

3 In the midst of the years make known : in wrath remember mercy.

4 God came from Teman : and the Holy One from Mount Paran.

5 His glory covered the heavens : and the earth was full of His praise.

6 And His brightness was as the light : He had horns coming out of His hand.

7 And there was the hiding of His power : before Him went the pestilence.

8 And burning coals went forth at His feet : He stood and measured the earth.

9 He beheld and drove asunder the nations : and the everlasting mountains were scattered.

10 The perpetual hills did bow : His ways are everlasting.

11 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction : and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

12 Was the Lord displeased against the rivers? was Thine anger against the rivers : was Thy wrath against the sea ;

13 That Thou didst ride upon Thine horses : and Thy chariots of salvation?

14 Thy bow was made quite naked : according to the oaths of the tribes, even Thy word.

15 Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers : the mountains saw Thee, and trembled.

16 The overflowing of the water : passed by.

17 The deep uttered his voice : and lifted up his hands on high.

18 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation : at the light of Thine arrows they went, and at the shining of Thy glittering spear.

19 Thou didst march through the land in indignation : Thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

20 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of Thy people : even for salvation with Thine Anointed.

21 Thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked : by discovering the foundation unto the neck.

22 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages : they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me.

23 Their rejoicing : was as to devour the poor secretly.

24 Thou didst walk through the sea with Thine horses : through the deep of great waters.

25 When I heard, my belly trembled : my lips quivered at the voice.

26 Rottenness entered into my bones : and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble.

27 When He cometh up unto the people : He will invade them with His troops.

28 Although the fig-tree shall not blossom : neither shall fruit be on the vines ;

29 The labour of the olives shall fail : and the fields shall yield no meat.

30 The flock shall be cut off from the fold : and there shall be no herd in the stalls.

31 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord : I will joy in the God of my salvation.

32 The Lord God is my strength : and He will make my feet like hinds' feet.

33 And He will make me to walk : upon mine high places.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. It is a good thing.

Psalm XCII. Bonum est confiteri.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord : and to sing praises unto Thy Name, O most Highest.

2 To tell of Thy loving-kindness early in the morning : and of Thy truth in the night-season.

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute : upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

4 For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy works : and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of Thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are Thy works : Thy thoughts are very deep.

6 An unwise man doth not well consider this : and a fool doth not understand it.

7 When the ungodly are green as the grass, and when all the workers of wickedness do flourish : then shall they be destroyed for ever; but Thou, Lord, art the most Highest for evermore.

8 For lo, Thine enemies, O Lord, lo, Thine enemies shall perish : and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.

9 But mine horn shall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn : for I am anointed with fresh oil.

10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies : and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree : and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as are planted in the house of the Lord : shall flourish in the courts of the House of our God.

SONG OF MOSES.

Audite cœli. Deut. xxxii.

GIVE ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak : and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain : my speech shall distil as the dew.

3 As the small rain upon the tender herb : and as the showers upon the grass.

4 Because I will publish : the Name of the Lord.

5 Ascribe ye greatness : unto our God.

6 He is the Rock, His work is perfect : for all His ways are judgment.

7 A God of truth and without iniquity : just and right is He.

8 They have corrupted themselves : their spot is not the spot of His children.

9 They are a perverse : and crooked generation.

10 Do ye thus requite the Lord : O foolish people and unwise?

11 Is not He thy Father that hath bought thee : hath He not made thee, and established thee?

12 Remember the days of old : consider the years of many generations.

13 Ask thy father, and he will shew thee : thy elders, and they will tell thee.

14 When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance : when He separated the sons of Adam;

15 He set the bounds of the people : according to the number of the children of Israel.

16 For the Lord's portion is His people : Jacob is the lot of His inheritance.

17 He found him in a desert land : and in the waste howling wilderness.

18 He led him about, He instructed him : He kept him as the apple of His eye.

19 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young : spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings;

20 So the Lord alone did lead him : and there was no strange God with him.

21 He made him ride in the high places of the earth : that he might eat the increase of the fields.

22 And He made him suck honey out of the rock : and oil out of the flinty rock.

23 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs and rams of the breed of Basan : and goats with the fat of the kidneys of wheat, and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.

24 But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked : thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness.

25 Then he forsook God Which made him : and lightly esteemed the Rock of his Salvation.

26 They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods : with abominations provoked they Him to anger.

27 They sacrificed unto devils, not to God : to gods whom they knew not;

28 To new gods that came newly up : whom your fathers feared not.

29 Of the Rock that begat thee, thou art unmindful : and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

30 And when the Lord saw it He abhorred them : because of the provoking of His sons and of His daughters.

31 And He said, I will hide My Face from them : I will see what their end shall be.

32 For they are a very froward generation : children in whom is no faith.

33 They have moved Me to jealousy with that which is not God : they have provoked Me to anger with their vanities;

34 And I will move them to jealousy with those that are not a people : I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

35 For a fire is kindled in Mine anger : and shall burn unto the lowest hell;

36 And shall consume the earth with her increase : and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

37 I will heap mischief upon them : I will spend Mine arrows upon them.

38 They shall be burnt with hunger : and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction.

39 I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them : with the poison of serpents of the dust.

40 The sword without and terror within shall destroy both the young man and the virgin : the suckling also, with the man of grey hairs.

41 I said, I would scatter them into corners : I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.

42 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy : lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely;

43 And lest they should say : Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this.

44 For they are a nation void of counsel : neither is there any understanding in them.

45 O that they were wise, that they understood this : that they would consider their latter end!

46 How should one chase a thousand : and two put ten thousand to flight?

47 Except their Rock had sold them : and the Lord had shut them up.

48 For their rock is not as our Rock : even our enemies themselves being judges.

49 For their vine is as the vine of Sodom : and of the fields of Gomorrah.

50 Their grapes are grapes of gall : their clusters are bitter.

51 Their wine is the poison of dragons : and the cruel venom of asps.

52 Is not this laid up in store with Me : and sealed up among My treasures?

53 To Me belongeth vengeance : and recompense.

54 Their foot shall slide : in due time.

55 For the day of their calamity is at hand : and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

56 For the Lord shall judge His people : and repent Himself for His servants;

57 When He seeth that their power is gone : and there is none shut up, or left.

58 And He shall say, Where are their gods : their rock in whom they trusted?

59 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices : and drank the wine of their drink-offerings?

60 Let them rise up and help you : and be your protection.

61 See now that I, even I, am He : and there is no god with Me.

62 I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal : neither is there any that can deliver out of My hand.

63 For I lift up My hand to heaven : and say, I live for ever.

64 If I whet My glittering sword : and Mine hand take hold on judgment ;

65 I will render vengeance to Mine enemies : and will reward them that hate Me.

66 I will make Mine arrows drunk with blood : and My sword shall devour flesh.

67 And that with the blood of the slain, and of the captives : from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

68 Rejoice, O ye nations, with His people : for He will avenge the blood of His servants.

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That He, in all we do or say,

From anger's din would hide our life ;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes ;
Would close our ears from vanities ;

And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstain'd
Shall praise His Name for victory gain'd.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee;
All praise for ever, as is meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Psalm xxii. Deus, Deus meus.

MY God, my God, look upon me; why hast Thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but Thou hearest not: and in the night-season also I take no rest.

3 And Thou continuest holy: O Thou worship of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in Thee: they trusted in Thee, and Thou didst deliver them.

5 They called upon Thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in Thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

8 He trusted in God, that He would deliver Him: let Him deliver Him, if He will have Him.

9 But Thou art He that took me out of my mother's womb: Thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

10 I have been left unto Thee ever since I was born: Thou art my God even from my mother's womb.

11 O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand : and there is none to help me.

12 Many oxen are come about me : fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.

13 They gape upon me with their mouths : as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint : my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums : and Thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16 For many dogs are come about me : and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They pierced my hands and my feet; I may tell all my bones : they stand staring and looking upon me.

18 They part my garments among them : and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not Thou far from me, O Lord : Thou art my succour, haste Thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword : my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth : Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

22 I will declare Thy Name unto my brethren : in the midst of the congregation will I praise Thee.

23 O praise the Lord, ye that fear Him : magnify Him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear Him, all ye seed of Israel;

24 For He hath not despised, nor abhorred, the low estate of the poor : He hath not hid His face from him, but when he called unto Him He heard him.

25 My praise is of Thee in the great congregation : my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear Him.

26 The poor shall eat, and be satisfied : they that seek after the Lord shall praise Him; your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord : and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Him.

28 For the kingdom is the Lord's : and He is the Governour among the people.

29 All such as be fat upon earth : have eaten, and worshipped.

30 All they that go down into the dust shall kneel before Him : and no man hath quickened his own soul.

31 My seed shall serve Him : they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heavens shall declare His righteousness : unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.

THE Lord is my Shepherd : therefore can I lack nothing.

2 He shall feed me in a green pasture : and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall convert my soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His Name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me : Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

Psalm XXIV. Domini est terra.

THE earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is : the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For He hath founded it upon the seas : and prepared it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord : or who shall rise up in His holy place?

4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord : and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek Him : even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors : and the King of Glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of Glory : it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors : and the King of Glory shall come in.

10 Who is the King of Glory : even the Lord of hosts, He is the King of Glory.

Psalm XXV. Ad te, Domine, levavi.

UNTO Thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in Thee : O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in Thee shall not be ashamed : but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

3 Show me Thy ways, O Lord : and teach me Thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in Thy truth, and learn me : for Thou art the God of my salvation; in Thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy tender mercies : and Thy lovingkindnesses, which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth : but according to Thy mercy think Thou upon me, O Lord, for Thy goodness.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord : therefore will He teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that are meek shall He guide in judgment : and such as are gentle, them shall He learn His way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth : unto such as keep His covenant, and His testimonies.

10 For Thy Name's sake, O Lord : be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

11 What man is he, that feareth the Lord : him shall He teach in the way that He shall choose.

12 His soul shall dwell at ease : and his seed shall inherit the land.

13 The secret of the Lord is among them that fear Him : and He will shew them His covenant.

14 Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord : for He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn Thee unto me, and have mercy upon me : for I am desolate, and in misery.

16 The sorrows of my heart are enlarged : O bring Thou me out of my troubles.

17 Look upon my adversity and misery : and forgive me all my sin.

21 Deliver Israel, O God : out of all his troubles.

Psalm XXVI. Judica me, Domine.

BE Thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently : my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

2 Examine me, O Lord, and prove me : try out my reins and my heart.

3 For Thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes : and I will walk in Thy truth.

4 I have not dwelt with vain persons : neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

5 I have hated the congregation of the wicked : and will not sit among the ungodly.

6 I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord : and so will I go to Thine Altar :

7 That I may show the voice of thanksgiving : and tell of all Thy wondrous works.

8 Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house : and the place where Thine honour dwelleth.

9 O shut not up my soul with the sinners : nor my life with the blood-thirsty ;

10 In whose hands is wickedness : and their right hand is full of gifts.

11 But as for me, I will walk innocently : O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

12 My foot standeth right : I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Psalm LIV. Deus, in nomine.

SAVE me, O God, for Thy Name's sake : and avenge me in Thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God : and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me : and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, seek after my soul.

4 Behold, God is my Helper : the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies : destroy Thou them in Thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I give Thee, and praise Thy Name, O Lord : because it is so comfortable.

7 For He hath delivered me out of all my trouble : and mine eye hath seen His desire upon mine enemies.

Ps. CXVIII. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : because His mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let Israel now confess, that He is gracious : and that His mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confess : that His mercy endureth for ever.

4 Yea, let them now that fear the Lord confess : that His mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the Lord in trouble : and the Lord heard me at large.

6 The Lord is on my side : I will not fear what man doeth unto me.

7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me : therefore shall I see my desire upon my enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me round about : but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.

11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in, I say, on every side : but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns : for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall : but the Lord was my help.

14 The Lord is my strength and my song : and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous : the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence : the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

17 I shall not die, but live : and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected me : but He hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open me the gates of righteousness : that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord : the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will thank Thee, for Thou hast heard me : and art become my salvation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused : is become the headstone in the corner.

23 This the Lord's doing : and it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Help me now, O Lord : O Lord, send us now prosperity.

26 Blessed be He that cometh in the name of the Lord : we have wished you good luck, ye that are of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord who hath showed us light : bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee : Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

29 O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.

3 Ever since the world began hath Thy seat been prepared : Thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice : the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly : but yet the Lord, Who dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are very sure : holiness becometh Thine house for ever.]

[Daily.]

Psalm CXIX. Beati immaculati.

BLESSED are those that are undefiled in the way : and walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep His testimonies : and seek Him with their whole heart.

3 For they who do no wickedness : walk in His ways.

4 Thou hast charged : that we shall diligently keep Thy commandments.

5 O that my ways were made so direct : that I might keep Thy statutes!

6 So shall I not be confounded : while I have respect unto all Thy commandments.

7 I will thank Thee with an unfeigned heart : when I shall have learned the judgments of Thy righteousness.

8 I will keep Thy ceremonies : O forsake me not utterly.

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way : even by ruling himself after Thy Word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought Thee : O let me not go wrong out of Thy commandments.

11 Thy words have I hid within my heart : that I should not sin against Thee.

12 Blessed art Thou, O Lord : O teach me Thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I been telling : of all the judgments of Thy mouth.

14 I have had as great delight in the way of Thy testimonies : as in all manner of riches.

15 I will talk of Thy commandments : and have respect unto Thy ways.

16 My delight shall be in Thy statutes : and I will not forget Thy Word.

Glory be, etc.

Retribue servo tuo.

O DO well unto Thy servant : that I may live, and keep Thy word.

18 Open Thou mine eyes : that I may see the wondrous things of Thy law.

19 I am a stranger upon earth : O hide not Thy commandments from me.

20 My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire : that it hath alway unto Thy judgments.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud : and cursed are they that do err from Thy commandments.

22 O turn from me shame and rebuke : for I have kept Thy testimonies.

23 Princes also did sit and speak against me : but Thy servant is occupied in Thy statutes.

24 For Thy testimonies are my delight : and my counsellors.

25 My soul cleaveth to the dust : O quicken Thou me, according to Thy Word.

26 I have acknowledged my ways, and Thou heardest me : O teach me Thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of Thy commandments : and so shall I talk of Thy wondrous works.

28 My soul melteth away for very heaviness : comfort Thou me according unto Thy Word.

29 Take from me the way of lying : and cause Thou me to make much of Thy law.

30 I have chosen the way of truth : and Thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto Thy testimonies : O Lord, confound me not.

32 I will run the way of Thy commandments : when Thou hast set my heart at liberty.

Glory be, etc.

CREED OF S. ATHANASIUS,

Said daily, except in Christmas and Easter tides, [but in Roman use, on Sunday only.]

ANTIPHONS.

On Sundays.

Thee, God the Father unbegotten, Thee, God the Son only-begotten, Thee, Holy Ghost, Paraclete, Holy and undivided Trinity : * with our whole heart and our lips we confess, praise and bless; to Thee be glory for ever.

In Easter tide is added, Alleluia.

On Double Feasts, except in the week following Trinity Sunday:

Thanks be to Thee, O God, thanks be to Thee, One Very Trinity : * One and Supreme Deity, and One and Holy Unity.

In Easter tide is added, Alleluia.

On all Ferias, except in the week following Trinity Sunday:

Glory to Thee, Equal Trinity, One Deity: * both before all ages, and now, and for ever.

In Easter tide is added, Alleluia.

Through the week of the Holy Trinity, whatever may be the office:

O beatific and blessed and glorious Trinity : * Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost.

Psalm. Quicunque vult.

WHOSOEVER will be saved : before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholick Faith.

2 Which Faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled : without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

3 And the Catholick Faith is this : That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity;

4 Neither confounding the Persons : nor dividing the Substance.

5 For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son : and another of the Holy Ghost.

6 But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, is all one : the Glory equal, the Majesty co-eternal.

7 Such as the Father is, such is the Son : and such is the Holy Ghost.

8 The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate : and the Holy Ghost uncreate.

9 The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible : and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible.

10 The Father eternal, the Son eternal : aud the Holy Ghost eternal.

11 And yet they are not three eternals : but one eternal.

12 As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated : but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

13 So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty : and the Holy Ghost Almighty.

14 And yet they are not three Almighties : but one Almighty.

15 So the Father is God, the Son is God : and the Holy Ghost is God.

16 And yet they are not three Gods : but one God.

17 So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord : and the Holy Ghost Lord.

18 And yet not three Lords : but one Lord.

19 For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity : to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord;

20 So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion : to say, There be three Gods, or three Lords.

21 The Father is made of none : neither created, nor begotten.

22 The Son is of the Father alone : not made, nor created, but begotten.

23 The Holy Ghost is of the Father and of the Son : neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

24 So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons : one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

25 And in this Trinity none is afore, or after other : none is greater, or less than another.

26 But the whole three Persons are co-eternal together : and co-equal.

27 So that in all things, as is aforesaid : the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

28 He therefore that will be saved : must thus think of the Trinity.

29 Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation : that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

30 For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man.

31 God, of the Substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds : and Man, of the Substance of His Mother, born in the world;

32 Perfect God, and perfect Man : of a reasonable soul and human flesh subsisting;

33 Equal to the Father, as touching His Godhead : and inferior to the Father, as touching his Manhood.

34 Who although He be God and Man : yet He is not two, but one Christ.

35 One; not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh : but by taking of the Manhood into God;

36 One altogether; not by confusion of Substance : but by unity of Person.

37 For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man : so God and Man is one Christ;

38 Who suffered for our salvation : descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

39 He ascended into heaven, He sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty : from whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

40 At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies : and shall give account for their own works.

41 And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting : and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

42 This is the Catholick Faith : which except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

Glory be, etc.

CHAPTER.

On Sundays and Doubles:

1 Tim. 1.

NOW unto the King Eternal, Immortal, Invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

On Ferias in Christmas and Easter tides:

Is. xxxiii.

O LORD, be gracious unto us, we have waited for Thee: be Thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

On Ferias through the year:

Zech. viii.

LOVE the truth and peace, saith the Lord of hosts.

Responsory, used daily, except when otherwise marked in the Proper of Saints.

℟. Jesu Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy upon us. ℣. Thou that sittest at the right hand of the Father. ℟. Have mercy upon us. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Jesu Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy upon us.

℣. O Lord, arise, help us.

℟. And deliver us for Thy Name's sake.

PETITIONS.

Said daily, except as hereafter noted.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.

℟. But deliver us from evil.

℣. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee.

℟. And Thy judgments shall help me.

℣. I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost.

℟. O seek Thy servant, for I do not forget Thy commandments.

I believe:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. The resurrection of the body.

℟. And the life everlasting.

℣. O let my mouth be filled with Thy praise.

℟. That I may sing of Thy glory and honour all the day long.

℣. Turn Thy face from my sins.

℟. And put out all my misdeeds.

℣. Make me a clean heart, O God.

℟. And renew a right spirit within me.

℣. Cast me not away from Thy presence.

℟. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

℣. O give me the comfort of Thy help again.

℟. And stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

℣. Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man.

℟. And preserve me from the wicked man.

℣. Deliver me from mine enemies, O God.

℟. Defend me from them that rise up against me.

℣. Deliver me from the wicked doers.

℟. And save me from the bloodthirsty men.

℣. So will I alway sing praise unto Thy Name.

℟. That I may daily perform my vows.

℣. Hear us, O God of our salvation.

℟. Thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

℣. O God, make speed to save us.

℟. O Lord, make haste to help us.

℣. Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal.

℟. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

℣. Praise the Lord, O my soul.

℟. And forget not all his benefits.

℣. Who forgiveth all thy sin.

℟. And healeth all thine infirmities.

℣. Who saveth thy life from destruction.

℟. And crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

℣. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things.

℟. Making thee young and lusty as an eagle.

Confession and Absolution, said in a low voice.

[The Priest, if present:

I CONFESS to God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, in the sight of the whole company of heaven, and to you, my brethren, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, of my fault, of my own fault, of my own grievous fault; therefore I pray God to have mercy upon me, and you, my brethren, to pray for me.

The Choir replies:

ALMIGHTY God have mercy upon thee, forgive thee thy sins, and bring thee to everlasting life. ℟. Amen.]

The Choir.

I CONFESS to God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, in the sight of the whole company of heaven, [and to thee, father,] that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, of my fault, of my own fault, of my own grievous fault; therefore I pray God to have mercy upon me, [and thee, father, to pray for me.]

[The Priest, if present:

ALMIGHTY God have mercy upon you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to everlasting life. ℟. Amen.

THE Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and forgiveness of your sins, time for repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of His Holy Spirit. ℟. Amen.]

After the Confession, if there is no Priest present, the Choir says:

ALMIGHTY God have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

℣. Wilt Thou not turn again and quicken us, O Lord?

℟. That Thy people may rejoice in Thee?

℣. Shew us Thy mercy, O Lord.

℟. And grant us Thy salvation.

℣. Vouchsafe, O Lord.

℟. To keep us this day without sin.

℣. O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Have mercy upon us.

℣. O Lord, let Thy mercy lighten upon us.

℟. As our trust is in Thee.

The foregoing Petitions are said daily through the year, (except from Maundy Thursday till Low Sunday, and on All Souls' Day), then follows:

[On Sundays and Festivals:

℣. Turn us again, O Lord God of Hosts.

℟. Shew the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.

℟. And let my crying come unto Thee.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

COLLECT (Sunday).

O LORD, our Heavenly Father, Almighty and Everlasting God, Who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with Thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by Thy governance, to do always that is righteous in Thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT (Festival).

IN this hour of this day, fill us, O Lord, with Thy mercy; that going forth in Thy strength, we may make our boast of Thee all the day long; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.
℣. Bless we the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.]

ON FERIAS

Through the year, except in Christmas and Easter tides:

℣. Lord, hear my voice when I cry unto Thee.
℟. Have mercy upon me, and hear me.

Ps. li. Miserere mei, Deus, p. 1.

[Here follows in Lent:

Psalm XXXII. Beati, quorum.

BLESSED is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven: and whose sin is covered.
2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.
3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.
4 For Thy hand is heavy upon me day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in summer.
5 I will acknowledge my sin unto Thee: and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.
6 I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord: and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.
7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto Thee, in a time when Thou mayest be found: but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.
8 Thou art a place to hide me in, Thou shalt preserve me from trouble: Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.
9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with Mine eye.
10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding: whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.
11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.
12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord: and be joyful all ye that are true of heart.
Glory be, etc.]

[Here the reader, if a Priest, rising, stands at the step of the Sanctuary.]

℣. O Lord, arise, help us.
℟. And deliver us for Thy Name's sake.
℣. Turn Thee again, O Lord God of hosts.
℟. Shew the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.
℣. Bless we the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.

Office of Chapter.

If the Martyrology is used, here is read the portion for the day, the reader ending with,

℣. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.
℟. Thanks be to God.
℣. Right dear in the sight of the Lord;
℟. Is the death of His Saints.

Benediction. The Lord Almighty bless us with His grace.
℟. Amen.
℣. O God, make speed to save us.
℟. O Lord, make haste to help us.
℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. Let Thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord.
℟. Even Thy salvation, according unto Thy word.
℣. Shew Thy servants Thy work.
℟. And their children Thy glory.
℣. And the glorious Majesty:
℟. Of the Lord our God be upon us.
℣. Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us.
℟. O prosper Thou our handywork.

[On Double Feasts:

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, direct our actions according to Thy good pleasure; that through the name of Thy beloved Son we may be found worthy to abound in good works: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.
℣. Bless we the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.]

On ordinary Sundays and Ferias:

Let us pray.

O ALMIGHTY Lord and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies, in the ways of Thy laws, and the works of Thy commandments; that through Thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be governed and preserved in body and soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.
℣. Bless we the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.

Then, after reading the list of persons to be prayed for, is said what follows daily throughout the year, except on Double Feasts, and in Christmas and Easter tides.

Psalm cxxi. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.
2 My help cometh even from the Lord: Who hath made heaven and earth.
3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and He that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, He that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord Himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

6 So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.

℟. But deliver us from evil.

℣. O Lord, shew Thy mercy upon us.

℟. And grant us Thy salvation.

℣. O God, save Thy servants and handmaidens.

℟. Which put their trust in Thee.

℣. Send them help from Thy sanctuary.

℟. And strengthen them out of Sion.

℣. Be unto them, O Lord, a tower of strength.

℟. From the face of the enemy.

℣. Let the enemy have no advantage over them.

℟. Neither the son of wickedness approach to hurt them.

℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.

℟. And let my crying come unto Thee.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that, among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, the eternal salvation of them that believe, hear us in behalf of Thy servants for whom we entreat the help of Thy compassion: that, their health being restored to them, they may return to Thee the offering of thanks in Thy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

℣. Pray for a blessing.
℟. The Lord bless us.

Each person signing himself, [and the Priest, if present, making the sign of the Cross over those present,]

✠ ℣. In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Ant. FERIAL. O let Thy loving mercies.

Psalm CXIX. Legem pone.

TEACH me, O Lord, the way of Thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep Thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of Thy commandments: for therein is my desire.

36 Incline my heart unto Thy testimonies: and not to covetousness.

37 O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity: and quicken Thou me in Thy way.

38 O stablish Thy word in Thy servant: that I may fear Thee.

39 Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for Thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, my delight is in Thy commandments: O quicken me in Thy righteousness.

41 Let Thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord: even Thy salvation, according unto Thy word.

42 So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers: for my trust is in Thy word.

43 O take not the word of Thy truth utterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in Thy judgments.

44 So shall I alway keep Thy law: yea, for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek Thy commandments.

46 I will speak of Thy testimonies also, even before kings: and will not be ashamed.

47 And my delight shall be in Thy commandments: which I have loved.

48 My hands also will I lift up unto Thy commandments, which I have loved: and my study shall be in Thy statutes.

Glory be, etc.

Memor esto servi tui.

O THINK upon Thy servant, as concerning Thy word: wherein Thou hast caused me to put my trust.

50 The same is my comfort in my trouble: for Thy word hath quickened me.

51 The proud have had me exceedingly in derision: yet have I not shrinked from Thy law.

52 For I remembered Thine everlasting judgments, O Lord: and received comfort.

53 I am horribly afraid: for the ungodly that forsake Thy law.

54 Thy statutes have been my songs: in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have thought upon Thy Name, O Lord, in the night-season: and have kept Thy law.

56 This I had: because I kept Thy commandments.

57 Thou art my portion, O Lord: I have promised to keep Thy law.

58 I made my humble petition in Thy presence with my whole heart: O be merciful unto me, according to Thy word.

59 I called mine own ways to remembrance: and turned my feet unto Thy testimonies.

60 I made haste, and prolonged not the time: to keep Thy commandments.

61 The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me : but I have not forgotten Thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto Thee : because of Thy righteous judgements.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear Thee : and keep Thy commandments.

64 The earth, O Lord, is full of Thy mercy : O teach me Thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti.

O Lord, Thou hast dealt graciously with Thy servant : according unto Thy word.

66 O learn me true understanding and knowledge : for I have believed Thy commandments.

67 Before I was troubled, I went wrong : but now have I kept Thy word.

68 Thou art good and gracious : O teach me Thy statutes.

69 The proud have imagined a lie against me : but I will keep Thy commandments with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is as fat as brawn : but my delight hath been in Thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been in trouble : that I may learn Thy statutes.

72 The law of Thy mouth is dearer unto me : than thousands of gold and silver.

73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me : O give me understanding, that I may learn Thy commandments.

74 They that fear Thee will be glad when they see me : because I have put my trust in Thy word.

75 I know, O Lord, that Thy judgments are right : and that Thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.

76 O let Thy merciful kindness be my comfort : according to Thy word unto Thy servant.

77 O let Thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live : for Thy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me : but I will be occupied in Thy commandments.

79 Let such as fear Thee, and have known Thy testimonies : be turned unto me.

80 O let my heart be sound in Thy statutes : that I be not ashamed.

Glory be, etc.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt: through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery: that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten: I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, Thou knowest all my desire: and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me: and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not: and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: Thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me: for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague: and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness: and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good are against me: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: be not Thou far from me.

22 Haste Thee to help me: O Lord God of my salvation.

Psalm CXIX. Defecit anima mea.

MY soul hath longed for Thy salvation : and I have a good hope because of Thy word.

82 Mine eyes long sore for Thy word : saying, O when wilt Thou comfort me?

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke : yet do I not forget Thy statutes.

84 How many are the days of Thy servant : when wilt Thou be avenged of them that persecute me?

85 The proud have digged pits for me : which are not after Thy law.

86 All Thy commandments are true : they persecute me falsely; O be Thou my help.

87 They had almost made an end of me upon earth : but I forsook not Thy commandments.

88 O quicken me after Thy loving-kindness : and so shall I keep the testimonies of Thy mouth.

89 O Lord, Thy word : endureth for ever in heaven.

90 Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another : Thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

91 They continue this day according to Thine ordinance : for all things serve Thee.

92 If my delight had not been in Thy law : I should have perished in my trouble.

93 I will never forget Thy commandments : for with them Thou hast quickened me.

94 I am Thine, O save me : for I have sought Thy commandments.

95 The ungodly laid wait for me to destroy me : but I will consider Thy testimonies.

96 I see that all things come to an end : but Thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Glory be, etc.

Quomodo dilexi!

LORD, what love have I unto Thy law : all the day long is my study in it.

98 Thou through Thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies : for they are ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than my teachers : for Thy testimonies are my study.

100 I am wiser than the aged : because I keep Thy commandments.

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way : that I may keep Thy word.

102 I have not shrunk from Thy judgments : for Thou teachest me.

103 O how sweet are Thy words unto my throat : yea, sweeter than honey unto my mouth.

104 Through Thy commandments I get understanding : therefore I hate all evil ways.

105 Thy word is a lantern unto my feet : and a light unto my paths.

106 I have sworn, and am stedfastly purposed : to keep Thy righteous judgments.

107 I am troubled above measure : quicken me, O Lord, according to Thy word.

108 Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please Thee, O Lord : and teach me Thy judgments.

109 My soul is alway in my hand : yet do I not forget Thy law.

110 The ungodly have laid a snare for me : but yet I swerved not from Thy commandments.

111 Thy testimonies have I claimed as my heritage for ever : and why? they are the very joy of my heart.

112 I have applied my heart to fulfil Thy statutes alway : even unto the end.

Glory be, etc.

Iniquos odio habui.

I HATE them that imagine evil things : but Thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my defence and shield : and my trust is in Thy word.

115 Away from me, ye wicked : I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 O stablish me according to Thy word, that I may live : and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

117 Hold Thou me up, and I shall be safe : yea, my delight shall be ever in Thy statutes.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that depart from Thy statutes : for they imagine but deceit.

119 Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the earth like dross : therefore I love Thy testimonies.

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of Thee : and I am afraid of Thy judgments.

121 I deal with the thing that is lawful and right : O give me not over unto mine oppressors.

122 Make Thou Thy servant to delight in that which is good : that the proud do me no wrong.

123 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for Thy health : and for the word of Thy righteousness.

124 O deal with Thy servant according unto Thy loving mercy : and teach me Thy statutes.

125 I am Thy servant, O grant me understanding : that I may know Thy testimonies.

126 It is time for Thee, Lord, to lay to Thine hand : for they have destroyed Thy law.

127 For I love Thy commandments : above gold and precious stone.

128 Therefore hold I straight all Thy commandments : and all false ways I utterly abhor.

THY testimonies are wonderful : therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 When Thy word goeth forth : it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath : for my delight was in Thy commandments.

132 O look Thou upon me, and be merciful unto me : as Thou usest to do unto those that love Thy Name.

133 Order my steps in Thy word : and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.

134 O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men : and so shall I keep Thy commandments.

135 Shew the light of Thy countenance upon Thy servant : and teach me Thy statutes.

136 Mine eyes gush out with water : because men keep not Thy law.

137 Righteous art Thou, O Lord : and true is Thy judgment.

138 The testimonies that Thou hast commanded : are exceeding righteous and true.

139 My zeal hath even consumed me : because mine enemies have forgotten Thy words.

140 Thy word is tried to the uttermost : and Thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small, and of no reputation : yet do I not forget Thy commandments.

142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness : and Thy law is the truth.

143 Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me : yet is my delight in Thy commandments.

[From Septuagesima to Wednesday in Holy Week,

Praise be to Thee, O Lord, King of eternal glory.]

Ant. The Lord hath inclined.

Psalm CXVI. Dilexi, quoniam.

I AM well pleased : that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer.
2 That He hath inclined His ear unto me : therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.
3 The snares of death compassed me round about : and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.
4 I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord : O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul.
5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous : yea, our God is merciful.
6 The Lord preserveth the simple : I was in misery, and He helped me.
7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul : for the Lord hath rewarded thee.
8 And why? Thou hast delivered my soul from death : mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before the Lord : in the land of the living.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. The Lord hath inclined : His ear unto me.

Ant. I believed.

Psalm CXVI. 10. Credidi.

I BELIEVED, and therefore will I speak; but I was sore troubled : I said in my haste, All men are liars.
11 What reward shall I give unto the Lord : for all the benefits that He hath done unto me?
12 I will receive the cup of salvation : and call upon the Name of the Lord.
13 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all His people : right dear in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.
14 Behold, O Lord, how that I am Thy servant : I am Thy servant, and the son of Thine handmaid; Thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I will offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the sight of all His people: in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. I believed: and therefore will I speak.

Ant. O praise the Lord.

Psalm CXVII. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord, all ye heathen: praise Him, all ye nations.

2 For His merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. O praise the Lord: all ye heathen.

Ant. I called.

Psalm CXX. Ad Dominum.

WHEN I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and He heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue: even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Wo is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech: and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them: that are enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battle.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. I called: and He heard me.

Ant. My help.

Psalm CXXI. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh even from the Lord: Who hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and He that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, He that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord Himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

6 So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. My help: cometh even from the Lord.

Our Father:

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud:

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me.
℟. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.
℣. Turn Thee again, O Lord, at the last.
℟. And be gracious unto Thy servants.
℣. Let Thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us.
℟. As we do put our trust in Thee.
℣. Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness.
℟. And Thy Saints sing with joyfulness.
℣. O Lord, save the Queen.
℟. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.
℣. O God, save Thy servants and handmaidens.
℟. Which put their trust in Thee.
℣. O Lord, save Thy people.
℟. And bless Thine inheritance.
℣. Peace be within Thy walls.
℟. And plenteousness within Thy palaces.
℣. Let us pray for the faithful departed.
℟. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and light perpetual shine upon them.
℣. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto Thee.
℟. Have mercy upon me, and hear me.

[Here follows in Lent:

Psalm CXXX. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.
2 O let Thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.
3 If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?
4 For there is mercy with Thee: therefore shalt Thou be feared.
5 I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for Him: in His word is my trust.
6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.
7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with Him is plenteous redemption.
8 And He shall redeem Israel: from all his sins.
Glory be, etc.]

Ant. We will go.

Psalm CXXII. Lætatus sum.

I WAS glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.

4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord: to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

5 For there is the seat of judgment: even the seat of the house of David.

6 O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes: I will wish thee prosperity.

9 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek to do thee good.

Ant. O Thou that dwellest.

Ps. CXXIII. Ad te levavi oculos meos.

UNTO Thee lift I up mine eyes : O Thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress : even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until He have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us : for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy : and with the despitefulness of the proud.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. O Thou that dwellest in the heavens : have mercy upon us.

Ant. Our help.

Psalm CXXIV. Nisi quia Dominus.

IF the Lord Himself had not been on our side, now may Israel say : if the Lord Himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us;

2 They had swallowed us up quick : when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned us : and the stream had gone over our soul.

4 The deep waters of the proud : had gone even over our soul.

5 But praised be the Lord : Who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.

6 Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler : the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

7 Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord : Who hath made heaven and earth.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Our help standeth : in the Name of the Lord.

Ant. Do well.

Psalm CXXV. Qui confidunt.

THEY that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Sion : which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.

2 The hills stand about Jerusalem : even so standeth the Lord round about His people, from this time forth for evermore.

3 For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous : lest the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.

4 Do well, O Lord : unto those that are good and true of heart.

5 As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness : the Lord shall lead them forth with the evildoers; but peace shall be upon Israel.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Do well, O Lord : unto those that are good and true of heart.

Ant. Then were we like.

Psalm CXXVI. In convertendo.

WHEN the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion : then were we like unto them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter : and our tongue with joy.

3 Then said they among the heathen : The Lord hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already : whereof we rejoice.

5 Turn our captivity, O Lord : as the rivers in the south.

6 They that sow in tears : shall reap in joy.

Ant. Happy is the man.

Psalm CXXVII. Nisi Dominus.

EXCEPT the Lord build the house : their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lord keep the city : the watchman waketh but in vain.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness : for so He giveth His beloved sleep.

4 Lo, children and the fruit of the womb : are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.

5 Like as the arrows in the hand of a giant : even so are the young children.

6 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them : they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Happy is the man : that hath his quiver full.

Ant. Blessed are all they.

Psalm CXXVIII. Beati omnes.

BLESSED are all they that fear the Lord : and walk in His ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labours of thine hands : O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine : upon the walls of thine house.

4 Thy children like the olive-branches : round about thy table.

5 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed : that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord from out of Sion shall so bless thee : that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children : and peace upon Israel.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Blessed are all they : that fear the Lord.

Ant. We wish you good luck.

Psalm CXXIX. Sæpe expugnaverunt.

MANY a time have they fought against me from my youth up : may Israel now say.

2 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up : but they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back : and made long furrows.

4 But the righteous Lord : hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

5 Let them be confounded and turned backward : as many as have evil will at Sion.

6 Let them be even as the grass growing upon the house-tops : which withereth afore it be plucked up;

7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand : neither he that bindeth up the sheaves his bosom.

8 So that they who go by say not so much as, The Lord prosper you : we wish you good luck in the Name of the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. We wish you good luck : in the Name of the Lord.

Ant. Out of the deep.

Psalm CXXX. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

8 And He shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Out of the deep : have I called unto Thee, O Lord.

Ant. O Israel.

Psalm CXXXI. Domine, non est.

LORD, I am not high-minded : I have no proud looks.

2 I do not exercise myself in great matters : which are too high for me.

3 But I refrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from his mother : yea, my soul is even as a weaned child.

4 O Israel, trust in the Lord : from this time forth for evermore.

Ant. And all.

Psalm CXXXII. Memento, Domine.

LORD, remember David : and all his trouble;

2 How he sware unto the Lord : and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house : nor climb up into my bed;

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber : neither the temples of my head to take any rest;

5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord : an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata : and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into His tabernacle : and fall low on our knees before His footstool.

8 Arise, O Lord, into Thy resting-place : Thou, and the ark of Thy strength.

9 Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness : and let Thy saints sing with joyfulness.

10 For Thy servant David's sake : turn not away the presence of Thine Anointed.

11 The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David : and He shall not shrink from it.

12 Of the fruit of thy body : shall I set upon thy seat.

13 If thy children will keep my covenant, and My testimonies that I shall learn them : their children also shall sit upon thy seat for evermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for Himself : He hath longed for her.

15 This shall be My rest for ever : here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

16 I will bless her victuals with increase : and will satisfy her poor with bread.

17 I will deck her priests with health : and her saints shall rejoice and sing.

18 There shall I make the horn of David to flourish : I have ordained a lantern for Mine Anointed.

19 As for His enemies, I shall clothe them with shame : but upon Himself shall His crown flourish.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. And all : his trouble.

Ant. Behold, how good.

Psalm CXXXIII. Ecce, quam bonum!

BEHOLD, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity!

3 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard : even unto Aaron's beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon : which fell upon the hill of Sion.

4 For there the Lord promised His blessing : and life for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Behold : how good and joyful.

Ant. Whatsoever.

Psalm CXXXV. Laudate nomen.

O PRAISE the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord : praise it, O ye servants of the Lord;

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord : in the courts of the house of our God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious : O sing praises unto His Name, for it is lovely.

4 For why? the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto Himself : and Israel for His own possession.

5 For I know that the Lord is great : and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did He in heaven, and in earth : and in the sea, and in all deep places.

7 He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world : and sendeth forth lightnings with the rain, bringing the winds out of His treasures.

8 He smote the first-born of Egypt : both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O thou land of Egypt : upon Pharaoh, and all his servants.

10 He smote divers nations : and slew mighty kings;

11 Sehon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Basan : and all the kingdoms of Canaan;

12 And gave their land to be an heritage : even an heritage unto Israel His people.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever : so doth Thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will avenge His people : and be gracious unto His servants.

15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but silver and gold : the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, and speak not : eyes have they, but they see not.

17 They have ears, and yet they hear not : neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them are like unto them : and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Israel : praise the Lord, ye house of Aaron.

20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Levi : ye that fear the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised be the Lord out of Sion : who dwelleth at Jerusalem.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Whatsoever : the Lord pleased, that did He.

Ant. For His mercy.

Psalm CXXXVI. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious : and His mercy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of all gods : for His mercy endureth for ever.

3 O thank the Lord of all lords : for His mercy endureth for ever.

4 Who only doeth great wonders : for His mercy endureth for ever.

5 Who by His excellent wisdom made the heavens : for His mercy endureth for ever.

6 Who laid out the earth above the waters : for His mercy endureth for ever.

7 Who hath made great lights : for His mercy endureth for ever.

8 The sun to rule the day : for His mercy endureth for ever;

9 The moon and the stars to govern the night : for His mercy endureth for ever.

10 Who smote Egypt with their first-born : for His mercy endureth for ever.

11 And brought out Israel from among them : for His mercy endureth for ever.

12 With a mighty hand, and stretched out arm : for His mercy endureth for ever.

13 Who divided the Red Sea in two parts : for His mercy endureth for ever.

14 And made Israel to go through the midst of it : for His mercy endureth for ever.

15 But as for Pharaoh and his host, He overthrew them in the Red Sea : for His mercy endureth for ever.

16 Who led His people through the wilderness : for His mercy endureth for ever.

17 Who smote great kings : for His mercy endureth for ever.

18 Yea, and slew mighty kings : for His mercy endureth for ever.

19 Sehon king of the Amorites : for His mercy endureth for ever.

20 And Og the king of Basan : for His mercy endureth for ever.

21 And gave away their land for an heritage : for His mercy endureth for ever.

22 Even for an heritage unto Israel His servant : for His mercy endureth for ever.

23 Who remembered us when we were in trouble : for His mercy endureth for ever.

24 And hath delivered us from our enemies : for His mercy endureth for ever.

25 Who giveth food to all flesh : for His mercy endureth for ever.

26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven : for His mercy endureth for ever.

27 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords : for His mercy endureth for ever.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. For His mercy : endureth for ever.

Ant. Sing us.

Psalm CXXXVII. Super flumina.

BY the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept : when we remembered thee, O Sion.

2 As for our harps, we hanged them up : upon the trees that are therein.

3 For they that led us away captive required of us then a song, and melody, in our heaviness : Sing us one of the songs of Sion.

4 How shall we sing the Lord's song : in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem : let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth : yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth.

7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem : how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery : yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

9 Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children : and throweth them against the stones.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Before the gods.

Psalm CXXXVIII. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : even before the gods will I sing praise unto Thee.

2 I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy Name, because of Thy lovingkindness and truth : for Thou hast magnified Thy Name, and Thy Word, above all things.

3 When I called upon Thee, Thou heardest me : and enduedst my soul with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise Thee, O Lord : for they have heard the words of Thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord : that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath He respect unto the lowly : as for the proud, He beholdeth them afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt Thou refresh me : Thou shalt stretch forth Thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and Thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shall make good His loving kindness toward me : yea, Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever : despise not then the works of Thine own hands.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Before the gods : will I sing praise unto Thee, my God.

Ant. O Lord, Thou hast searched.

Psalm CXXXIX. Domine, probasti.

O LORD, Thou hast searched me out, and known me : Thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising; Thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed : and spiest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue : but Thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before : and laid Thine hand upon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me : I cannot attain unto it.

6 Whither shall I go then from Thy Spirit : or whither shall I go then from Thy presence?

7 If I climb up into heaven, Thou art there : if I go down to hell, Thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning : and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea;

9 Even there also shall Thy hand lead me : and Thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me : then shall my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day : the darkness and light to Thee are both alike.

12 For my reins are Thine : Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

13 I will give thanks unto Thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made : marvellous are Thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from Thee : though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect : and in Thy book were all my members written;

16 Which day by day were fashioned : when as yet there was none of them.

17 How dear are Thy counsels unto me, O God : O how great is the sum of them!

18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand : when I wake up I am present with Thee.

19 Wilt Thou not slay the wicked, O God? : depart from me, ye blood-thirsty men.

20 For they speak unrighteously against Thee : and Thine enemies take Thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate Thee : and am not I grieved with those that rise up against Thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore : even as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart : prove me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me : and lead me in the way everlasting.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. O Lord, Thou hast searched me out : and known me.

Ant. Preserve me.

Psalm CXL. Eripe me, Domine.

DELIVER me, O Lord, from the evil man : and preserve me from the wicked man.

2 Who imagine mischief in their hearts : and stir up strife all the day long.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent : adder's poison is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly : preserve me from the wicked men, who are purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a net abroad with cords : yea, and set traps in my way.

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God : hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, Thou strength of my health : Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Let not the ungodly have his desire, O Lord : let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them : that compass me about.

10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them : let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise up again.

11 A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth : evil shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will avenge the poor : and maintain the cause of the helpless.

13 The righteous also shall give thanks unto Thy Name : and the just shall continue in Thy sight.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Preserve me : from the wicked man.

Ant. Lord, I call.

Psalm cxli. Domine, clamavi.

LORD, I call upon Thee, haste Thee unto me : and consider my voice when I cry unto Thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in Thy sight as the incense : and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth : and keep the door of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing : let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly : and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balms break my head : yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.

7 Let their judges be overthrown in stony places : that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit : like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto Thee, O Lord God : in Thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.

10 Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me : and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together : and let me ever escape them.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Lord, I call upon Thee : haste Thee unto me.

Ant. Thou art my portion.

Ps. cxlii. Voce mea ad Dominum.

I CRIED unto the Lord with my voice : yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaints before Him : and shewed Him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heaviness Thou knewest my path : in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also upon my right hand : and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto : and no man cared for my soul.

6 I cried unto Thee, O Lord, and said : Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the living.

7 Consider my complaint : for I am brought very low.

8 O deliver me from my persecutors : for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto Thy Name : which thing if Thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

Glory be, etc.

BLESSED be the Lord my strength : Who teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight;

2 My hope and my fortress, my castle and deliverer, my defender in Whom I trust : Who subdueth my people that is under me.

3 Lord, what is man, that Thou hast such respect unto him : or the son of man, that Thou so regardest him?

4 Man is like a thing of nought : his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow Thy heavens, O Lord, and come down : touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth Thy lightning, and tear them : shoot out Thine arrows, and consume them.

7 Send down Thine hand from above : deliver me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanity : and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.

9 I will sing a new song unto Thee, O God : and sing praises unto Thee upon a ten-stringed lute.

10 Thou hast given victory unto kings : and hast delivered David Thy servant from the peril of the sword.

11 Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children : whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our sons may grow up as the young plants : and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store : that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay : no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous : there is no end of His greatness.

4 One generation shall praise Thy works unto another : and declare Thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of Thy worship : Thy glory, Thy praise, and wondrous works;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of Thy marvellous acts : and I will also tell of Thy greatness.

7 The memorial of Thine abundant kindness shall be shewed : and men shall sing of Thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and merciful : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 The Lord is loving unto every man : and His mercy is over all His works.

10 All Thy works praise Thee, O Lord : and Thy saints give thanks unto Thee.

11 They shew the glory of Thy kingdom : and talk of Thy power;

12 That Thy power, Thy glory, and mightiness of Thy kingdom : might be known unto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom : and Thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon Thee, O Lord : and Thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest Thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

17 The Lord is righteous in all His ways : and holy in all His works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him : yea, all such as call upon Him faithfully.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear Him : He also will hear their cry, and will help them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love Him : but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord : and let all flesh give thanks unto His holy Name for ever.

Ant. While I live * will I praise the Lord.

Psalm CXLVI. Lauda anima mea.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man : for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth he shall turn again to his earth : and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help : and whose hope is in the Lord his God;

5 Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is : Who keepeth His promise for ever;

6 Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong : Who feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison : the Lord giveth sight to the blind.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen : the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers; He defendeth the fatherless and widow : as for the way of the ungodly, He turneth it upside down.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for evermore : and throughout all generations.

Ant. While I live : will I praise the Lord.

Ant. Yea, a joyful and pleasant thing * it is to be thankful.

Psalm cxlvii. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God : yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.

2 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem : and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

3 He healeth those that are broken in heart : and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.

4 He telleth the number of the stars : and calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and great is His power : yea, and His wisdom is infinite.

6 The Lord setteth up the meek : and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

7 O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving : sing praises upon the harp unto our God;

8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth : and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men;

9 Who giveth fodder unto the cattle : and feedeth the young ravens that call upon Him.

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse : neither delighteth He in any man's legs.

11 But the Lord's delight is in them that fear Him : and put their trust in His mercy.

Ant. Yea, a joyful and pleasant thing : it is to be thankful.

Ant. Praise the Lord * O Jerusalem.

Ps. cxlvii. 12. Lauda Hierusalem.

PRAISE the Lord, O Jerusalem : praise thy God, O Sion.

13 For He hath made fast the bars of thy gates : and hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

15 He sendeth forth His commandment upon earth : and His word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool : and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth His ice like morsels : who is able to abide His frost?

18 He sendeth out His word, and melteth them : He bloweth with His wind, and the waters flow.

19 He showeth His word unto Jacob : His statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation : neither have the heathen knowledge of His laws.

[From Septuagesima to Wednesday in Holy Week,

Praise be to Thee, O Lord, King of eternal glory.]

Ant. Have mercy.

Psalm IV. Cum invocarem.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness : Thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme Mine honour : and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leasing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to Himself the man that is godly : when I call upon the Lord, He will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not : commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness : and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say : Who will shew us any good?

7 Lord, lift Thou up : the light of Thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart : since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil, increased.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest : for it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm XXXI. In te, Domine, speravi.

IN Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in Thy righteousness.

2 Bow down Thine ear to me : make haste to deliver me.

3 And be Thou my strong rock, and house of defence : that Thou mayest save me.

4 For Thou art my strong rock, and my castle : be Thou also my guide, and lead me for Thy Name's sake.

5 Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me : for Thou art my strength.

6 Into Thy hands I commend my spirit : for Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, Thou God of truth.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm XCI. Qui habitat.

WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the most High : shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold : my God, in Him will I trust.

3 For He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter : and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under His wings, and thou shalt be safe under His feathers : His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid of any terror by night : nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness : nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand : but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold : and see the reward of the ungodly.

9 For Thou, Lord, art my hope : Thou hast set Thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no evil happen unto thee : neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For He shall give His angels charge over thee : to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee in their hands : that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder : the young lion and the dragon shalt Thou tread under Thy feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him : I will set him up, because he hath known My Name.

15 He shall call upon Me, and I will hear him : yea, I am with him in trouble : I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfy him : and shew him My salvation.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm CXXXIV. Ecce nunc.

BEHOLD now, praise the Lord : all ye servants of the Lord;

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord : even in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary : and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heaven and earth : give thee blessing out of Sion.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Have mercy upon me : and hearken unto my prayer.

This Ant. is always said, unless some other be appointed in Proper of Seasons.

CHAPTER. Jer. xiv.

THOU, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy Name; leave us not, O our God.

℟. Thanks be to God.

This Chapter is always said, except from Maundy Thursday to Low Sunday, inclusive.

HYMN. Te lucis ante terminum.

BEFORE the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That with Thy wonted favour, Thou
Would'st be our Guard and Keeper now.

From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
From nightly fears and fantasies;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe,
That no pollution we may know.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

℣. Keep us, O Lord.

℟. As the apple of an eye : hide us under the shadow of Thy wings.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said on ordinary Sundays and Ferias from Epiphany to Lent, and from Trinity to Christmas.

[HYMN. Salvator mundi Domine.

SAVIOUR of man, and Lord alone,
Who through this day hast saved Thine own,
Protect us through the coming night,
And ever save us by Thy might.

Be with us, Lord, in mercy nigh,
And spare Thy servants when they cry;
Blot out our every past offence,
And lighten Thou our darkened sense.

O let not sleep oppress the soul,
Nor Satan with his spirits foul;
Our flesh keep chaste, that it may be
An holy temple unto Thee.

To Thee, Who makest souls anew,
With heartfelt vows we humbly sue;
That pure in heart, and free from stain,
We from our beds may rise again.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the blessed Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Keep us, O Lord.

℟. As the apple of an eye : hide us under the shadow of Thy wings.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said from Christmas to the Octave of Epiphany; on Whitsun Eve, and on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Whitsun Week; and on all Double Feasts from Epiphany to Lent, and from Whitsuntide to Christmas, except the Feasts of Corpus Christi, the Transfiguration, and the Holy Name.

On Double Feasts, except on the Feasts of the Holy Name, of the Blessed Virgin, and of All Saints, the following Ant. is said to Nunc Dimittis:

Ant. Lord, grant us Thy light, * that being rid of the darkness of our hearts, we may come to the true light, which is Christ.]

Nunc Dimittis.

LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

2 For mine eyes have seen : Thy salvation.

3 Which Thou hast prepared : before the face of all people;

4 To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Save us waking, O Lord : and guard us sleeping, that awake we may be with Christ, and may sleep in peace.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all Thy works: yea, I exercise myself in the works of Thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto Thee: my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not Thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear Thy loving kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew Thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee unto Thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God: let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for Thy Name's sake: and for Thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of prison.

℟. Thanks be to God.

For the Peace of the Church.

Said daily throughout the year, except on Double Feasts, and in Christmas and Easter tides.

Psalm CXXIII.

Ad Te levavi oculos meos.

UNTO Thee lift I up mine eyes : O Thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hands of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress : even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until He have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us : for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy : and with the despitefulness of the proud.

Glory be, etc.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father :

Said silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud :

℣. And lead us not into temptation.
℟. But deliver us from evil.
℣. O Lord, arise, help us.
℟. And deliver us for Thy Name's sake.
℣. Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts.
℟. Shew the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord.
℟. And let my crying come unto Thee.
℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, mercifully to hear the prayers of Thy Church, and grant that we, being delivered from all adversities, may serve Thee with a quiet mind; and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end. Amen.

℣. The Lord be with you.
℟. And with thy spirit.
℣. Bless we the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.

MAY the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

This Prayer, May the souls, etc., is said at Compline only.

PROPER OF SEASONS.

ALL IS SAID THROUGHOUT AS IN THE PSALTER, EXCEPT WHAT IS HERE OTHERWISE NOTED.

FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

First Vespers.

CHAPTER. Is. ii.

AND it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

℟. Thanks be to God.

This ℟., Thanks be to God, is always said at all Hours, immediately after the Chapter.

℟. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. * And this is His Name whereby He shall be called. † The Lord our Righteousness. ℣. In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely. ℟. And this is His Name whereby He shall be called. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. The Lord our Righteousness.

HYMN. Conditor alme siderum.

CREATOR of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear Thy servants when they call.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death an universe,
Hast found the med'cine, full of grace,
To save and heal a ruin'd race.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride,
As drew the world to evening tide,
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine.

At Whose dread Name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow;
And things celestial Thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord alone.

O Thou whose coming is with dread,
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From ev'ry insult of the foe.

To Him Who comes the world to free,
To God the Son, all glory be:
To God the Father, as is meet,
To God the blessed Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Drop down, ye heavens, from above. ℟. And let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation.

Ant. to Mag. Behold, the Name of the Lord cometh from far: for His glory filleth the whole earth.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

[Or this,

RAISE up, we pray Thee, O Lord, Thy power, and come: that from the dangers which hang over us by reason of our sins, we may be shielded by Thy protection, and delivered by Thy salvation, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.]

On this day no Memorial is said except that of S. Mary.

MEMORIAL OF S. MARY.

Ant. Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Alleluia.

℣. There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse.

℟. And a branch shall grow out of his roots.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who didst will that Thy Word should take flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, grant to Thy suppliants, that we, who believe her to be indeed the Mother of God, may be helped by her intercession before Thee; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

[At Lauds the MEMORIAL OF S. MARY is said with the same ℣., ℟., and Collect, but with this

Ant. The angel Gabriel was sent to the Virgin Mary: espoused to Joseph.

At the second Vespers, with this

Ant. Blessed art thou, Mary, who hast believed: for there shall be a performance of those things that were told thee from the Lord. Alleluia.

These Memorials are said on all Sundays and Festivals of nine lessons until Christmas Eve. But when the Ant., Blessed art thou, is said to Magnificat, the Ant. of the Memorial is as on Ferias:

Ant. Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son. Alleluia.

[If O Sapientia is begun on a Sunday, the Memorial of S. Mary at the second Vespers is the same as at the first Vespers: Hail, Mary.]

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

℣. Bless we the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Compline.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. Come, O Lord, and visit us in peace, that we may rejoice before Thee with a perfect heart.

This Ant. is said daily through Advent.

Lauds.

Daily until Christmas Eve is said this Sacerdotal ℣. and ℟.

℣. Send, O Lord, the Lamb to the ruler of the land.

℟. From the rock of the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Sion.

℣. O God, make speed, etc.

Psalms of Sunday, p. 1.

Ant. 1. In that day the mountains shall drop down new wine: and the hills shall flow with milk. Alleluia.

Ant. 2. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. Alleluia.

Ant. 3. The Lord my God shall come: and all His saints with Him. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark: but at evening time it shall be light. Alleluia.

Ant. 4. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters. Seek ye the Lord, while He may be found. Alleluia.

Ant. 5. Behold, a great Prophet cometh, and He shall renew Jerusalem. Alleluia.

CHAPTER. Rom. xiii.

NOW it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Vox clara ecce intonat.

A THRILLING voice by Jordan rings,
Rebuking guilt and darksome things:
Vain dreams of sin and visions fly;
Christ in His might shines forth on high.

Now let each torpid soul arise,
That sunk in guilt and wounded lies;
See! the New Star's refulgent ray
Shall chase disease and sin away!

The Lamb descends from Heaven above,
To pardon sin with freest love;
For such indulgent mercy shewn,
With tearful joy our thanks we own:

That when again He shines revealed,
And trembling worlds to terror yield,
He give not sin its just reward,
But in His love protect and guard.

To Him, Who comes the world to free,
To God the Son, all glory be:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. A voice crying in the wilderness.

℟. Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make straight a highway for our God.

Ant. to Ben. The Holy Ghost shall come down upon thee, Mary; fear not, bearing in thy womb the Son of God. Alleluia.

Collect as at the First Vespers, p. 73.

MEMORIAL OF S. MARY, p. 74.

Prime.

(The Antiphons at the little Hours are never doubled.)

Ant. In that day * the mountains shall drop down new wine: and the hills shall flow with milk. Alleluia.

Ant. to Quicunque. Thee, God the Father, p. 30.

Tierce.

Ant. Rejoice greatly, * O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. Alleluia.

CHAPTER. Rom. xiii.

NOW it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

The Reader says ℟. Come and save us * O Lord God of Hosts. The Choir repeats the same. The Reader says ℣. Shew the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole. Choir. O Lord God of Hosts. Reader. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Choir. Come and save us, O Lord God of Hosts.

The Reader says ℣. The heathen shall fear Thy Name, O Lord.

The Choir answers: ℟. And all the kings of the earth Thy majesty.

This order is to be observed in all ℟℟. at the little Hours throughout the year, out of Lent, except on Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima Sundays.

Then the Reader saith the Collect of the day, preceded by

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Collect as at Lauds.

This Collect is said at every Hour through this day, and during the week, when the Office is of the season. And this rule is to be observed throughout the year, whether the Office be of the season, or of any Saint: the Collect said at Lauds is repeated at Tierce, Sexts, Nones, and Second Vespers, except on certain days, as hereafter noted.

Whom the Gentiles shall pray : Come and deliver us, and tarry not.

DECEMBER 19. O Clavis David.

O KEY of David, and Sceptre of the house of Israel, Thou that openest, and no man shutteth, and shuttest, and no man openeth : Come, and loose the prisoner from the prison-house, and him that sitteth in darkness from the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 20. O Oriens.

O ORIENT, Brightness of the eternal light, and Sun of righteousness : Come and lighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 21. O Rex Gentium.

O KING of the Gentiles, and their desire, the Corner-stone, Who madest both one : Come and save man, whom Thou hast made out of the dust of the earth.

DECEMBER 22. O Emmanuel.

O EMMANUEL, our King and Lawgiver, the desire of all nations, and their Saviour : Come and save us, O Lord our God.

DECEMBER 23. O Virgo Virginum.

O VIRGIN of virgins, how shall this be? For neither before thee was any like thee, nor shall there be after : Daughters of Jerusalem, why marvel ye at me? The thing which ye behold is a divine mystery.

Monday.

Lauds.

At the remaining Ferias in Advent, each Psalm at Lauds has a proper Ant.

Psalms of the Feria.

Ant. 1. Behold, the Lord shall come, the Prince of the kings of the earth : blessed are they that are prepared to go out to meet Him.

Ant. 2. When the Son of man cometh : shall He find faith on the earth?

Ant. 3. Behold, the fulness of the time is come : wherein God hath sent forth His Son.

Ant. 4. With joy : shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

Ant. 5. The Lord shall come forth from His holy place : He shall come to save His people.

Ant. to Ben. There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse : and all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. (if not a Great Ant.) Awake, awake : stand up, O Jerusalem; loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Sion.

Tuesday.

Lauds.

Ant. 1. Behold, our Lord shall come with power : and Himself shall break the yoke of our captivity.

Ant. 2. Send, O Lord, the Lamb, the Ruler of the land : from the rock of the wilderness unto the mount of the daughter of Sion.

Ant. 3. That Thy way, O Lord, may be known upon earth : Thy saving health among all nations.

Ant. 4. Reward them, O Lord, that wait for Thee : and let Thy prophets be found faithful.

Ant. 5. The law was given by Moses : but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

Ant. to Ben. And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah : for out of thee shall come a Governour, that shall rule My people Israel.

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. (if not a Great Ant.) Let the mountains break forth with joy, and the hills with righteousness: for the Lord, the light of the world, cometh with power.

Ember Wednesday.

Lauds.

Ant. 1. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation.

Ant. 2. The prophets did foretell: that Messiah should be born of the Virgin Mary.

Ant. 3. The spirit of the Lord is upon Me: He hath anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor.

Ant. 4. Behold, the Lord shall come: that He may sit among princes, and inherit the throne of His glory.

Ant. 5. Tell it out among the nations: and say ye; Behold, God our Saviour cometh.

Ant. to Ben. The angel Gabriel was sent from God: to Mary a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph.

The petitions are not said at Lauds on the three Ember Days, but are said at all the other Hours, (except Vespers, if after O Sapientia.)

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the coming solemnity of our redemption may bestow on us all things needful to this life, and the rewards of eternal blessedness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Collect is said at Lauds only. At all the other Hours is said the Collect of Sunday.

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. (if not a Great Ant.) How shall this be, O angel of God, seeing I know not a man? : Hearken, Mary, Virgin of Christ, the Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee.

Thursday.

Lauds.

Ant. 1. Out of Sion shall come forth the Lord Almighty: to save His people.

Ant. 2. Turn Thee again, O Lord, a little while: and delay not to come unto Thy servants.

Ant. 3. Out of Sion shall come He that shall reign: He is our Lord Immanuel; great is His Name.

Ant. 4. Behold, this is our God; and I will prepare Him an habitation: my father's God, and I will exalt Him.

Ant. 5. The Lord is our lawgiver; the Lord is our King: He will come and save us.

Ant. to Ben. The Lord our God is at hand: watch ye therefore in your hearts.

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. (if not a Great Ant.) Rejoice ye with Jerusalem: and be glad with her, all ye that love her for ever.

Ember Friday.

Lauds.

Ant. 1. Stand ye still: and see the salvation of the Lord with you.

Ant. 2. Unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: come and deliver me, for unto Thee, O Lord, have I fled.

Ant. 3. Come, O Lord, and tarry not: do away the offences of Thy people Israel.

Ant. 4. God shall come from Teman, and the Holy One from mount

Paran : His brightness shall be as the light.

Ant. 5. Therefore will I look unto the Lord : I will wait for the God of my salvation.

Ant. to Ben. As soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears : the babe leaped in my womb for joy. Alleluia.

COLLECT.

RAISE up, we pray Thee, O Lord, Thy power, and come : that they who trust in Thy loving-kindness may be delivered from all adversity : Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

This Collect is said at Lauds only. At all the other Hours is said the Collect of Sunday.

Vespers.

Ant. to Magnificat. A Great Ant., according to the day of the month, and so on till Christmas.

Ember Saturday.

Lauds.

Ant. 1. The Lord shall come with great power; and all flesh shall see Him : and He shall save us.

Ant. 2. Now consider how great this Man is : Who entereth in to save His people to the uttermost.

Ant. 3. Thy messenger shall come again, O Lord : and shall prepare Thy ways.

Ant. 4. The doctrine of the Lord shall drop as the rain : and our God shall distil upon us as the dew.

Ant. 5. Prepare to meet thy God : O Israel, for He cometh.

Ant. to Ben. Every valley shall be exalted; and every mountain and hill shall be made low : and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who seest that we grieve by reason of our sinfulness, mercifully grant that by Thy visitation we may be consoled : Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

This Collect is only said at Lauds. At all the other Hours is said the Collect of Sunday.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

HYMN. Veni Redemptor gentium.

COME, Thou Redeemer of the earth,
Come, testify Thy Virgin birth :
All lands admire,—all times applaud ;
Such is the birth that fits a God.

Begotten of no human will,
But of the Spirit, mystic still,
The Word of God in flesh arrayed,
The promised fruit to man displayed.

The Virgin womb that burden gained,
With Virgin honour all unstained ;
The banners there of virtue glow :
God in His temple dwells below.

Proceeding from His chamber free,
The royal hall of chastity,
Giant of twofold substance, straight
His destined way He runs elate.

From God the Father, He proceeds :
To God the Father back He speeds :
Proceeds,—as far as very hell ;
Speeds back, to light ineffable.

O Equal to Thy Father, Thou :
Gird on Thy fleshly mantle now ;
The weakness of our mortal state
With deathless might invigorate.

Thy cradle here shall glitter bright,
And darkness breathe a newer light :
Where endless faith shall shine serene,
And twilight never intervene.

CHAPTER. Titus ii.

THE grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

HYMN. A solis ortus cardine.

FROM lands that see the sun arise,
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born to-day we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.

Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,
That liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.

In that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home:
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that offspring blest her own.

The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.

That Son, that royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His Mother yet conceal'd,
The infant Baptist had reveal'd.

The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor:
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives e'en fowls their daily bread.

The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.

For that Thine Advent glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
With Father, and with Holy Ghost,
From men and from the heavenly host.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done His marvellous works : that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear Him : He shall ever be mindful of His covenant.

6 He hath shewed His people the power of His works : that He may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of His hands are verity and judgment : all His commandments are true.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever : and are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption unto His people : He hath commanded His covenant for ever; holy and reverend is His Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do thereafter; the praise of it endureth for ever.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. 3. Unto the godly * there ariseth up light in the darkness : the Lord is merciful, loving, and righteous.

Psalm CXII. Beatus vir.

BLESSED is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in His commandments.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness : he is merciful, loving, and righteous.

5 A good man is merciful, and lendeth : and will guide his words with discretion.

6 For he shall never be moved : and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings : for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

8 His heart is established, and will not shrink : until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor : and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him : he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. 4. With the Lord * there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

Psalm CXXX. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with Thee : therefore shalt Thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for Him : in His word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

8 And He shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. 5. Of the fruit * of thy body : shall I set upon thy seat.

Psalm CXXXII. Memento, Domine.

LORD, remember David : and all his trouble;

2 How he sware unto the Lord : and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house : nor climb up into my bed;

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber : neither the temples of my head to take any rest;

5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord : an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata : and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into His tabernacle : and fall low on our knees before His footstool.

8 Arise, O Lord, into Thy resting-place : Thou, and the ark of Thy strength.

9 Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness : and let Thy saints sing with joyfulness.

10 For Thy servant David's sake : turn not away the presence of Thine Anointed.

11 The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David : and He shall not shrink from it.

12 Of the fruit of thy body : shall I set upon thy seat.

13 If thy children will keep my covenant, and My testimonies that I shall learn them : their children also shall sit upon thy seat for evermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for Himself : He hath longed for her.

15 This shall be My rest for ever : here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

16 I will bless her victuals with increase : and will satisfy her poor with bread.

17 I will deck her priests with health : and her saints shall rejoice and sing.

18 There shall I make the horn of David to flourish : I have ordained a lantern for Mine Anointed.

19 As for His enemies, I shall clothe them with shame : but upon Himself shall His crown flourish.

Glory be, etc.

These Antiphons and Psalms are said daily till the First Vespers of Epiphany.

CHAPTER. Heb. i.

GOD, Who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son.

℟. The Word was made flesh. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. And dwelt among us. ℟. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. The Word was made flesh. Alleluia, Alleluia.

HYMN. Sancte Dei pretiose.

SAINT of God, elect and precious,
Protomartyr Stephen, bright
With thy love, of amplest measure,
Shining round thee like a light,
Who to God commendedst, dying,
Them that did thee all despite:

Glitters now the crown above thee,
Figured in thy sacred name:
Oh! that we, who truly love thee,
May have portion in the same;
In the dreadful day of judgment
Fearing neither sin nor shame.

HYMN. Rex gloriose Martyrum.

ALL-GLORIOUS King of Martyrs Thou,
Crown of Confessors here below;
Whom, casting earthly joys away,
Thou guidest to celestial day.

O quickly bend a gracious ear,
To this our suppliant voice of prayer,
As we their sacred triumphs chant,
Forgiveness to our errors grant.

In Martyrs, victory is Thine,
In Thy Confessors, mercies shine,
Then conquer, Lord, our wickedness,
And us with loving pardon bless.

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

ARISE, shine; for thy Light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

℟. The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents, * the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts * to the Lord God. ℣. All kings shall fall down before Him: all nations shall do Him service. ℟. The kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. To the Lord God.

HYMN. Hostis Herodes impie.

WHY, impious Herod, vainly fear,
That Christ the Saviour cometh here?
He takes not earthly realms away,
Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.

To greet His birth the wise men went,
Led by the star before them sent:
Called on by light, towards Light they press'd,
And by their gifts their God confess'd.

In holy Jordan's purest wave
The heav'nly Lamb vouchsaf'd to lave;
That He, to Whom was sin unknown,
Might cleanse His people from their own.

New miracle of power divine!
The water reddens into wine:
He spake the word; and pour'd the wave
In other streams than nature gave.

All glory, Lord, to Thee we pay
For Thine Epiphany to-day:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

This Doxology is said throughout the Octave to Hymns of this metre.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. A Patre Unigenitus.

FROM God the Father, Virgin-born
To us the only Son came down;
By death the font to consecrate,
The faithful to regenerate.

From highest heaven His course began,
He took the form of mortal man;
Creation by His death restored,
And shed new joys of life abroad.

Glide on, Thou glorious Sun, and bring
The gift of healing on Thy wing;
The clearness of Thy light dispense
Unto Thy people's every sense.

Abide with us, O Lord, we pray,
The gloom of night remove away;
Thy work of healing, Lord, begin,
And do away the stain of sin.

We know that Thou didst come of yore;
Thou, we believe, shalt come once more:
Thy guardian shield o'er us extend,
Thine own dear sheepfold to defend.

All glory, Lord, to Thee, we pay,
For Thine Epiphany to-day;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. It is the Lord that commandeth the waters.

℟. It is the glorious God that maketh the thunder. It is the Lord that ruleth the sea.

FROM THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY TILL THE OCTAVE.

Lauds.

℣. All they from Sheba shall come.
℟. They shall bring gold and incense, and they shall shew forth the praises of the Lord.
℣. O God, make speed, etc.

Psalms of Sunday, all said under this

Ant. He, begotten before the morning star, and before all ages : the Lord our Saviour, to-day appeared to the world.

CHAPTER, HYMN, ℣. and ℟., As on the Epiphany, p. 111.

The following Antiphons are said at Lauds and Vespers to Benedictus and Magnificat, except on Sunday :

Ant. 1. The star shines like a flame, and points out God, the King of kings : wise men saw it, and brought gifts to Christ the King.

Ant. 2. When the wise men saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy : and when they were come into the house, they presented unto Him gifts; gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Ant. 3. A voice sounded from heaven, and the voice of the Father was heard, saying : This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

Ant. 4. The wise men, being warned of God in a dream : departed into their own country another way.

The rest as on the Feast of the Epiphany, and so until the day of the Octave, except on Sunday.

SUNDAY IN THE OCTAVE.

All as on the Feast of the Epiphany, except that which follows :

OCTAVE OF THE EPIPHANY.

First Vespers.

Ants. and Psalms as on Christmas Day, p. 92.

CHAPTER. Is. xxv.

O LORD, Thou art my God; I will exalt Thee, I will praise Thy Name; for Thou hast done wonderful things; Thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

℟. In the form of a dove the Holy Spirit was seen. * The voice of the Father was heard, This is My Beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased, * hear ye Him. ℣. It is the Lord that commandeth the waters, it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder. It is the Lord that ruleth the sea. ℟. The voice of the Father was heard, This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Hear ye Him.

HYMN. Hostis Herodes impie, ℣. and ℟., p. 110.

Ant. to Mag. The soldier baptizes the King, the servant his Lord, John the Saviour: the water of Jordan marvels, the Dove bears witness, the Father's voice is heard, This is My beloved Son.

HYMN. Deus Creator omnium.

O BLEST Creator, God most high,
Great Ruler of the starry sky,
Who, robing day with beauteous light,
Hast clothed in soft repose the night:

That sleep may wearied limbs restore,
And fit for toil and use once more;
May gently soothe the careworn breast,
And lull our anxious griefs to rest;

We thank Thee for the day now gone;
We pray Thee while the night comes on,
Help us, poor sinners, as we raise,
Our wonted offering of praise.

To Thee our hearts their music bring,
Thee our united voices sing;
To Thee our pure affections soar,
Thee may our chastened souls adore.

So when the deepening shades prevail,
And night o'er day hath dropped her veil,
Faith may no wildering darkness know,
But night with faith's own radiance glow.

From every wrongful passion free,
Our inmost hearts make sleep in Thee,
Nor let the fiend with envious snare
Our rest with sinful terrors scare.

Christ, with the Father ever one:
Spirit, of Father and of Son;
God over all, of mighty sway,
Shield us, great Trinity, we pray. Amen.

℣. Let our evening prayer come up before Thee, O Lord.

℟. And let Thy mercy come down on us.

Sunday.

Lauds.

HYMN. Æterne rerum Conditor.

DREAD Framer of the earth and sky,
Who dost the circling seasons give,
And all the cheerful change supply
Of alternating morn and eve:

Digitized by Google

Light of our darksome journey here,
With days dividing night from night:
Loud crows the dawn's shrill harbinger,
And wakens up the sunbeams bright.

Forthwith at this, the darkness chill
Retreats before the star of morn:
And from their busy schemes of ill,
The vagrant crews of night return.

Fresh hope, at this, the sailor cheers,
The waves their stormy strife allay;
The Church's Rock at this, in tears,
Hastens to wash his guilt away.

Arise ye, then, with one accord:
Nor longer wrapt in slumber lie;
The cock rebukes all who their Lord
By sloth neglect, by sin deny.

At his clear cry joy springs afresh,
Health courses through the sick man's veins,
The dagger glides into its sheath,
The fallen soul her faith regains.

Jesu! look on us when we fall;—
One momentary glance of Thine
Can from her guilt the soul recal
To tears of penitence divine.

Awake us from false sleep profound,
And through our senses pour Thy light;
Be Thy blest Name the first we sound
At early dawn, the last at night.

Doxology till Candlemas:

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

After Candlemas:

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee!
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

And the Doxology is thus said in all Hymns, except Deus Creator omnium, during these seasons.

℣. and ℟. to Hymns at Sunday Lauds:
Till Septuagesima:

℣. The Lord is King.

℟. He hath put on glorious apparel. Alleluia.

From Septuagesima till Lent:

℣. Lord, Thou hast been our refuge.

℟. From one generation to another.

Hymn. Splendor Paternæ Gloriæ.

THOU brightness of the Father's ray,
True Light of light and Day of day;
Light's fountain and eternal spring:
Thou Morn the morn illumining!

Glide in, Thou very Sun divine;
With everlasting brightness shine:
And shed abroad on every sense
The Spirit's light and influence.

Thee, Father, let us seek aright:
The Father of perpetual light:
The Father of almighty grace:
Each wile of sin away to chase.

Our acts with courage do Thou fill:
Blunt Thou the tempter's tooth of ill:
Misfortune into good convert,
Or give us grace to bear unhurt.

Our spirits, whatsoe'er betide,
In chaste and loyal bodies guide;
Let faith, with fervour unalloy'd,
The bane of falsehood still avoid;

And Christ our daily food be nigh,
And faith our daily cup supply;
So may we quaff, to calm and bless,
The Spirit's rapturous holiness.

Now let the day in joy pass on:
Our modesty like early dawn,
Our faith like noontide splendour glow,
Our souls the twilight never know.

Doxology till Candlemas:

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Have I not thought upon Thee when I was waking?

℟. Because Thou hast been my helper.

After Candlemas:

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. and ℟. as before Candlemas.

Hymn. Immense cœli conditor.

O GREAT Creator of the sky,
Who wouldest not the floods on high
With earthly waters to confound,
But mad'st the firmament their bound;

The floods above Thou didst ordain;
The floods below Thou didst restrain:
That moisture might attemper heat,
Lest the parch'd earth should ruin meet.

Upon our souls, good Lord, bestow
The gift of grace in endless flow:
Lest some renewed deceit or wile
Of former sin should us beguile.

Let faith discover heavenly light;
So shall its rays direct us right:
And let this faith each error chase;
And never give to falsehood place.

Doxology till Candlemas:

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Lord, let my prayer be set forth.
℟. In Thy sight as the incense.

After Candlemas:

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost, and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

℣. and ℟. as before Candlemas.

HYMN. Ales diei nuntius.

THE winged herald of the day
Proclaims the morn's approaching ray:
And Christ the Lord our souls excites,
And so to endless life invites.

Take up thy bed, to each He cries,
Who sick, or wrapped in slumber lies:
And chaste, and just, and sober stand,
And watch: My coming is at hand.

With earnest cry, with tearful care,
Call we the Lord to hear our prayer,
While supplication, pure and deep,
Forbids each chastened heart to sleep.

Do Thou, O Christ, our slumbers wake;
Do Thou the chains of darkness break;
Purge Thou our former sins away,
And in our souls new light display.

All laud to God the Father be,
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Have I not thought upon Thee when I was waking?

℟. Because Thou hast been my helper.

HYMN. Telluris ingens Conditor.

EARTH'S mighty Maker, Whose command
Rais'd from the sea the solid land;
And drove each billowy heap away,
And bade the earth stand firm for aye:

That so with flowers of golden hue,
The seeds of each it might renew;
And fruit-trees bearing fruit might yield,—
And pleasant pasture of the field:

Our spirit's rankling wounds efface
With dewy freshness of Thy grace:
That grief may cleanse each deed of ill,
And o'er each lust may triumph still.

Let every soul Thy law obey,
And keep from every evil way;
Rejoice each promis'd good to win,
And flee from every mortal sin.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost, and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

℣. Lord, let my prayer be set forth.
℟. In Thy sight as the incense.

HYMN. Nox et tenebræ et nubila.

HENCE, night and clouds that night-time brings,
Confus'd and dark and troubled things:
The dawn is here; the sky grows white;
Christ is at hand: depart from sight!

Earth's dusky veil is torn away,
Pierc'd by the sparkling beams of day:
The world resumes its hues apace,
Soon as the day-star shews its face.

But Thee, O Christ, alone we seek,
With conscience pure and temper meek:
With tears and chants we humbly pray
That Thou would'st guide us through the day.

For many a shade obscures each sense,
Which needs Thy beams to purge it thence:
Light of the morning star, illume,
Serenely shining, all our gloom!

All laud to God the Father be,
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Have I not thought upon Thee when I was waking?

℟. Because Thou hast been my helper.

HYMN. Cœli Deus sanctissime.

O GOD, Whose hand hath spread the sky
And all its shining hosts on high,
And painting it with fiery light,
Made it so beauteous and so bright:

Thou, when the Wednesday was begun,
Didst frame the circle of the sun,
And set the moon for ordered change,
And planets for their wider range:

To night and day, by certain line,
Their varying bounds Thou didst assign;
And gav'st a signal, known and meet,
For months begun and months complete.

Enlighten Thou the hearts of men;
Polluted souls make pure again;
Unloose the bands of guilt within;
Remove the burden of our sin.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

HYMN. Lux ecce surgit aurea.

BEHOLD the golden dawn arise;
The paling night forsakes the skies:
Those shades that hid the world from view,
And us to dangerous error drew.

May this new day be calmly past,
May we keep pure while it shall last;
Nor let our lips from truth depart,
Nor dark designs engage the heart.

So may the day speed on; the tongue
No falsehood know, the hands no wrong:
Our eyes from wanton gaze refrain;
No guilt our guarded bodies stain.

For God All-seeing from on high
Surveys us with a watchful eye;
Each day our ev'ry act He knows,
From early dawn to evening's close.

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,

HYMN. Magnæ Deus potentiæ.

ALMIGHTY God, Who from the flood
Didst bring to light a twofold brood;
Part in the firmament to fly,
And part in ocean depths to lie:

Appointing fishes in the sea,
And fowls in open air to be;
That each, by origin the same,
Its separate dwelling-place might claim:

Grant that Thy servants, by the tide
Of blood and water purified,
No guilty fall from Thee may know,
Nor death eternal undergo.

Let none despair through sin's distress;
Be none puffed up with boastfulness;
That contrite hearts be not dismayed,
Nor haughty souls in ruin laid.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

HYMN. Æterna cœli gloria.

ETERNAL glory of the sky,
Blest hope of frail humanity,
The Father's sole-begotten One,
Yet born a spotless Virgin's Son:

Uplift us with Thine arm of might,
And let our hearts rise pure and bright;
And ardent in God's praises, pay
The thanks we owe Him every day.

The day-star's rays are glittering clear,
And tells that day itself is near;
The shadows of the night depart;
Thou, Holy Light, illume the heart!

Within our senses ever dwell,
And worldly darkness thence expel:
Long as the days of life endure,
Preserve our souls devout and pure.

The faith that first must be possessed,
Root deep within our inmost breast:
And joyous hope in second place;
Then charity, Thy greatest grace.

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Have I not thought upon Thee when I was waking?

HYMN. Plasmator hominis Deus.

MAKER of men! from heaven Thy throne
Who orderest all things, God alone;
By Whose decree the teeming earth
To reptile and to beast gave birth:

The mighty forms that fill the land,
Instinct with life at Thy command,
Thou gav'st subdued to humankind
For service in their rank assigned.

From all Thy servants chase away
Whate'er of thought impure to-day
Hath mingled with the heart's intent,
Or with the actions hath been blent.

In heaven Thine endless joys bestow,
But grant Thy gifts of grace below:
From chains of strife our souls release;
Bind fast the gentle bands of peace.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

HYMN. Aurora jam spargit polum.

DAWN sprinkles all the east with light;
Day o'er the earth is gliding bright;
Morn's glittering rays their course begin;
Farewell to darkness and to sin.

Each phantom of the night depart,
Each thought of guilt forsake the heart:
Let every ill that darkness brought
Beneath its shade now come to nought.

So that last morning, dread and great,
Which we with trembling hope await,
With blessed light for us shall glow,
Who chant the song we sang below,—

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. My sins, O Lord, are stuck fast in me like arrows : but do Thou heal me by the remedies of penitence, before the wounds become corrupt.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth ; mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. There was a marriage in Cana of Galilee : and the Mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was called.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And when they wanted wine, Jesus saith unto them : Fill the waterpots with water ; and it was made wine.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Magnificat as on the Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth Thy right hand to help and defend us ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. When He was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him. And behold, there came a leper and worshipped Him, saying : Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will ; be thou clean.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented : and Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And when He was entered into a ship, His disciples followed Him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but He was asleep. And His disciples came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us, we perish.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea: and there was a great calm.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Magnificat as on the Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

COLLECT.

O LORD, we beseech Thee to keep Thy Church and household continually in Thy true religion; that they who do lean only upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by Thy mighty power; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Magnificat as on the Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Whose blessed Son was manifested that He might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God, and heirs of eternal life; grant us, we beseech Thee, that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves, even as He is pure; that, when He shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto Him in His eternal and glorious kingdom; where with Thee, O Father, and Thee, O Holy Ghost, He liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn.

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY.

From henceforth till Easter, Alleluia is not said. In its place at the beginning of each Hour is said:

Praise be to Thee, King of eternal glory.

℟. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

Sexts.

Ant. Why stand ye here all the day idle? : They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us.

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. ix.

AND every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things: now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

℟. Thou wast my hope * when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts. ℣. I have been left unto Thee ever since I was born : Thou art my God even from my mother's womb. ℟. When I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

℣. The Lord is my Shepherd, therefore can I lack nothing.

℟. He shall feed me in a green pasture.

Nones.

Ant. The householder said to his labourers: Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. x.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea.

℟. O cleanse Thou me * from my secret faults. ℣. Keep Thy servant also from presumptuous sins. ℟. From my secret faults. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. O cleanse Thou me from my secret faults.

℣. Thou hast been my succour.

℟. Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT.

First Vespers.

CHAPTER. II Cor. vi.

WE then beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee.)

℟. Let us amend those things wherein we have ignorantly sinned; lest, suddenly prevented by the day of death, we seek place of repentance, and find it not: Hear, Lord, and have mercy: for we have sinned against Thee. ℣. We have sinned with our fathers: we have done amiss, and dealt wickedly. ℟. Hear, Lord, and have mercy: for we have sinned against Thee. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Hear, Lord, and have mercy: for we have sinned against Thee.

HYMN. Ex more docti mystico.

THE fast, as taught by holy lore,
We keep in solemn course once more:
The fast to all men known, and bound
In forty days of yearly round.

The law and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
Which Christ, all seasons' King and Guide,
In after ages sanctified.

More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet,
And His avenging wrath entreat.

Thy grace have we offended sore
By sins, O God, which we deplore,
But pour upon us from on high,
O pardoning One, Thy clemency.

Remember Thou, though frail we be,
That yet Thine handiwork are we;
Nor let the honour of Thy Name
Be by another put to shame.

Forgive the sin that we have wrought;
Increase the good that we have sought;
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please Thee here and evermore.

Grant, O Thou blessed Trinity,
Grant, O Essential Unity,
That this our fast of forty days
May work our profit and Thy praise. Amen.

℣. He shall give His angels charge over thee.

℟. To keep thee in all thy ways.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said at Vespers daily, till the Third Sunday in Lent.

Ant. to Mag. Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation: let us then in all things approve ourselves as the servants of God, in much patience, in watchings, in fastings; by love unfeigned.

COLLECT.

O LORD, Who for our sake didst fast forty days and forty nights; give us grace to use such abstinence, that, our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey Thy godly motions, in righteousness and true holiness, to Thy honour and glory, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

[Or this,

O GOD, Who dost purify Thy Church by the yearly observance of Lent: grant to Thy family that those things which they seek of Thee by abstinence, they may follow up by good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Compline.

Ant. to Psalms. The light of Thy countenance hath sealed us, O Lord: Thou hast put gladness in my heart.

CHAPTER. Jer. xiv.

THOU, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy Name; leave us not, O our God.

℟. In peace: The Choir proceeds: in the very same : I will sleep and I will rest. ℣. I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber. ℟. I will sleep and I will rest. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. In peace, in the very same, I will sleep and I will rest.

HYMN. Christe qui lux esset dies.

O CHRIST, Who art the Light and Day,
Who driv'st the clouds of night away;
The very Light of Light art Thou,
Preaching glad tidings here below.

We pray Thee, holy Lord, our Light,
Defend us in this coming night;
Grant us a perfect rest in Thee,
A quiet night from perils free.

Let not dull slumber quell the soul,
Nor Satan with his spirits foul;
Nor let our flesh consent begin
To make us in Thy presence sin.

Grant that our eyes due sleep may take,
Our hearts to Thee be e'er awake;
May Thy right hand defend and guide
Thy servants who in Thee confide.

Look down, O Lord, our strong defence,
Repress our foes' proud insolence;
Direct Thy people in all good,
The purchase of Thy precious Blood.

Remember us, O Lord, we pray,
Pent in this cumb'ring frame of clay;
Thou Who dost e'er our souls defend,
Be with us, our eternal Friend.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the blessed Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Keep us.

℟. As the apple of an eye, hide us under the shadow of Thy wings.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. When thou seest the naked, cover thou him: and hide not thyself from thine own flesh. Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and the glory of the Lord shall be thy rereward.

Here follow the Prayers, p. 68.
On all Ferias is said after Psalm li., Psalm cxliii., Domine exaudi.

This Compline is said daily till the 3rd Sunday in Lent.

Lauds.

℣. He hath delivered me.

℟. From the snare of the hunter, and from the sharp word.

Psalms as on Septuagesima Sunday.

Ant. 1. Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

Ant. 2. Help me now, O Lord : O Lord, send us now prosperity.

Ant. 3. As long as I live will I magnify Thee on this manner : and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

Ant. 4. In a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted by Thee, O Lord : and so let our sacrifice be in Thy sight this day, and let it please Thee, O Lord God.

Ant. 5. Praise Him, all ye heavens : and ye waters that are above the heavens.

CHAPTER. II Cor. vi.

WE then beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee.)

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Audi benigne Conditor.

O MAKER of the world, give ear!
Accept the prayer, and own the tear,
Towards Thy seat of mercy sent,
In this most holy fast of Lent.

Each heart is manifest to Thee:
Thou knowest our infirmity:
Forgive Thou then each soul that fain
Would seek to Thee, and turn again.

Our sins are manifold and sore;
But pardon them that sin deplore;
And, for Thy Name's sake, make each soul,
That feels and owns its languor, whole.

So mortify we every sense
By grace of outward abstinence,
That from each stain and spot of sin
The soul may keep her fast within.

Grant, O Thou blessed Trinity,
Grant, O Essential Unity,
That this our fast of forty days
May work our profit and Thy praise. Amen.

And so in like manner on Saturdays.*

[COLLECT.

TURN us, O God of our salvation; and, that the Lenten fast may profit us, instruct our souls with heavenly doctrine; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Prime.

Ant. As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked : but that the wicked turn from his way and live.

After Psalm li. is said Psalm xxxii. Beati quorum.

Tierce.

Ant. Let us chasten ourselves : in much patience, by the armour of the righteousness of God.

CHAPTER. Joel ii.

TURN unto the Lord your God; for He is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth Him of the evil.

℟. Make me a companion of all them that fear Thee : and keep Thy commandments. ℣. O look Thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as Thou usest to do unto those that love Thy Name. ℟. And keep Thy commandments. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Make me a companion of all them that fear Thee, and keep Thy commandments.

℣. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold.

℟. My God, in Him will I trust.

After Psalm li. is said Psalm xxxviii., Domine ne in furore.

From this day till the Wednesday before Easter inclusive, when the Office is of Sexts.

Ant. Let us chasten ourselves : in much patience and fastings, by the armour of righteousness.

CHAPTER. Is. lv.

LET the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts : and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

℟. Refrain my feet from every evil way, that I may keep Thy word. ℣. I have not shrunk from Thy judgments, for Thou teachest me. ℟. That I may keep Thy word. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Refrain my feet from every evil way, that I may keep Thy word.

℣. He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter.

℟. And from the noisome pestilence.

Instead of Psalm li. is said Psalm lxvii., Deus misereatur.

Nones.

Ant. The days of penitence are come to us : for the redemption of sins, and the salvation of souls.

CHAPTER. Is. lviii.

DEAL thy bread to the hungry, and bring the poor that are cast out to thy house: when thou seest the naked, cover thou him; and hide not thyself from thine own flesh, saith the Lord Almighty.

℟. Let Thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord. ℣. When Thy word goeth forth, it giveth understanding. ℟. Unto me, O Lord.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Let Thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord.

℣. He shall defend thee under His wings.

℟. And thou shalt be safe under His feathers.

After Psalm li. is said Psalm cii., Domine exaudi.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT.

First Vespers.

CHAPTER. Eph. v.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

℟. And Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and the Lord was with him, and he was a prosperous man. ℣. The Lord shewed him mercy, and that which he did, the Lord made it to prosper. ℟. And he was a prosperous man. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. And Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and the Lord was with him, and he was a prosperous man.

HYMN. Ecce tempus idoneum.

LO! now is our accepted day,
The med'cine, purging sin away;
Where'er our lives have wrought offence,
By thought and word, by deed and sense.

For God, the merciful and true,
Hath spared His people hitherto;
Nor us and ours, with searching eyes,
Destroyed for our iniquities.

Him therefore now, with earnest care,
And contrite fast, and tear and prayer,
And works of mercy and of love,
We pray for pardon from above:

That from pollution making whole,
With virtues He may deck each soul,
And join us, in the heavenly place,
To angel cohorts by His grace.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

℣. He shall give His angels charge over thee.

℟. To keep thee in all thy ways.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said at Vespers daily till Passion Sunday.

Ant. to Mag. The father gave to his penitent son the first robe, and a ring; and putting shoes on his feet, he held a great feast: we too have in baptism our first robe, and the ring is the sign of faith.

COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of Thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy Majesty to be our defence against all our enemies; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Compline.

All as p. 129, till

holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Compline is thus said till Passion Sunday.

On Saturdays and Sundays, and at both Complines of Double Feasts, after Nunc Dimittis and its Antiphon, is added, ℣. Cast us not away in the time of age: forsake us not when our strength faileth us, O Lord.

℟. Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

℣. Shut not Thy merciful ears to our prayer.

℟. O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

℣. Thou that knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; spare our sins.

℟. O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Lauds.

℣. He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter.

℟. And from the noisome pestilence.

Ant. 1. O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Ant. 2. The Lord is on my side: I will not fear what man doeth unto me.

Ant. 3. God be merciful unto us: and bless us.

Ant. 4. The fire forgat his own virtue: that Thy servants might be delivered unhurt.

Ant. 5. Praise Him, sun and moon: for His Name only is excellent.

CHAPTER. Eph. v.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children: and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Jesu quadragenariæ.

JESU, the Law and Pattern, whence
Our forty days of abstinence,
Who souls to save, that else had died,
This sacred fast hast ratified;

That so to Paradise once more
Might abstinence preserv'd restore
Them that had lost its fields of light
Through crafty wiles of appetite:

Be present now, be present here,
And mark Thy Church's falling tear,
And own the grief that fills her eyes
In mourning her iniquities.

Oh by Thy grace be pardon won
For sins that former years have done;
And let Thy mercy guard us still
From crimes that threaten future ill.

That by the fast we offer here,
Our annual sacrifice sincere,
To Paschal gladness at the end,
Set free from guilt, our souls may tend.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

℣. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

℟. Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said at Lauds till Passion Sunday.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus was casting out a devil, and it was dumb: and it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

Collect as at First Vespers.

Prime.

Ant. If I, by the finger of God, cast out devils: no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

Tierce.

Ant. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace: his goods are in peace.

Ant. to Ben. Sir, I perceive that Thou art a Prophet : Our fathers worshipped in this mountain.

[COLLECT.

LET Thy gracious favour, we beseech Thee, O Lord, accompany our fast, that, as in our bodies we abstain from food, so in our souls we may fast from vices; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. True worshippers shall worship the Father : in spirit and in truth.

[COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who trust in Thy protection, may by Thy help overcome all things adverse; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Saturday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground : He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

[COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who afflict ourselves by abstinence from food, may, following after righteousness, fast from sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT.

First Vespers.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

IT is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

℟. Hear, O Israel, the commandments of the Lord, and write them in thy heart as in a book : and I will give thee the land that floweth with milk and honey. ℣. Beware, therefore, and hearken unto My voice, and I will be an enemy unto thine enemies. ℟. And I will give thee the land that floweth with milk and honey. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. And I will give thee the land that floweth with milk and honey.

HYMN. Ecce tempus idoneum, ℣. and ℟., p. 138.

Ant. to Mag. Woman, hath no man condemned thee? No man, Lord : Neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more.

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of Thy grace may mercifully be relieved; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Lauds.

℣. He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter.

℟. And from the noisome pestilence.

Ant. 1. Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness : if Thou wilt turn Thy face from my sins.

Ant. 2. It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in princes.

Ant. 3. God, even our own God, shall give us His blessing : God shall bless us.

Ant. 4. Thou art mighty, O Lord, to save us from the hand of death : deliver us, O God of Israel.

Ant. 5. Kings of the earth and all people : praise the Name of the Lord.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

IT is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Jesu quadragenariæ, ℣. and ℟., p. 139.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus went over the sea of Galilee. And a great multitude followed Him : because they saw His miracles which He did. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

Prime.

Ant. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there He sat with His disciples : And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

Tierce.

Ant. And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples : and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

IT is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

℟. It is good for me. p. 140.

Sexts.

Ant. With five loaves and two fishes : the Lord fed men in number about five thousand.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

REJOICE, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not : for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

℟. I am Thy servant. p. 140.

Nones.

Ant. The Lord filled five thousand men : with five loaves and two fishes.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

NOW we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit; even so it is now. Nevertheless, what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son.

℟. Seven times a day. p. 142.

Second Vespers.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

IT is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

℟. The Lord made them eat the increase of the fields : they sucked honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock. ℣. He fed them also with the finest wheat-flour : and with honey out of the stony rock did He satisfy them. ℟. They sucked honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. They sucked honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock.

HYMN. Ecce tempus idoneum, ℣. and ℟., p. 138.

Ant. to Mag. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said : This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

Monday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Take these things hence, saith the Lord : make not My Father's House an house of merchandise.

[COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, yearly observing this holy season with devotion, may please Thee both in body and mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

CHAPTER. Ezek. xviii.

THE soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son.

℟. The Lord made them. p. 145.

This ℟. is used on Ferias till Passion Sunday.

Ant. to Mag. Destroy this temple, saith the Lord; and in three days I will raise it up : but He spake of the temple of His body.

[COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, mercifully hear our supplications, and grant that we, to whom Thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may obtain the help of Thy defence; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Tuesday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Ye seek to kill Me : a Man that hath told you the truth.

[COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the observance of this holy fast may avail to the increase of holiness, and the continual bestowal of Thy loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I have done one work, and ye all marvel : because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath-day.

[COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, have mercy on Thy people, and graciously grant us breathing-space among the tribulations under which we labour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Wednesday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Master, who did sin: this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? : Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents; but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

[Collect.

GOD, Who through fasting dost grant rewards to righteous men, and pardon to sinners, have mercy on Thy suppliants, and let the confession of our guilt obtain remission of our sins; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. A Man that is called Jesus put clay upon mine eyes : and I washed, and do see.

[Collect.

LET Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy humble servants, and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Thursday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. The Father loveth the Son : and sheweth Him all things that Himself doeth.

[Collect.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that being chastened by fasting we may be gladdened by devotion, and that our earthly affections being tempered, we may more readily attain to heavenly things; though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. As the Father raiseth up the dead and quickeneth them: even so the Son quickeneth whom He will.

[Collect.

O GOD, the Teacher and Governour of Thy people, drive out those sins which assault them; that they may ever be pleasing in Thy sight, and safe under Thy protection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Friday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Our friend Lazarus sleepeth : but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

[Collect.

O GOD, Who renewest the world by ineffable Sacraments, grant, we beseech Thee, that Thine eternal counsels may avail to the welfare of Thy Church, and that it be not left destitute of Thy temporal help; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Lord, if Thou hadst been here, Lazarus had not died : By this time he stinketh, for he hath been dead four days.

[Collect.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who, owning our weakness, trust in Thy strength, may ever rejoice in Thy protection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Saturday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. I am the Light of the world : he that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life, saith the Lord.

[Collect.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, let our devout affections bring forth fruit by the help of Thy grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Passion Sunday.

First Vespers.

From Passion Sunday till the morrow of Low Sunday no Feasts are to be kept, except solemn Doubles, and these only till Maundy Thursday. If any Double Feast fall on this or the following Saturday, Vespers are to be of the Sunday, with solemn Memorial of the Feast.

Chapter. Lament. iii.

O LORD, Thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; Thou hast redeemed my life.

℟. The ungodly compassed me about, and scourged me without a cause: but Thou, O Lord, my Defender, avenge Thou me. ℣. For trouble is hard at hand, and there is none to help me. ℟. But Thou, O Lord, my Defender, avenge Thou me. Glory be, etc. is not said, but the ℟. is repeated. The ungodly compassed me about, and scourged me without a cause: but Thou, O Lord, my Defender, avenge Thou me.

[The Reader repeats this ℟. as far as the colon only: the Choir then takes it up, and finishes it. And this order is observed in all ℟℟. of Passion-tide.]

At the verse in the following Hymn, O Cross, our one reliance, hail: the Choir turns to the Altar, and so continues till the beginning of Magnificat.

Hymn. Vexilla Regis prodeunt.

THE Royal Banners forward go;
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow;
Where He in flesh, our flesh Who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid:

Where deep for us the spear was dy'd,
Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To wash us in that precious flood
Where mingled Water flow'd, and Blood.

Fulfill'd is all that David told
In true prophetic song of old;
Amidst the nations, God, saith he,
Hath reign'd and triumph'd from the Tree.

O Tree of beauty, Tree of light!
O Tree with royal purple dight!
Elect on whose triumphal breast
Those holy limbs should find their rest:

On whose dear arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung:
The price of human kind to pay,
And spoil the spoiler of his prey:

O Cross, our one reliance, hail!
This holy Passion-tide avail
To give fresh merit to the saint,
And pardon to the penitent.

To Thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done:
Whom by the Cross Thou dost restore,
Preserve and govern evermore! Amen.

℣. They gave me gall to eat.
℟. And when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said at Vespers daily, till Wednesday in Holy Week, inclusive.

Ant. to Mag. I am One that bear witness of Myself: and the Father that sent Me beareth witness of Me.

Collect.

WE beseech Thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon Thy people; that by Thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Compline.

Ant. to Psalms. Have mercy upon me: and hearken unto my prayer.

Chapter. Jer. xiv.

THOU, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy Name; leave us not, O our God.

℟. Into Thy hands I commend my spirit. ℣. For Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, Thou God of Truth. ℟. Into Thy hands I commend my spirit.

Hymn. Cultor Dei memento.

SERVANT of Christ, remember
The font's Baptismal dew;
Remember thy renewal
In Confirmation too.

When at the call of slumber
Thou seekest needful rest,
Let then the Cross's symbol
Sign both thy heart and breast.

Digitized by Google

The Cross repels all evil,
The Cross makes darkness flee,
A mind by this sign hallowed,
Unstable cannot be.

Away, ye wandering phantoms,
Away, all evil dreams,
Away, thou arch deceiver,
With all thy subtle schemes.

And thou, O crafty serpent,
Who seek'st by many an art,
And many a guileful winding,
To vex the quiet heart:

Depart, for Christ is present;
Since Christ is here, give place;
And let the sign thou ownest
Thy ghostly legions chase.

And though awhile the body
In sleep may lie reclin'd,
Yet Christ, in very slumber,
Shall fill the Christian mind.

All laud to God the Father,
All laud to God the Son;
To God the Holy Spirit
Be equal honour done. Amen.

℣. Keep us.

℟. As the apple of an eye, hide us under the shadow of Thy wings.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. O King, glorious among Thy saints, Who art ever to be praised, and yet art ineffable: Thou, Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy Name: leave us not, O our God: and in the day of Judgment vouchsafe to number us amongst Thy saints, O blessed King.

℣. O blessed King, govern Thy servants in the right way.

℟. Among Thy saints, O blessed King.

℣. By holy fasts to amend our sinful lives.

℟. O blessed King, govern Thy servants in the right way.

℣. To duly keep Thy Paschal Feast.

℟. Among Thy saints, O blessed King.

Compline is said thus till Maundy Thursday, except that the ℣℣. and ℟℟. after the Ant. are not said on Ferias.

Petitions as p. 68.

Lauds.

℣. Draw nigh unto my soul and save it.

℟. O deliver me because of mine enemies.

Ant. 1. O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

Ant. 2. I called upon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.

Ant. 3. O Lord, Thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul: Thou hast redeemed my life, O Lord my God.

Ant. 4. O My people, what have I done unto Thee? and wherein have I wearied Thee? testify against Me.

Ant. 5. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul.

CHAPTER. Heb. ix.

CHRIST being come an High-Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Lustra sex qui jam peracta.

THIRTY years among us dwelling,
His appointed time fulfill'd,
Born for this, He meets His Passion,
For that this He freely will'd:
On the Cross the Lamb is lifted,
Where His life-blood shall be spill'd.

He endur'd the nails, the spitting,
Vinegar, and spear, and reed;
From that holy Body broken
Blood and Water forth proceed:
Earth, and stars, and sky, and ocean,
By that flood from stain are freed.

Faithful Cross! above all other,
One and only noble Tree;
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit thy peers may be;
Sweetest wood and sweetest iron!
Sweetest weight is hung on thee.

Bend thy boughs, O Tree of glory!
Thy relaxing sinews bend;
For awhile the ancient rigour,
That thy birth bestow'd, suspend;
And the King of Heavenly Beauty
On thy bosom gently tend.

Thou alone wast counted worthy
This world's ransom to uphold;
For a shipwreck'd race preparing
Harbour, like the ark of old:
With the sacred Blood anointed
From the smitten Lamb that roll'd.

To the Trinity be glory
Everlasting, as is meet;
Equal to the Father, equal
To the Son and Paraclete;
Trinal Unity, Whose praises
All created things repeat. Amen.

℣. Deliver me from mine enemies, O God.

℟. Defend me from them that rise up against me.

Ant. to Ben. Which of you convinceth Me of sin? and if I say the truth, why do ye not believe Me?: He that is of God heareth God's words; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

Collect as at First Vespers.

Prime.

Ant. I have not a devil: but I honour My Father, saith the Lord.

Till Wednesday in Holy Week, instead of ℟. to the Chapter, at Prime is said,

℣. O Lord, arise, help us.

℟. And deliver us for Thy mercy's sake.

Tierce.

Ant. I seek not Mine own glory: there is One that seeketh and judgeth.

CHAPTER. Heb. ix.

CHRIST being come an High-Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

℟. Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog. ℣. Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: and preserve me from the wicked man. ℟. My darling from the power of the dog. ℟. Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog.

℣. Save me from the lion's mouth.

℟. Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Sexts.

Ant. Verily, verily, I say unto you: If a man keep My saying, he shall never see death.

CHAPTER. Heb. ix.

FOR if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, Who, through the eternal Spirit, offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

℟. Save me from the lion's mouth: Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. ℣. Deliver my soul from the sword, my darling from the power of the dog. ℟. Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. ℟. Save me from the lion's mouth: Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

℣. O shut not up my soul with the sinners.

℟. Nor my life with the bloodthirsty.

Nones.

Ant. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day: and he saw it, and was glad.

CHAPTER. Heb. ix.

AND for this cause He is the Mediator of the new testament, that

HE humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross.

℟. Give heed to me, O Lord, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me : Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. ℣. Remember that I stood before Thee to speak good for them, and to turn away Thy wrath from them. ℟. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. ℟. Give heed to me, O Lord, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me : Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul.

℣. Save me from the lion's mouth.

℟. Thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Nones.

Ant. All men praise Thy Name together, and say : Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

CHAPTER. Phil. ii.

WHEREFORE God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a Name which is above every name; that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

℟. Save me, O God : for the waters are come in, even unto my soul. And hide not Thy face from Thy servant: for I am in trouble. O haste Thee, and hear me. ℣. Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it : O deliver me because of mine enemies. ℟. For I am in trouble. O haste Thee, and hear me. ℟. Save me, O God, for the waters are come in, even unto my soul. And hide not Thy face from Thy servant: for I am in trouble. O haste Thee, and hear me.

℣. O shut not up my soul with the sinners.

℟. Nor my life with the bloodthirsty.

Second Vespers.

Ants. and Psalms as in the Psalter.

CHAPTER. Phil. ii.

LET this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant.

℟. The chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death : because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. ℣. The people therefore that was with Him when He called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. ℟. Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. ℟. The chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death: because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

HYMN. Vexilla Regis prodeunt, ℣. and ℟., p. 147.

Ant. to Mag. The multitude come with flowers and palms to meet the Redeemer, and give due homage to the triumphant Victor. The lips of the Gentiles proclaim the Son of God, and in the praise of Christ voices chant through the heavens, Hosanna.

Collect as at First Vespers.

[Collect.

LET Thy mercy, O Lord, cleanse us from all corruption of the old man, and enable us to put on the new man; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Wednesday in Holy Week.

Laudes.

On and after this day, no feast is noticed; Double feasts are transferred till after the Octave of Easter.

Psalms of the Feria.

Ant. 1. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O Lord, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

Ant. 2. I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side : but the Lord is with me as a mighty terrible one.

Ant. 3. These also that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

Ant. 4. All mine enemies have heard of my trouble : they are glad that Thou hast done it.

Ant. 5. Bind, O Lord, the kings of the heathen in chains : and their nobles with links of iron.

Ant. to Ben. Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch with Me one hour?

[Collect.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who are continually afflicted by reason of our trespasses, may be delivered by the Passion of Thine Only-begotten Son; Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.]

Vespers.

Chapter. Is. liii.

ALL we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth.

℟. The ungodly. p. 147.

Ant. to Mag. I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on Me : and now, being scourged, ye lead Me to be crucified.

Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, we beseech Thee graciously to behold this Thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the Cross; Who now liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end. Amen.

At these Vespers no Petitions are said, neither is the Altar censed, nor are any Memorials said, by reason of the solemnity of the Lord's Supper.

Compline is said as p. 147, the Petitions being said, as on Sundays, without Psalm li. Psalm cxxi. is not said after Compline from this day till the 1st Sunday after Trinity, inclusive.

Maundy Thursday.

Laudes.

The Sacerdotal ℣. and ℟. are omitted, and the first Antiphon is begun at once, and so on the two nights following. The Psalms are said without Glory be, etc., from this time till the First Vespers of Easter.

Ant. 1. Thou wilt be justified in Thy saying : and clear when Thou art judged.

Ant. 2. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter : He openeth not His mouth.

Ant. 3. Mine heart within me is broken : all my bones shake.

Ant. 4. He was made strong in Thy strength : and in Thy holy comfort, O Lord.

Ant. 5. Surely He hath borne our griefs : and carried our sorrows.

(After the repetition of the 5th Ant., all the lights in the Church are put out.)

Ant. to Ben. Now he that betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying : Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is He : hold Him fast.

After the repetition of the Ant. :

℣. Lord, have mercy. ℟. Lord, have mercy. ℣. Lord, have mercy. ℟. Christ became obedient unto death. ℣. Christ, have mercy. ℟. Who didst come to suffer for us. ℣. Christ, have mercy. ℟. Who, stretching forth Thy hands upon the Cross, didst draw all unto Thee. ℣. Christ, have mercy. ℟. Who by the prophet didst foretel, O Death, I will be thy death. ℣. Lord, have mercy. ℟. Christ the Lord became obedient unto death. ℣. Lord, have mercy. ℟. Lord, have mercy. ℣. Lord, have mercy. ℟. O Lord, have mercy upon us. ℣. Christ the Lord became obedient unto death. ℟. Even the death of the Cross.

Then the Lord's Prayer shall be said in silence, kneeling, after which Psalm li., Miserere, shall be said in a low voice, without Glory be, etc., and followed immediately by the Collect, as at previous Vespers, without The Lord be with you, or, Let us pray. Nor is anything further said after the Collect, but all rise (and the senior person present striking on the book three times, a light is brought).

The Petitions, etc. are not said from henceforth till after Trinity. No Memorials till after Low Sunday.

At Prime, and at the other Hours on this and the two days following, the ℣℣., ℟℟., and Hymns are omitted at the beginning of Office, and immediately after the Lord's Prayer, is begun the Ant. to Psalms.

Prime.

Ant. Christ became obedient for us unto death : even the death of the Cross.

Psalm liv., Deus in nomine tuo.

Psalm cxix., Beati immaculati and Retribue servo tuo.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Collect as at Wednesday Vespers.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

℣. Bless we the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Prime thus ends, and Tierce, Sexts, and Nones are said in like manner with their own Psalms.

Chapter is said on this day.

Vespers.

On this day Vespers shall be sung festively in Choir.

Ant. 1. I will receive the cup of salvation : and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Psalm cxvi. 10. Credidi, p. 49.

Ant. 2. I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof : they make them ready to battle.

Psalm cxx. Ad Dominum, p. 50.

Ant. 3. Keep me, O Lord : from the hands of the ungodly.

Psalm cxl. Eripe me Domine, p. 60.

Ant. 4. Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me : and from the traps of the wicked doers.

Psalm cxli. Domine clamavi, p. 61.

Ant. 5. I looked also upon my right hand : and saw that there was no man that would know me.

Psalm cxlii. Voce mea ad Dominum, p. 61.

Ant. to Mag. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread : and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples.

Easter Eve.

Lauds.

Psalms of the Feria, except the Canticle, which is the Song of Hezekiah, Ego dixi, p. 12.

Ant. 1. O death, I will be thy plagues : O grave, I will be thy destruction.

Ant. 2. Give heed, all ye people : and behold My sorrow.

Ant. 3. All ye that pass by, behold and see : if there be any sorrow like unto My sorrow.

Ant. 4. From the gates of hell : deliver My soul, O Lord.

Ant. 5. They shall mourn for Him, as one mourneth for his only son : because the innocent Lord is slain.

Ant. to Ben. Women sitting by the sepulchre : mourned for the Lord with weeping.

The rest as at Lauds on Maundy Thursday, except the

Collect.

GRANT, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of Thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections we may be buried with Him; and that through the grave and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection; for His merits, Who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[Or else the Collect of Thursday, ending without Who now liveth, etc.]

The Hours are said in a low voice, and as on Good Friday.

EASTER DAY.

First Vespers.

Vespers begin at once, with

Ant. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Psalm cxvii. Laudate Dominum omnes gentes.

O PRAISE the Lord, all ye heathen : praise Him, all ye nations.

2 For His merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us : and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Ant. to Mag. In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week : came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Collect as at Lauds.

[Or this,

POUR into our hearts, O Lord, the spirit of Thy love; that we, whom Thou hast satisfied with Paschal sacraments, may of Thy mercy be made one in heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.]

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit.

℣. Bless we the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

[At Lauds and Vespers add Alleluia.]

So end all Hours till Low Sunday.

Compline.

The usual Invocation is made in silence : the Office begins thus :

℣. O God, make speed to save us.

℟. O Lord, make haste to help us.

MEMORIAL OF S. MARY.

Ant. I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vines flourished, and the pomegranates budded : return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. Alleluia.

℣. Thou art the holy Mother of God.

℟. O Ever Virgin Mary. Alleluia.

COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, pour Thy grace into our hearts; that, as we have known the Incarnation of Thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an Angel, so by His Cross and Passion we may be brought unto the glory of His Resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Memorial is said daily at Vespers through this week.

℣. Bless we the Lord. Alleluia.

℟. Thanks be to God. Alleluia.

Vespers are thus said through the week, except the Graduals, Ants. to Magnificat, and Collects.

EASTER MONDAY.

Lauds.

℣. In Thy Resurrection, O Christ.

℟. Let heaven and earth rejoice. Alleluia.

On this day, and through the week, the Sunday Psalms are said under this one

Ant. The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven : and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. Alleluia.

Ant. to Ben. What manner of communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk, and are sad? Alleluia : And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto Him, Art Thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? Alleluia. And He said unto them, What things? And they said unto Him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, Who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word, before God and all the people. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GOD, Who by the Easter solemnity hast bestowed healing on the world, continue, we beseech Thee, to Thy people Thy heavenly gifts; that they may attain to perfect freedom, and advance towards life eternal; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

MEMORIAL OF S. MARY.

Ant. My soul failed when He spake; I sought Him, but I could not find Him; I called Him, but He gave me no answer : The watchmen that went about the city found me, they wounded me : the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me. Alleluia.

℣., ℟., and Collect as at Sunday Vespers.

This Memorial is said daily at Lauds through this week.

Lauds are thus said through the week, except the changes of Collects and Ants. to Benedictus.

No notice is taken of any feast or fast during this week, because all Saints arose in Christ, and the feast of Christ's Resurrection is common to all Saints. A Double Feast so occurring is transferred to the first vacant day after the Octave. And this order holds good for the Octave of Whitsun Day.

No Petitions are said at any Hour, except Prime and Compline, till Trinity. On and after Low Sunday they are said at those two Hours.

Vespers.

As on Sunday, except that which follows:

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice and be glad in it.

℣. Let Israel now confess that He is gracious, and that His mercy endureth for ever.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. Did not our heart burn within us concerning Jesus : while He talked with us by the way?

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who are bowed down under the weight of our sins, by this Paschal feast may be delivered from all evils that beset us; through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord. Amen.]

Easter Tuesday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them : Peace be unto you. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GOD, Who dost ever multiply Thy Church with new offspring; grant to Thy servants that as they have received Thy Sacrament in faith, they may hold it fast in life; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

Vespers.

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice, and be glad in it.

℣. Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered from the hand of the enemy; and gathered them out of the lands.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord Jesus arose and stood in the midst of His disciples, and said unto them, Peace be unto you.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre.

℟. Who hung for our sakes upon the tree.

Ant. to Mag. Behold My hands and My feet : that it is I Myself. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who keep the solemnity of the Easter feast, may always live in the grace of holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Wednesday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Cast the net on the right side of the ship : and ye shall find. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GOD, Who makest us glad with the yearly solemnity of our Lord's Resurrection; mercifully grant that through our temporal feasts we may attain to eternal joys; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Vespers.

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice, and be glad in it.

℣. The right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass : the right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord arose, and met the women, saying, All hail; and they came and held Him by the feet.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre. Alleluia.

℟. Who hung for our sakes upon the tree. Alleluia.

Ant. to Mag. This is now the third time that Jesus shewed Himself : after that He was risen from the dead. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the marvellous mystery of this Easter festivity may bring us peace in this world, and, in the world to come, eternal life; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

Thursday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping : and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GOD, Who hast gathered together divers nations in the confession of Thy Name; grant that they who are regenerate by baptism may be one in inward faith, and in outward devotion; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

Vespers.

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will rejoice, and be glad in it.

℣. The same stone which the builders refused : is become the head-stone in the corner. This is the Lord's doing : and it is marvellous in our eyes.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. In the day of My resurrection, saith the Lord, I will go before you into Galilee.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre.

℟. Who hung for our sakes upon the tree.

Ant. to Mag. They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him : If thou hast borne Him hence, tell me. Alleluia. And I will take Him away. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GOD, Who hast granted us to celebrate the Paschal mystery with free hearts; teach us to fear that which displeaseth Thee, and to love that which Thou commandest; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

Friday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee : and when they saw Him, they worshipped Him. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, Who hast given the Easter mystery for the reconciliation of the human race; grant to our souls, that what we profess with our lips we may shew forth with our lives; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

Vespers.

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice, and be glad in it.

℣. Blessed be He that cometh in the Name of the Lord: God is the Lord Who hath shewed us light.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord reigneth from the tree.

℟. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre.

℟. Who hung for our sakes upon the tree.

Ant. to Mag. All power is given unto Me: in heaven and earth. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

O GOD, by Whom redemption cometh, and adoption is bestowed; grant to the works of Thy hands, that being born anew in Christ, they may attain to their eternal heritage and to true liberty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Saturday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. Alleluia.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who have reverently passed through the Easter feast, may thereby attain to eternal joys; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

On this day, at every Hour, Alleluia is said before and after the words, This is the day, etc.

Low Sunday.

First Vespers.

℣. O God, make speed, etc.

Ant. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Psalms of the Feria.

CHAPTER. Rom. vi.

CHRIST being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him. For in that He liveth, He liveth unto God.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Chorus novæ Hierusalem.

YE Choirs of New Jerusalem!
To sweet new strains attune your theme;
The while we keep, from care releas'd,
With sober joy our Paschal feast.

When Christ, unconquer'd Lion, first
The Dragon's chains by rising burst:
And while with living voice He cries,
The dead of other ages rise.

Engorg'd in former years, their prey
Must death and hell restore to-day:
And many a captive soul, set free,
With Jesus leaves captivity.

Right gloriously He triumphs now,
Worthy to Whom should all things bow:
And joining heav'n and earth again
Links in one commonweal the twain.

And we, as these His deeds we sing,
His suppliant soldiers, pray our King,
That in His palace, bright and vast,
We may keep watch and ward at last.

Long as unending ages run,
To God the Father laud be done,
To God the Son our equal praise,
And God the Holy Ghost, we raise. Amen.

℣. Abide with us.

℟. For it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. Alleluia.

Ant. to Mag. Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week: He appeared first unto Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven devils. Alleluia.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY Father, Who hast given Thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve Thee in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who have passed through the Paschal feast, by Thy grace may hold firmly thereby in heart and life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.]

MEMORIAL OF S. MARY, p. 163.

This Memorial is said at First Vespers of Sunday till the Ascension.

The First Vespers of Sunday are thus said till the Ascension, except the changes of Collect and Ant. to Magnificat.

Compline.

Compline begins as usual with ℣. Turn us, etc.

Ant. to Psalms. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Psalm iv. Cum invocarem.
Psalm xxxi. In te Domine.
Psalm xci. Qui habitat.
Psalm cxxxiv. Ecce nunc.

CHAPTER. Jer. xiv., as in Psalter.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Jesu Salvator seculi.

JESU, Who brought'st redemption nigh,
Word of the Father, God most High;
O Light of Light, to man unknown,
And watchful Guardian of Thine own;

Thy hand Creation made and guides;
Thy wisdom time from time divides:
By this world's cares and toils opprest,
O give our weary bodies rest.

That while in frames of sin and pain
A little longer we remain,
Our flesh may here in such wise sleep,
That watch with Christ our souls may keep.

O free us, while we dwell below,
From insults of our ghostly foe,
That he may ne'er victorious be
O'er them that are redeemed by Thee.

We pray Thee, King with glory deck'd,
In this our Paschal joy, protect,
From all that death would fain effect,
Thy ransom'd flock, Thine own elect.

To Thee Who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, Thy people give;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

These two last verses are said at the end of all Hymns of this metre, till Ascension, except at Saturday Vespers.

℣. Keep us.

℟. As the apple of an eye, hide us under the shadow of Thy wings.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. Alleluia. The Lord is risen. Alleluia: As He said. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Petitions, p. 68.

Compline is thus said till the Ascension, except that the Christmas Doxology is used on any Feast of the Blessed Virgin.

Lauds.

Sac. ℣. and ℟., Ants. and Psalms, p. 161.

CHAPTER. 1 St. John v.

WHATSOEVER is born of God overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Sermone blando Angelus.

WITH gentle voice the Angel gave
The women tidings at the grave;
"Forthwith your Master shall ye see:
He goes before to Galilee."

And while with fear and joy they pressed
To tell these tidings to the rest,
Their Lord, their living Lord, they meet,
And see His form, and kiss His feet.

Th' eleven, when they hear, with speed
To Galilee forthwith proceed;
That there they may behold once more
The Lord's dear face, as oft afore.

In this our bright and Paschal day
The sun shines out with purer ray:
When Christ, to earthly sight made plain,
The glad Apostles see again.

The wounds, the riven wounds, He shews
Of that His flesh with light that glows,
In loud accord, both far and nigh,
The Lord's arising testify.

O Christ, the King, Who lov'st to bless,
Do Thou our hearts and souls possess;
To Thee our praise that we may pay,
To Whom our laud is due, for aye.

We pray Thee, King with glory deck'd,
In this our Paschal joy protect,
From all that death would fain effect,
Thy ransomed flock, Thine own elect.

To Thee Who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, Thy people give;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. The Lord hath risen from the sepulchre.

℟. Who hung for our sakes upon the tree. Alleluia.

Ant. to Ben. Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled: Jesus stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. Alleluia.

MEMORIAL OF THE RESURRECTION.

Ant. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week: they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. Alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen indeed.

℟. And hath appeared to Simon. Alleluia.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, Who through Thy Only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech Thee, that, as by Thy special grace preventing us Thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by Thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

This Memorial is said at Lauds on Sunday till the Ascension.

The Sunday Memorials supersede those for Double Feasts if any such occur on, or concur with, Sunday.

A Double Feast occurring on Low Sunday is to be deferred, but not so on the Sundays following, except Rogation Sunday.

WHATSOEVER is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Ad Cœnam Agni providi.

THE Lamb's high banquet we await,
In snow-white robes of royal state:
And now, the Red Sea's channel past,
To Christ our Prince we sing at last.

Upon the Altar of the Cross,
His body hath redeem'd our loss:
And tasting of His roseate blood,
Our life is hid with Him in God.

That Paschal eve God's arm was bar'd:
The devastating Angel spar'd:
By strength of hand our hosts went free
From Pharaoh's ruthless tyranny.

Now Christ, our Paschal Lamb, is slain,
The Lamb of God that knows no stain,
The true Oblation offer'd here,
Our own unleaven'd Bread sincere.

O Thou, from Whom hell's monarch flies,
O great, O very Sacrifice,
Thy captive people are set free,
And endless life restor'd in Thee.

For Christ, arising from the dead,
From conquer'd hell victorious sped:
And thrust the tyrant down to chains,
And Paradise for man regains.

Collect of Sunday.

[Or this,

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who in our afflictions trust to Thy mercy, may by Thy protection be guarded from all adversities; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.]

At all the other Hours are said the Chapter and Collect of Rogation Sunday. If any Double Feast occurs on this or the following day, the Feast is kept, with memorial of the fast at Lauds only.

HYMN. Æterne Rex altissime.

ETERNAL Monarch, King most high,
Whose blood hath brought redemption nigh,
By Whom the death of death was wrought,
And conqu'ring grace's battle fought:

Ascending to the Throne of might,
And seated at the Father's right,
All power in heav'n is Jesu's own,
That here His Manhood had not known.

That so, in Nature's triple frame,
Each heavenly and each earthly name,
And things in hell's abyss abhorr'd,
May bend the knee and own Him Lord.

Yea, angels tremble when they see
How chang'd is our humanity,
That flesh hath purg'd what flesh had stain'd,
And God, the flesh of God, hath reign'd.

Be Thou our Joy and Thou our Guard,
Who art to be our great Reward:
Our glory and our boast in Thee,
For ever and for ever be!

All glory, Lord, to Thee we pay.
Ascending o'er the stars to-day;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

HYMN. Jesu nostra Redemptio.

JESU, Redemption all divine,
Whom here we love, for Whom we pine,
God, working out creation's plan,
And, in the latter time, made Man;

What love of Thine was that, which led
To take our woes upon Thy head,
And pangs and cruel death to bear,
To ransom us from death's despair!

To Thee hell's gate gave ready way,
Demanding there his captive prey:
And now, in pomp and victor's pride,
Thou sittest at the Father's side.

Let very mercy force Thee still
To spare us, conquering all our ill;
And, granting that we ask, on high
With Thine own face to satisfy.

Be Thou our Joy and Thou our Guard,
Who art to be our great Reward:
Our glory and our boast in Thee,
For ever and for ever be!

All glory, Lord, to Thee we pay,

HYMN. Jam Christus astra ascenderat.

NOW Christ, ascending whence He came,
Had mounted o'er the starry frame;
The Holy Ghost on man to pour,
As God the Father's promise bore.

The solemn time was drawing nigh,
Replete with heavenly mystery,
On seven days' sevenfold circles borne,
That first and blessed Whitsun-morn.

When the third hour shone all around,
There came a rushing mighty sound,
And told the apostles, while in prayer,
That, as 'twas promis'd, God was there.

Forth from the Father's light it came,
That beautiful and kindly flame:
To fill, with fervour of His word,
The spirits faithful to their Lord.

Thou once in every holy breast
Didst bid indwelling grace to rest:
This day our sins, we pray, release,
And in our time, O Lord, give peace.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done;
And Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

BREATHED on by God the Holy Ghost,
The breasts, which He hath filled, rejoice,
And of His wondrous deeds they boast
In languages of diverse voice.

And to the men of every race,
Barbarian, Latin, and the Greek,
While wondering eyes upon them gaze,
In each one's dialect they speak.

Then Jewry, trusting not the sign,
And by malicious hate enticed,
Reproaches, as but full of wine,
The holy messengers of Christ.

Against the falsehood of their speech.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done;
And Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

This Hymn is said instead of Nunc sancte nobis, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, in this week, but on the other days the latter Hymn is said as usual.

Ant. The Spirit of the Lord : filleth the world. Alleluia.

CHAPTER. Acts ii.

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

℟. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. And began to speak. ℟. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia.

℣. The apostles did speak with other tongues.

℟. The wonderful works of God. Alleluia.

Sexts.

Ant. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost : and began to speak. Alleluia.

CHAPTER. Acts ii.

AND suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

Psalms of Sunday.

CHAPTER. Acts ii.

THE multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

℟. The Holy Ghost proceeding from the throne, invisibly entered the hearts of the apostles, with a new token of hallowing : that in their mouths all manner of new tongues should spring up. Alleluia. ℣. The fire of God came upon them, not burning, but enlightening; and bestowed on them gifts and graces. ℟. That in their mouths all manner of new tongues should spring up. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Alleluia.

HYMN. Beata nobis gaudia.

BLEST joys for mighty wonders wrought
The year's revolving orb has brought,
What time the Holy Ghost in flame
Upon the Lord's disciples came.

The quivering fire their heads bedewed,
In cloven tongues' similitude,
That eloquent their words might be,
And fervid all their charity.

In varying tongues the Lord they praised,
The gathering people stood amazed;
And whom the Comforter Divine
Inspired, they mocked as full of wine.

These things were done in type to-day,
When Easter-tide had worn away,
The number told which once set free
The captive at the jubilee.

Thy servants, falling on their face,
Beseech Thy mercy, God of grace,
To send us from Thy heavenly seat
The blessings of the Paraclete.

Thou once in every holy breast
Didst bid indwelling grace to rest:
This day our sins, we pray, release,
And in our time, O Lord, give peace.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done;
And Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

℣. The Spirit of the Lord filleth the world.

℟. And That which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice. Alleluia.

This Hymn, ℣., and ℟. are said daily till the First Vespers of Trinity Sunday.

Ant. to Mag. To-day are fulfilled the days of Pentecost; to-day the Holy Ghost appeared in fire to the disciples, and bestowed on them gifts of graces : He sent them into all the world to preach and to testify; he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Alleluia.

Collect as at Lauds.

When the septiform Feast of Pentecost has been completed in seven days, on the eighth day, that is, the first Sunday after Whitsun Day, shall be held full service of the Holy Trinity.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

First Vespers.

Ant. 1. Glory be to Thee, co-equal Trinity, One God before all worlds began : and now and ever, and to ages of ages.

Psalm cxiii. Laudate pueri, p. 46.

Ant. 2. Praise and perpetual glory be to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost : now and ever, and to ages of ages.

Psalm cxvii. Laudate Dominum, p. 50.

Ant. 3. Glory and praise resound from the lips of all to the Father, to the Only-begotten Son : and like praise for ever to the Holy Ghost.

Psalm cxlvi. Lauda, anima mea, p. 63.

Ant. 4. For ever from all lips let praise resound to God the Father, and the Only-begotten Son, and Thee, O Holy Ghost.

Psalm cxlvii. Laudate Dominum, p. 64.

Ant. 5. Of Whom, and through Whom, and in Whom, are all things : to Him be glory for ever.

Psalm cxlvii. 12. Lauda Hierusalem, p. 64.

CHAPTER. II Cor. xiii.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

℟. Blessing and honour, and glory and power, be to the Trinity in Unity, and to the Unity in Trinity : to everlasting ages. ℣. Light unfading be the perpetual glory of the Trinity in Unity. ℟. To everlasting ages. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. ℣. To everlasting ages.

HYMN. Adesto Sancta Trinitas.

BE present, Holy Trinity;
Like splendour, and one Deity:
Of things above, and things below,
Beginning that no end shall know.

Thee all the armies of the sky
Adore, and laud, and magnify:
While Nature, in her triple frame,
For ever sanctifies Thy Name.

And we, too, thanks and homage pay,
Thine own adoring flock to-day;
O join to that celestial song
The praises of our suppliant throng!

Light, sole and one, we Thee confess,
With triple praise we rightly bless;
Alpha and Omega we own,
With every spirit round Thy throne.

To Thee, O Unbegotten One,
And Thee, O Sole-begotten Son,
And Thee, O Holy Ghost, we raise
Our equal and eternal praise. Amen.

℣. Let us bless the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

℟. Let us praise and exalt Him above all for ever.

Ant. to Mag. Thanks be to Thee, O God; thanks be to Thee, One Very Trinity: One and Supreme Deity, Holy and One Unity.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, Who hast given unto us Thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the Eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; we beseech Thee, that Thou wouldest keep us stedfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, Who livest and reignest, One God, world without end. Amen.

Compline.

Ant. to Psalms. Have mercy upon me: and hearken unto my prayer.

HYMN. Salvator mundi Domine, p. 67.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. Lord, grant us Thy light: that being rid of the darkness of our hearts, we may come to the true Light, which is Christ.

Compline is thus said for this and the three following days.

Lauds.

℣. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven.

℟. And above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

Psalms of Sunday.

Ant. 1. O Holy and blessed and glorious Trinity: Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost. ℣. To Thee be praise, to Thee be glory, to Thee be thanksgiving.

Ant. 2. O Holy and blessed and glorious Trinity: Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost. ℣. Have mercy, have mercy, have mercy upon us.

Ant. 3. O Very, supreme, everlasting Trinity: Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost. ℣. To Thee be praise, to Thee be glory, to Thee be thanksgiving.

Ant. 4. O Very, supreme, everlasting Trinity: Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost. ℣. Have mercy, have mercy, have mercy upon us.

Ant. 5. Thee duly praise, Thee adore: Thee glorify, all Thy creatures, O blessed Trinity. ℣. To Thee be praise, to Thee be glory, to Thee be thanksgiving.

CHAPTER. Rom. xi.

O THE depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! For of Him and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to Whom be glory for ever. Amen.

HYMN. O Pater sancte, mitis atque pie.

O HOLY Father, merciful and loving;
O Jesu Christ, the only Son Eternal;
O Spirit blest, our spirits sweetly moving,
One God supernal.

O Trine, thrice hallowed, Unity unshaken,
Godhead most mighty; good, all goodness giving,

Light of the Angels, health of the forsaken,
Hope of all living.
Thee, all things worship, which Thou hast created:
All Thy creation, Lord, in Thee rejoices.
We too, will worship Thee with hearts elated;
O hear our voices.
Glory to Thee, Whose might all might excelleth,
One in Three Persons, Thee Whom nought can sever,
Thee, song beseemeth, Thee, with Whom praise dwelleth,
Ever and ever. Amen.

℣. Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

℟. From this time forth for evermore.

Ant. to Ben. Blessed be the Creator and Preserver of all things: the Holy and Undivided Trinity, now and ever, and to ages of ages.

Prime.

Ant. O Holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost: to Thee be praise, to Thee be glory, to Thee be thanksgiving.

OF THE FESTIVAL OF

CORPUS CHRISTI.

See Office of Blessed Sacrament in Common of Holy Days, p. 206.

If any Double Feast occur on this Wednesday a Memorial of it is made at the First Vespers of Corpus Christi: if any such occur on the feast itself, it is transferred to the first day in the Octave not similarly occupied. The Office of Corpus Christi is said throughout the Octave, even on Sunday, except a Double Feast occur, in which case the feast is kept, with Memorial of Corpus Christi.

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

(SUNDAY IN THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI.)

The Office is wholly of the festival, with Memorial of Sunday at both Vespers and at Lauds.

First Vespers.

Ant. And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli : and the word of the Lord was precious in those days.

℣. Let our evening prayer come up before Thee, O Lord.

℟. And let Thy mercy come down on us.

COLLECT.

O GOD, the Strength of all them that put their trust in Thee; mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without Thee, grant us the help of Thy grace, that in keeping of Thy commandments we may please Thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. Father Abraham, have mercy on me : and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue.

℣. The Lord is King.

℟. He hath put on glorious apparel. Alleluia.

Collect as at First Vespers.

Second Vespers.

Ant. Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things : and likewise Lazarus evil things.

℣. Lord, let my prayer be set forth.

℟. In Thy sight as the incense.

Collect as at First Vespers.

After the Octave of Corpus Christi, all as in the Psalter at every Hour.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And all Israel from Dan even unto Beersheba knew : that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the Lord.

COLLECT.

O LORD, Who never failest to help and govern them whom Thou dost bring up in Thy stedfast fear and love; keep us, we beseech Thee, under the protection of Thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of Thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. A certain man made a great supper, and bade many : and sent his servant at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city : and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind, that my house may be filled. Alleluia.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone : in the Name of the Lord.

COLLECT.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom Thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by Thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them : doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. What woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece : doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? Alleluia.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you; for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil : How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places. Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided.

COLLECT.

O GOD, the protector of all that trust in Thee, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy; that, Thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal; grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Be ye therefore merciful: as your Father also is merciful, saith the Lord.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: for with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I beseech Thee, O Lord, do away the iniquity of Thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

COLLECT.

GRANT, O Lord, we beseech Thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance, that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And Jesus entered into one of the ships: and sat down, and taught the people. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at Thy word I will let down the net.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, anointed Solomon king in Gihon: and all the people came up and rejoiced, and said, God save king Solomon.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who hast prepared for them that love Thee such good things as pass man's understanding; pour into our hearts such love towards Thee, that we, loving Thee above all things, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee: leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Alleluia.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. When the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, Elisha cried: My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof.

COLLECT.

religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of Thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat : and if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And Jesus took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to His disciples to set before them : and they did set them before the people. Alleluia.

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the Lord : all his days, wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing : but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven : but he that doeth the will of My Father Which is in heaven. Alleluia.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I beseech Thee, O Lord, remember now, how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a perfect heart : and have done that which is good in Thy sight.

COLLECT.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without Thee, may by Thee be enabled to live according to Thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And his lord called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? : Give an account of thy stewardship. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed : I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars : she hath sent forth her maidens, she crieth upon the highest places of the city.

COLLECT.

LET Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And when He was come near, He beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known! : For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. It is written, My house is the house of prayer : but ye have made it a den of thieves. And He taught daily in the temple.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I dwell in high places : and my throne is in a cloudy pillar.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who declarest Thy almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity; mercifully grant unto us such a measure of Thy grace, that we, running the way of Thy commandments, may obtain Thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican : This man went down to his house justified rather than the other. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying : God be merciful to me a sinner.

TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. All wisdom cometh from the Lord : and is with Him for ever.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire, or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, came unto the sea of Galilee : through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. He hath done all things well : He maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother : bind them continually upon thy heart.

COLLECT.

promises; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves : which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? : And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Go, and do thou likewise. Alleluia.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFFER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. In all this, Job sinned not with his lips : nor charged God foolishly.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which Thou dost promise, make us to love that which Thou dost command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And as He entered into a certain village, there met Him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off : and they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger : Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole. Alleluia.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers : neither take Thou vengeance on our sins.

COLLECT.

KEEP, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy Church with Thy perpetual mercy; and, because the frailty of man without Thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by Thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? : for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness : and all these things shall be added unto you. Alleluia.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them : by the hand of a woman.

COLLECT.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Thy Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without Thy succour, preserve it evermore by Thy help and goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus went into a city called Nain : and behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying : That a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited His people.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. O Lord, Lord, the King Almighty, the whole world is in Thy power : and there is none that can gainsay Thee.

COLLECT.

LORD, we pray Thee, that Thy grace may always prevent and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And Jesus spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath-day? : And they held their peace. And He took him, and healed him, and let him go.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. When thou art bidden to a wedding; go and sit down in the lowest room; that, when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher : then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. Alleluia.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. God open your hearts in His law and commandments : and send you peace.

COLLECT.

LORD, we beseech Thee, grant Thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow Thee the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Master, which is the great commandment in the law? : Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. What think ye of Christ? whose Son is He? They say unto Him, The Son of David : He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call Him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit Thou on My right hand?

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. When the sun shone upon the shields of gold : the mountains glistered therewith.

COLLECT.

O GOD, forasmuch as without Thee we are not able to please Thee; mercifully grant, that Thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Digitized by Google

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Jesus said unto the sick of the palsy : Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God : Who had given such power unto men.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. And all Israel made great lamentation for Judas, saying : How is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel!

COLLECT.

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of Thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech Thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that Thou wouldest have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner : come unto the marriage. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. The wedding is ready, but they who were bidden were not worthy : go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Alleluia.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. The Lord hear your prayers, and be at one with you : and never forsake you in time of trouble.

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, merciful Lord, to Thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve Thee with a quiet mind: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. There was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum : when he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he besought Him that He would come down and heal his son.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him : Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. O Lord, Lord God, fearful and strong, the only and gracious King, the only giver of all things : preserve Thine own portion and sanctify it.

COLLECT.

LORD, we beseech Thee to keep Thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through Thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve Thee in good works, to the glory of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. And the lord commanded payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying : Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me : shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? Alleluia.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne high and lifted up : and His train filled the temple; the whole earth was full of His glory.

COLLECT.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, Who art the author of all godliness; be ready, we beseech Thee, to hear the devout prayers of Thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully we may obtain effectually; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Master, we know that Thou art true : and teachest the way of God in truth. Alleluia.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's : and unto God the things that are God's. Alleluia.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people? she that was great among the nations : and there is none to comfort her, but only Thou, O God.

COLLECT.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, absolve Thy people from their offences; that through Thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by our frailty we have committed; grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. While Jesus spake these things unto John's disciples, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped Him, saying : My daughter is even now dead; but come and lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole : and the woman was made whole from that hour.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem : which shall never hold their peace day nor night.

COLLECT.

STIR up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of Thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. When Jesus then lift up His eyes, and saw a great company come unto Him, He saith unto Philip,

Digitized by Google

Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? : (And this He said to prove him; for He Himself knew what He would do.)

Second Vespers.

Ant. to Mag. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said : This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

If there be any more Sundays before Advent Sunday, the Service of some of those Sundays that were omitted after the Epiphany shall be taken in to supply so many as are here wanting. And if there be fewer, the overplus may be omitted: provided that this last Collect, with the Antiphons to Benedictus and Magnificat, shall always be used upon the Sunday next before Advent. But if a Double Feast occur on the last Sunday before Advent, the Office is of the Feast, with the above Ants. and Collect, as Memorials of the Sunday.

Ember-tide in September.

Wednesday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. This kind goeth not out : save by prayer and fasting.

Ferial Petitions, p. 10.

Collect.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, let the remedies of Thy mercy strengthen our frailty; that, whereinsoever it hath decayed, by Thy clemency it may be restored; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

This Collect is said at every Hour of this day only, till Vespers. At Vespers, if the Office is of the Feria, the Ferial Petitions are said with the Sunday Collect.

Friday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. A woman, in the city, which was a sinner, stood at the feet of the Lord behind Him : and began to wash His feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

Ferial Petitions, p. 10.

Collect.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that by the holy observance of this yearly devotion, we may please Thee in body and mind: through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

This Collect is said till Vespers of this day only. At Vespers, if the Office is of the Feria, the Ferial Petitions are said, with the Sunday Collect.

Saturday.

Lauds.

Ant. to Ben. Lighten, O Lord, them that sit in darkness : and guide our feet into the way of peace, O God of Israel.

Ferial Petitions, p. 10.

Collect.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, Who by healthful continence dost restore both body and soul; we humbly entreat Thy Majesty, that being well pleased by the deprecation of our devout fasting, Thou wouldst grant us present and future help; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

This Collect is said till Vespers of this day only.

COMMON MEMORIALS OF SAINTS

Said at First Vespers and Lauds.

Of a Martyr.

Vespers.

Ant. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; He also is become my salvation.

℣. In God have I put my trust.

℟. I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

Collect.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, (blessed N., Thy Martyr interceding,) grant us constancy in Thy faith and truth, that being grounded in divine love, we may be moved from its perfection by no temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If a Bishop:

Collect.

O GOD, Whose grace elected blessed N. Thy Bishop to the Priesthood, Whose learning instructed him in preaching, Whose power strengthened him in perseverance; grant us, after his pattern, to instruct Thy people by our lives, and to strengthen them by our patience; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If a Priest, not a Bishop:

Collect.

O GOD, from Whom cometh constant faith, and Whose strength is made perfect in weakness; grant, we beseech Thee, that (by the pattern and the prayers of blessed N., Thy Priest and Martyr,) the horrors of persecution and terrors of death may be overcome through the confession of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

℣. The righteous shall blossom as a lily.

℟. He shall flourish for ever before the Lord.

Collect as at First Vespers.

Of a Bishop and Confessor.

Vespers.

Ant. He chose him out of all men living to offer sacrifices unto the Lord: incense and a sweet savour, for his people.

℣. Blessed is the man whom Thou choosest and receivest unto Thee.

℟. He shall dwell in Thy courts.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, Who makest us glad by this festival of blessed N., Thy Confessor and Bishop, we humbly beseech Thy clemency, that the pious prayers of him whose feast we celebrate may avail to obtain for us the remedies of eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

℣. The righteous shall blossom as a lily.

℟. He shall flourish for ever before the Lord.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who providest for Thy people with tenderness, and governest them with love; and Who dost so value them as to set ministers to rule over them in Thy stead; give, we pray Thee, (blessed N., [Thy Bishop] interceding,) the Spirit of wisdom to those whom Thou hast appointed to preside over Thy Church, that from the welfare of the holy sheep may spring the everlasting joy of the shepherds; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, One God, world without end. Amen.

OF A DOCTOR.

Vespers.

Ant. God giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He revealeth the deep and secret things; He knoweth what is in darkness, and the light dwelleth with Him.

℣., ℟., and Collect of a Confessor Bishop, p. 204, or of a Confessor, p. 205.

Lauds.

Ant. I thank Thee, and praise Thee, O Thou God of my fathers: Who hast given me wisdom and might.

℣., ℟., and Collect of a Confessor Bishop, p. 204, or of a Confessor, p. 205.

OF AN ABBOT OR MONK.

Vespers.

If an Abbot:

Ant. Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred: and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

℣. His seed shall be mighty upon earth.

℟. The generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

If not an Abbot:

Ant. Thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity: the Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under Whose wings thou art come to trust.

℣. Under the shadow of Thy wings shall be my refuge.

℟. Until this tyranny be overpast.

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who didst grant to blessed N. the Abbot, [or Monk,] to imitate Christ in his poverty, and with humble heart to follow Him to the end: grant to all who have entered on the path of Thy commandments, neither to look back, nor err in the way, but, hasting to Thee without stumbling, to attain eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

If an Abbot:

Ant. Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me: are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, Which dwelleth in Mount Sion.

℣. Come ye children, and hearken unto me.

℟. I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

If not an Abbot:

Ant. The Lord is my portion, saith my soul: therefore will I hope in Him.

℣. I cried to Thee, O Lord, and said, Thou art my hope.

℟. And my stronghold.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, bestowing exceeding great rewards on those who for Thy sake trample on earthly things; grant us by the example and intercession of blessed N., whose departure we this day celebrate, to despise all temporal things, and with our whole heart to hasten unto things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OF A CONFESSOR NOT A BISHOP.

Vespers.

Ant. The Lord will shew who are His and who is holy: even him whom He hath chosen, will He cause to come near unto Him.

℣. Mine eyes look upon such as are faithful in the land.

℟. That they may dwell with Me.

If a Priest:

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who makest us glad with the yearly solemnity of blessed N., Thy Confessor, mercifully grant that as we venerate his nativity, so we may imitate his actions; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If not a Priest:

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord God, (blessed N. interceding,) that Thy people may walk in Thy love: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

If a Priest:

Ant. He wrought that which was good and right, and truth before the Lord his God: and in every work that he began, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

℣. Send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me.

℟. And bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling.

Collect as at Vespers.

If not a Priest:

Ant. He that doeth truth, cometh to the light: that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought in God.

℣. Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me.

℟. And lead me in the way everlasting.

Collect as at Vespers.

OF A VIRGIN AND MARTYR.

Vespers.

Ant. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

℣. Full of grace are thy lips.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever.

COLLECT.

HEAR us, O God of our salvation, that as we rejoice in the feast of blessed N., Thy Virgin [and Martyr]; so of Thy mercy we may be taught the spirit of devotion; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. When the Bridegroom came, the wise virgins, being ready: went in with Him to the marriage.

℣. The virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company.

℟. And shall be brought unto Thee.

Collect as at Vespers.

Of a Virgin not Martyr, the Memorial is the same, except that in the Collect the words, and Martyr, are omitted.

OF A MATRON.

Vespers.

Ant. My heart rejoiceth in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged, because I rejoice in Thy salvation.

℣. O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity.

℟. And quicken Thou me in Thy way.

COLLECT.

O GOD of mercy, enlighten the hearts of Thy faithful people, and (blessed N. [Thy Martyr] interceding,) make us to despise things earthly, and love things heavenly; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lauds.

Ant. The prayer of the humble: pierceth the clouds.

℣. I humbled my soul with fasting.

℟. And my prayer shall turn into mine own bosom.

Collect as at Vespers.

OFFICE OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

(CORPUS CHRISTI).

This Office may be used on any Thursday in the year, if unhindered by a Vigil or Double Feast, except in Advent and Lent. Alleluia is omitted in the ℣℟. of the Little Hours, etc., except in the Octave of Corpus Christi, and in Eastertide.

First Vespers.

Ant. 1. Christ the Lord, a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec: offered bread and wine.

Psalm cx. Dixit Dominus, p. 45.

Ant. 2. The merciful Lord hath given meat to them that fear Him: in remembrance of His mercy.

Psalm cxi. Confitebor tibi, p. 45.

Ant. 3. I will receive the cup of salvation: and offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

Psalm cxvi. 10. Credidi, p. 49.

Ant. 4. Let the children of the church be as the olive-branches: round about the table of the Lord.

Psalm cxxviii. Beati omnes, p. 54.

Ant. 5. The Lord Who maketh peace in the borders of the church: filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

Psalm cxlvii. 12. Lauda Hierusalem, p. 64.

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. xi.

FOR I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, eat: This is My Body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in My Blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

℟. A certain man made a great supper, and sent his servants at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready. ℣. Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled. ℟. For all things are now ready. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. For all things are now ready.

HYMN. Pange, lingua, gloriosi.

OF the glorious Body telling,
O my tongue, its mysteries sing;
And the Blood, all price excelling,
Which for this world's ransoming,
In a generous womb once dwelling,
He shed forth, the Gentiles' King.

Given for us, for us descending
Of a Virgin to proceed,
Man with man in converse blending,
Scattered He the gospel seed:
Till His sojourn drew to ending,
Which He closed in wond'rous deed.

At the last great Supper seated,
Circled by His brethren's band,
All the Law required, completed
In the feast its statutes planned,
To the Twelve Himself He meted
For their food with His own hand.

Word made Flesh, by word He maketh
Very bread His Flesh to be:
Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh,
And if senses fail to see,
Faith alone the true heart maketh
To behold the mystery.

Therefore we, before it bending,
This great Sacrament adore:
Types and shadows have their ending
In the new rite evermore.
Faith, our outward sense amending,
Maketh good defects before.

Honour, laud, and praise addressing
To the Father and the Son,
Might ascribe we, virtue, blessing,
And eternal benison,
Holy Ghost, from Both progressing,
Equal laud to Thee be done! Amen.

℣. Thou didst give them Bread from heaven.

℟. Containing in Itself all sweetness. [Alleluia.]

And so throughout the Octave of Corpus Christi, is added Alleluia to all the proper versicles of the Blessed Sacrament. At the other versicles it is not added, except in Easter tide.

Ant. to Mag. O how sweet is Thy Spirit, O Lord, Who, to shew Thy loving kindness to Thy children: givest most sweet Bread from heaven, fillest the hungry with good things and sendest the scornful and the rich empty away. [Alleluia.]

COLLECT.

O GOD, Who under a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of Thy Passion; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to adore the mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, that we may evermore feel within ourselves the fruit of Thy redemption, Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Compline.

As in the Psalter on Festivals, except the Ant. to Nunc Dimittis. The Hymn, Salvator mundi Domine, is said with proper doxology, p. 208.

Ant. to Nunc Dim. [Alleluia.] The Bread that I will give, [Alleluia]: is My Flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. [Alleluia, Alleluia.]

This Ant. is said throughout the Octave of Corpus Christi, even on the Feasts of Saints.

Lauds.

℣. I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey.

℟. I have drunk my wine with my milk. [Alleluia.]

Psalms of Sunday.

Ant. 1. Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath mingled her wine: she hath also furnished her table. [Alleluia.]

Ant. 2. With the food of angels Thou didst nourish Thy people: and didst give them Bread from heaven. [Alleluia.]

Ant. 3. Rich is the Bread of Christ: and He giveth delicacies unto kings. [Alleluia.]

Ant. 4. The holy priests offer incense and bread: unto the Lord. [Alleluia.]

Ant. 5. To him that overcometh will I give the hidden manna: and a new name. [Alleluia.]

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. xi.

FOR I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, eat: This is My Body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in My Blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Verbum supernum prodiens.

THE Word of God proceeding forth,
Yet leaving not the Father's side,
And going to His work on earth,
Had reached at length life's eventide.

By a disciple to be given
To rivals, for His Blood athirst:
Himself, the very Bread of heaven,
He gave to His disciples first.

He gave Himself in either kind,
His precious Flesh; His precious Blood;
Of flesh and blood is man combined,
And He of man would be the Food.

In birth, man's fellow man was He;
His Meat, while sitting at the board;
He died, his Ransomer to be;
He reigns, to be his great Reward.

O saving Victim, slain to bless,
Who op'st the heavenly gate to all:
The attacks of many a foe oppress;
Give strength in strife, and help in fall.

To God, the Three in One, ascend
All thanks and praise for evermore;
He grant the life that shall not end,
Upon the heavenly country's shore. Amen.

℣. He maketh peace in thy borders.

℟. And filleth thee with the flour of wheat. [Alleluia.]

Ant. to Ben. I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread he shall live for ever. [Alleluia.]

Collect as at First Vespers.

Prime.

The Hymn is to end with this Doxology, as well as all Hymns of the same metre, throughout the Office, except the Hymn, Verbum supernum:

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee,
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father, and to Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. to Psalms. Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath mingled her wine: she hath also furnished her table. [Alleluia.]

℟. to Chapter.

℟. Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God: have mercy upon us. ℣. Thou Who wast born of the Virgin Mary. ℟. Have mercy upon us. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Jesu Christ, Son of the Living God, have mercy upon us.

CHAPTER. Isa. vii.

BEHOLD, a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call His Name, Immanuel.

℟. Thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty : for it was perfect through My comeliness which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God. ℣. Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. ℟. For it was perfect through My comeliness which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty : for it was perfect through My comeliness which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

HYMN. Quem terra, pontus, sidera.

THE God Whom earth, and sea, and sky
Adore, and laud, and magnify—
Who o'er their threefold fabric reigns,
The Virgin's spotless womb contains.

The God, Whose will by moon and sun
And all things in due course is done,
Is borne upon a Maiden's breast,
By fullest heavenly grace possess'd.

How blest that Mother, in whose shrine
The great Artificer Divine,
Whose hand contains the earth and sky,
Vouchsaf'd, as in His ark, to lie!

Blest, in the message Gabriel brought;
Blest, by the work the Spirit wrought;
From whom the Great Desire of earth
Took human flesh and human birth.

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

This Doxology is said throughout the day to Hymns of this metre.

℣. Full of grace are thy lips.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever.

Ant. to Mag. Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem : thou art the great glory of Israel; thou art the great rejoicing of our nation.

COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, mercifully pour Thy grace into our hearts; and, (most holy Mary, Mother of God, interceding) sanctify our bodies in chastity, and our souls in humility and charity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Compline.

As set down in the Psalter on Festivals, except that which follows :

Ant. to Psalms. Blessed is the womb that bare Thee, O Christ : and the paps which thou hast sucked.

Ant. to Nunc Dimittis, except on the Annunciation :

We glorify the holy Mother of God : because of her Christ was born.

Lauds.

℣. I will give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, among the people.

℟. For Thy mercy is greater than the heavens.

Psalms of Sunday.

Ant. 1. My Beloved is mine, and I am His : He feedeth among the lilies.

Ant. 2. In thee, and in thy Seed : shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

Ant. 3. He was born in her : and the most High shall stablish her.

Ant. 4. Blessed art thou of the most high God : above all the women upon the earth.

Ant. 5. The daughters saw her, and blessed her : the queens, and they praised her.

CHAPTER. Gal. iv.

WHEN the fulness of time was come, God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law.

HYMN. O gloriosa virginum.

O GLORIOUS Virgin, throned in rest
Amidst the starry host above,
Who gavest nurture from thy breast
To God, with pure maternal love:

What we had lost through sinful Eve
The Blossom sprung from thee restores;
And granting bliss to souls that grieve,
Unbars the everlasting doors.

O gate, through which hath passed the King:
O hall, whence light shone through the gloom;
The ransomed nations praise and sing,
Life given from the virgin womb.

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Thy name shall be called of God for ever.

℟. The peace of righteousness.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Psalms. Light perpetual shall shine upon Thy Saints, O Lord : and an eternity of time. Alleluia.

Psalms of the Feria.

The Chapter at the First Vespers, and those at all the Hours, are of the Proper, if there be any ; if not, of the Common of Apostles through the year.

℟. Her Nazarites were made bright. Alleluia; they gave their glory to God. Alleluia : They were whiter than milk : Alleluia. Alleluia. ℣. Their sound is gone out into all lands, and their words unto the end of the world. ℟. They were whiter than milk. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Alleluia, Alleluia.

HYMN. Tristes erant Apostoli.

TH' Apostles' hearts were full of pain,
For their dear Lord so lately slain,
That Lord His servants' wicked train
With bitter scorn had dared arraign.

We pray Thee, King with glory deck'd,
In this our Paschal joy protect,
From all that death would fain effect,
Thy ransomed flock, Thine own elect.

To Thee Who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, Thy people give;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

If in Ascension-tide, instead of the last two verses is said :

Be Thou our Joy, and Thou our Guard,
Who art to be our great Reward :
Our glory and our boast in Thee,
For ever and for ever be!

All glory, Lord, to Thee we pay,
Ascending o'er the stars to-day;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Then were the disciples glad.

℟. When they saw the Lord. Alleluia.

Ant. to Mag. Daughters of Jerusalem, come and behold the Martyr with the crown, wherewith the Lord crowned Him, in the day of solemnity and gladness.

This Ant. is to be said in Easter-tide for one or many Martyrs or Confessors, not changing the word Martyr to the plural, because it refers to Christ.

Chapter according to direction at First Vespers, p. 212.

HYMN. Claro Paschali gaudio.

IN this our bright and Paschal day
The sun shines out with purer ray;
When Christ, to earthly sight made plain,
The glad Apostles see again.

The wounds, the riven wounds He shows
In that His flesh with light that glows,
With public voice both far and nigh
The Lord's arising testify.

O Christ, the King, Who lov'st to bless,
Do Thou our hearts and souls possess;
To Thee our praise that we may pay,
To Whom our laud is due for aye.

We pray Thee, King with glory deck'd,
In this our Paschal joy protect,

After Septuagesima, at the end of this Antiphon, instead of Alleluia, is said, Saith the Lord. But at the end of other Antiphons, usually ending with Alleluia, is said, For evermore.

Chapter. Eph. ii.

NOW therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets.

℟. Who are these that fly as a cloud: and as the doves to their windows? ℣. They were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies. ℟. And as the doves to their windows. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Who are these that fly as a cloud: and as the doves to their windows?

Hymn. Annue Christe.

O CHRIST, Thou Lord of worlds!
Thine ear to hear us bow
On this the festival
Of Thine Apostle [or, Apostles] now:
That all the weary load
Of many a foul offence
May, as we sing his [their] praise,
Be lost in penitence.

Redeemer! save Thy work,
Thy noble work of grace,
Sealed with the holy light
That beameth from Thy face:
Nor suffer them to fall
To Satan's wiles a prey,
For whom Thou didst on earth
Death's costly ransom pay.

Pity Thy flock, enthralled
By sin's captivity;
Forgive each guilty soul,
And set the bondmen free:
And those Thou hast redeemed
With Thine Own precious Blood,
Grant to rejoice with Thee,
Thou Monarch kind and good.

O Jesu, Saviour blest
And gracious Lord, to Thee,
All glory, virtue, power,
And laud and empire be:
The Father with like praise,
And Spirit we adore;
With Whom Thou reignest God,
For ages evermore. Amen.

HYMN. Exultet cœlum laudibus.

LET the round world with songs rejoice,
Let heaven return the joyful voice;
All, mindful of the Apostles' fame,
Earth, sky, their Sovereign's praise proclaim!

Thou, at Whose word they bore the light
Of gospel truth o'er heathen night,
Still unto us that light impart,
To glad our eyes and cheer our heart.

Thou, at Whose will to them was given
The key that shuts and opens heaven,
Our chains unbind, our loss repair,
And grant us grace to enter there.

Thou, at Whose will they preached the word
Which cured disease, which health conferred,
To us its healing power prolong,
The weak support, confirm the strong.

That when Thy Son again shall come,
And speak the world's unerring doom,
He may with them pronounce us blest,
And place us in Thy endless rest.

All laud to God the Father be;
All laud, Eternal Son, to Thee;
All laud, as is for ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done.

℟. For they shall perceive that it is His work.

Ant. to Ben. (if none Proper.) They will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues: and ye shall be brought before governours and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

HYMN. Deus tuorum militum.

O GOD, Thy soldiers' Crown and Guard,
And their exceeding great reward,
From all transgressions set us free,
Who sing Thy Martyr's victory.

The pleasures of the world he spurn'd,
From sin's pernicious lures he turn'd;
He knew their joys imbued with gall,
And thus he reach'd Thy heav'nly hall.

For Thee thro' many a woe he ran,
In many a fight he play'd the man;
For Thee his blood he dar'd to pour,
And thence hath joy for evermore.

We therefore pray Thee, full of love,
Regard us from Thy Throne above:
On this Thy Martyr's triumph-day,
Wash ev'ry stain of sin away.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son:
Who, with the Holy Ghost, and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

CHAPTER. S. James i.

MY brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work.

℟. Round about Thee, O Lord, is a light that never fails : where Thou hast built most bright mansions : there rest the souls of the Saints. ℣. Light perpetual shall shine upon Thy Saints, O Lord, and an eternity of time. ℟. Where Thou hast built most bright mansions. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. There rest the souls of the Saints.

HYMN. Sanctorum meritis.

THE triumphs of the Saints,
Blessed for evermore,
Their love that never faints,
The toils they bravely bore,—
For these the Church to-day
Pours forth her joyous lay,—
These victors win the noblest bay.

They, whom this world of ill,
While it yet held, abhorr'd :
Its with'ring flowers that still
They spurn'd with one accord :
They knew them short-liv'd all,
And followed at Thy call,
King Jesu, to Thy heavenly hall.

For Thee all pangs they bare,
Fury and mortal hate,
The cruel scourge to tear,
The hook to lacerate ;
But vain their foes' intent :
For, every torment spent,
Their valiant spirits stood unbent.

Like sheep their blood they pour'd :
And without groan or tear,
They bent before the sword
For that their King most dear :
Their souls, serenely blest,
In patience they possessed,
And looked in hope towards their rest.

What tongue may here declare,
Fancy or thought descry,
The joys Thou dost prepare
For these Thy Saints on high !
Empurpled in the flood
Of their victorious blood,
They won the laurel from their God.

To Thee, O Lord, Most High,
One in Three Persons still,
To pardon us we cry,
And to preserve from ill :
Here give Thy servants peace ;
Hereafter glad release,
And pleasures that shall never cease. Amen.

℣. Wonderful art Thou in Thy Saints, O God.

The kingdoms of this earth, and all the glory of the world I despised for the love of my Lord Jesus Christ, Whom I have seen, Whom I have loved, in Whom I have believed, Whom I have desired.

HYMN. Virginis proles opifexque matris.

CHILD of the Virgin, Maker of Thy Mother,
Virgin-engendered, of the Virgin Son,
Virgin is she of whom we sing another
Victory won.

[Double the palm of triumph which she beareth,
Strove she to vanquish woman's fear of death:
Quelled now the hand of death and hell appeareth
Her feet beneath.

Death won no conquest, nor the thousand terrors,
Kindred of death—fierce torments bravely borne:
Gave she her blood: that blood the radiance mirrors
Of life's new morn.]

When she pleads for us, at her sweet petition,
That we may sing with conscience pure of sin,
From debt of guilt O grant us Thy remission,
And peace within.

Glory to Thee, O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Glory co-equal on the Throne on high,
Equal in power, in unity of merit,
Eternally. Amen.

℣. Full of grace are thy lips.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever.

HYMN. Jesu, corona Virginum.

JESU, the Virgins' Crown, do Thou
Accept us, as in prayer we bow;
Born of that Virgin, whom alone
The mother and the maid we own.

Amongst the lilies Thou dost feed,
With virgin choirs accompanied;
With glory decked, the spotless brides
Whose bridal gifts Thy love provides.

They, wheresoe'er Thy footsteps bend,
With hymns and praises still attend;
In blessed troops they follow Thee,
With dance, and song, and melody.

We pray Thee therefore to bestow
Upon our senses here below,
Thy grace, that so we may endure
From taint of all corruption pure.

HYMN. Ad cœnam Agni providi.

TO share the Lamb's high marriage rites,
The Father matron-guests invites:
How blest is she who hears the call,
And seeks to keep the festival!

O'er all the Church her praise be told,
Whom Jesu's grace has made so bold,
To choose with Him the better part,
On Him alone to fix the heart.

The wound of love her spirit felt,
And on the earth no longer dwelt;
But strove to climb the rugged way,
That leads to joys that ne'er decay.

The flesh to tame, her daily care;
Her daily banquet, holy prayer;
Awaiting, in the realms above,
The Lamb's eternal feast of love.

Vouchsafe that we, O gracious God,
May follow in the steps she trod;

HYMN. Urbs beata Hierusalem.

BLESSED city, heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of peace and love,
Who, of living stones upbuilded,
Art the joy of heaven above,
And, with angel cohorts circled,
As a bride to earth dost move!

From celestial realms descending,
Ready for the nuptial bed,
To His presence, decked with jewels,
By her Lord shall she be led;
All her streets, and all her bulwarks,
Of pure gold are fashioned.

Bright with pearls her portal glitters!
It is open evermore;
And, by virtue of His merits,
Thither faithful souls may soar,
Who for Christ's dear Name, in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed for ever
That His palace should be decked.

SONG OF TOBIT.

Tobit xiii. Jerusalem civitas Dei.

O JERUSALEM, the holy city: He will scourge thee for thy children's works, and will have mercy again on the sons of the righteous.

2 Give praise to the Lord, for He is good; and praise the everlasting King, that His tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy: and let Him make joyful there in thee for ever those that are miserable.

3 Many nations shall come from far to the name of the Lord God with gifts in their hands, even gifts to the King of heaven: all generations shall praise Thee with great joy.

4 Cursed are all they which hate Thee: and blessed shall all be which love Thee for ever.

5 Rejoice and be glad for the children of the just: for they shall be gathered together, and shall bless the Lord of the just.

6 O blessed are they which love thee, for they shall rejoice in thy peace: blessed are they which have been sorrowful for all thy scourges: for they shall rejoice for thee, when they have seen all thy glory, and shall be glad for ever.

7 Let my soul bless God: the great King.

8 For Jerusalem shall be built up with sapphires, and emeralds, and precious stone: thy walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

9 And the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved: with beryl and carbuncle and stones of Ophir.

10 And all her streets shall say, Alleluia: and they shall praise Him, saying, Blessed be God, which hath extolled it for ever.

Ant. 5. Ye are God's building, I have laid the foundation: let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon, for the foundation is Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER. II Chron. vii.

NOW have I chosen and sanctified this house, that My Name may be there for ever: and Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there perpetually.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Angulare fundamentum.

CHRIST is made the sure Foundation,
And the precious Corner-stone,
Who, the two-fold walls surmounting,
Binds them closely into one:
Holy Sion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city,
Dearly loved by God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody;
God the One, and God the Trinal,
Singing everlastingly.

To this Temple, where we call Thee,
Come, O Lord of Hosts, to day!
With Thy wonted loving kindness
Hear Thy people as they pray;
And Thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls for aye.

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
That they supplicate to gain:
Here to have and hold for ever
Those good things their prayers obtain:
And hereafter in Thy glory
With Thy blessed ones to reign.

Laud and honour to the Father;
Laud and honour to the Son;
Laud and honour to the Spirit;
Ever Three, and ever One:
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

CHAPTER. II Chron. xx.

WE stand before this house, and in Thy presence, (for Thy name is in this house,) and cry unto Thee in our affliction, then Thou wilt hear and help.

℟. He shall be satisfied : with the pleasures of Thy house. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. Even of Thy holy temple. ℟. Alleluia, Alleluia. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. He shall be satisfied : with the pleasures of Thy house. Alleluia, Alleluia.

℣. O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts.

℟. My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord.

Second Vespers.

Ant. 1. One of the seven angels carried me away in the spirit : and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

Psalm cxxii. Lætatus sum, p. 52.

Ant. 2. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper : and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

Psalm cxxiv. Nisi quia Dominus, p. 53.

Ant. 3. I saw no temple therein :

for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

Psalm cxxxii. Memento, Domine, p. 56.

Ant. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

Psalm cxxxvii. Super flumina, p. 58.

Ant. 5. There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Psalm cxlvii. 12. Lauda Hierusalem, p. 64.

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. vi.

WHAT? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

HYMN. Urbs beata Hierusalem, ℣. and ℟., as at First Vespers, p. 236.

Ant. to Mag. Make straight paths for your feet: for ye are come unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. Wherefore receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved: serve God with reverence and godly fear.

On Sunday in the Octave, the Office of Sunday is said, with Memorial of the Octave at both Vespers and Lauds. But if the Dedication Feast falls on Sunday, the Office of Dedication is said, with Memorial of Sunday, at both Vespers and Lauds. On the Octave the Office is said as on the first day.

II. OCCASIONAL OFFICES.

Gradual Psalms.

[Here is set down, in case it be preferred:

The Roman Use.

The Gradual Psalms are said on every Wednesday in Lent before Matins in Choir, except on the concurrence of a Double Festival; out of Choir they are to be said as occasion serves.

The first five Psalms, Psalm cxx., Ad Dominum, Psalm cxxi., Levavi oculos, Psalm cxxii., Lætatus sum, Psalm cxxiii., Ad te levavi oculos meos, and Psalm cxxiv., Nisi quia Dominus, are said without Antiphon, and without Glory be, etc. At the end of the last is said:

℣. Eternal rest: grant unto them, O Lord. ℟. And light perpetual: shine on them.

Then is said kneeling:

Our Father:

Silently to the end. The reader repeats:

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. From the gates of hell. ℟. Deliver their souls, O Lord. ℣. May they rest in peace. ℟. Amen. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Collect.

HAVE mercy, O Lord, upon the souls of Thy servants, and of Thine handmaidens, and of all the faithful departed: and loose them from all bonds of sin; that they may obtain an inheritance among Thy Saints in the glory of the First Resurrection; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then follow Psalm cxxv., Qui confidunt, Psalm cxxvi., In convertendo, Psalm cxxvii., Nisi Dominus, Psalm cxxviii., Beati omnes, and Psalm cxxix., Sæpe expugnaverunt; each with Glory be, etc.

Then is said kneeling:

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Silently to the end. The reader repeats:

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. O think upon Thy congregation. ℟. Whom Thou hast purchased and redeemed of old. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Collect.

O GOD, Whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose us; for the honour of Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Then follow Psalm cxxx., De profundis, Psalm cxxxi., Domine non est, Psalm cxxxii., Memento Domine, Psalm cxxxiii., Ecce quam bonum, and Psalm cxxxiv., Ecce nunc; each with Glory be, etc.

Then is said kneeling:

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father:

Silently to the end. The reader repeats:

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. O Lord, save Thy servants. ℟. That put their trust in Thee. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

COLLECT.

STRETCH forth, O Lord, to Thy servants and to thine handmaidens, the arm of Thy heavenly help: that they may both seek Thee with their whole heart, and also may obtain of Thee such things as they ask; through Christ our Lord. Amen.]

SARUM USE.

Psalm cxx. Ad Dominum.

WHEN I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and He heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue: even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Wo is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech: and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them: that are enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battle.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxi. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh even from the Lord: Who hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and He that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, He that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord Himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

6 So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxii. Lætatus sum.

I WAS glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.

4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord: to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

5 For there is the seat of judgment: even the seat of the house of David.

6 O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Digitized by Google

7 Peace be within thy walls : and plenteousness within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes : I will wish thee prosperity.

9 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God : I will seek to do thee good.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxiii. Ad te levavi oculos meos.

UNTO Thee lift I up mine eyes : O Thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress : even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until He have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us : for we are utterly despised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy : and with the despitefulness of the proud.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxiv. Nisi quia Dominus.

IF the Lord Himself had not been on our side, now may Israel say : if the Lord Himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us;

2 They had swallowed us up quick : when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned us : and the stream had gone over our soul.

4 The deep waters of the proud : had gone even over our soul.

5 But praised be the Lord : Who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.

6 Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler : the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

7 Our help standeth in the name of the Lord : Who hath made heaven and earth.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxv. Qui confidunt.

THEY that put their trust in the Lord, shall be even as the mount Sion : which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.

2 The hills stand about Jerusalem : even so standeth the Lord round about His people, from this time forth for evermore.

3 For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous : lest the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.

4 Do well, O Lord : unto those that are good and true of heart.

5 As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness : the Lord shall lead them forth with the evil doers, but peace shall be upon Israel.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxvi. In convertendo.

WHEN the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion : then were we like unto them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter : and our tongue with joy.

3 Then said they among the heathen : The Lord hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already : whereof we rejoice.

5 Turn our captivity, O Lord : as the rivers in the south.

6 They that sow in tears : shall reap in joy.

7 He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed : shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxvii. Nisi Dominus.

EXCEPT the Lord build the house : their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lord keep the city : the watchman waketh but in vain.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness : for so He giveth His beloved sleep.

4 Lo, children and the fruit of the womb : are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.

5 Like as the arrows in the hand of a giant : even so are the young children.

6 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them : they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxviii. Beati omnes.

BLESSED are all they that fear the Lord : and walk in His ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labours of thine hands : O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine : upon the walls of thine house.

4 Thy children like the olive-branches : round about thy table.

5 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed : that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord from out of Sion shall so bless thee : that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children : and peace upon Israel.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxix. Sæpe expugnaverunt.

MANY a time have they fought against me from my youth up : may Israel now say.

2 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up : but they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back : and made long furrows.

4 But the righteous Lord : hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

5 Let them be confounded and turned backward : as many as have evil will at Sion.

6 Let them be even as the grass growing upon the house-tops : which withereth afore it be plucked up.

7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand : neither he that bindeth up the sheaves his bosom.

8 So that they who go by say not so much as, The Lord prosper you : we wish you good luck in the Name of the Lord.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxx. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with Thee : therefore shalt Thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord, my soul doth wait for Him : in His word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

8 And He shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxxi. Domine, non est.

LORD, I am not high-minded : I have no proud looks.

Digitized by Google

2 I do not exercise myself in great matters : which are too high for me.

3 But I refrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from his mother : yea, my soul is even as a weaned child.

4 O Israel, trust in the Lord : from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxxii. Memento, Domine.

LORD, remember David : and all his trouble.

2 How he sware unto the Lord : and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob;

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house : nor climb up into my bed;

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eye-lids to slumber : neither the temples of my head to take any rest,

5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord : an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata : and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into His tabernacle : and fall low on our knees before His footstool.

8 Arise, O Lord, into Thy resting place : Thou, and the ark of Thy strength.

9 Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness : and let Thy saints sing with joyfulness.

10 For Thy servant David's sake : turn not away the presence of Thine Anointed.

11 The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David : and He shall not shrink from it;

12 Of the fruit of thy body : shall I set upon thy seat.

13 If thy children will keep My covenant, and My testimonies that I shall learn them : their children also shall sit upon thy seat for evermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for Himself : He hath longed for her.

15 This shall be My rest for ever : here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

16 I will bless her victuals with increase : and will satisfy her poor with bread.

17 I will deck her priests with health : and her saints shall rejoice and sing.

18 There shall I make the horn of David to flourish : I have ordained a lantern for Mine anointed.

19 As for his enemies, I shall clothe them with shame : but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxxiii. Ecce, quam bonum.

BEHOLD, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity.

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard : even unto Aaron's beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon : which fell upon the hill of Sion.

4 For there the Lord promised His blessing : and life for evermore.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxxiv. Ecce nunc.

BEHOLD now, praise the Lord : all ye servants of the Lord;

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord : even in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary : and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heaven and earth : give thee blessing out of Sion.

Glory be, etc.

LITANY.

Which follows the Gradual Psalms according to the use of Sarum.

LORD, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
O Christ, hear us.
O Christ, graciously hear us.

O God the Father, of heaven,
O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,
O God the Holy Ghost,
O holy Trinity, One God,
Be merciful : spare us, good Lord.

Have mercy upon us.

From all evil,
From the snares of the devil,
From eternal damnation,
From the dangers threatening our sins,
From the assaults of evil spirits,
From the spirit of fornication,
From the desire of vain glory,
From all impurity of soul and body,
From anger and hatred and all ill-will,
From impure thoughts,
From blindness of heart,
From lightning and tempest,
From sudden and unprepared death,
By the mystery of Thy holy Incarnation,
By Thy Nativity,
By Thy holy Circumcision,
By Thy Baptism,
By Thy Fasting,
By Thy Cross and Passion,
By Thy precious Death,
By Thy glorious Resurrection,
By Thy wonderful Ascension,
By the grace of the Holy Ghost, the Comforter,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In the hour of death : help us, good Lord.
In the day of judgment : deliver us, good Lord.

We sinners : beseech Thee to hear us.
That Thou wouldest give us peace,
That Thy mercy and pity may keep us,
That Thou wouldest rule and defend Thy Church,
That Thou wouldest keep the Bishops and all Orders of the Church in holy religion,
That Thou wouldest give peace, true concord and victory to our kings and princes,
That Thou wouldest keep the congregations of all the faithful in Thy holy service,
That Thou wouldest keep all Christian people redeemed with Thy precious Blood,
That Thou wouldest reward all our benefactors with eternal blessings,
That Thou wouldest deliver our souls and the souls of our kinsfolk from eternal damnation,
That Thou wouldest give and preserve the fruits of the earth,
That Thou wouldest again cast the eyes of Thy mercy upon us,
That Thou wouldest make the obedience of our service reasonable,
That Thou wouldest raise our minds to heavenly desires,
That Thou wouldest look upon and lighten the miseries of the poor and of captives,
That Thou wouldest give eternal rest to all the faithful departed,
That Thou wouldest hear us,

We beseech Thee to hear us.

Son of God : we beseech Thee to hear us.
O Lamb of God, That takest away the sins of the world,
Hear us, good Lord.

Spare us, good Lord.

O Lamb of God, That takest away the sins of the world,

Have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Our Father.

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. Shew us Thy mercy, O Lord. ℟. And grant us Thy salvation. ℣. Let Thy loving mercy come also unto us, O Lord. ℟. Even Thy salvation, according unto Thy word. ℣. We have sinned with our fathers. ℟. We have done amiss, and dealt wickedly. ℣. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins. ℟. Neither reward us after our iniquities. ℣. Let us pray for all orders of the Church. ℟. Let Thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and Thy saints sing with joyfulness. ℣. For our brethren and sisters. ℟. My God, save Thy servants and handmaidens, which put their trust in Thee. ℣. For all Christian people. ℟. Save Thy people, O Lord, and give Thy blessing unto Thine inheritance; feed them, and set them up for ever. ℣. Peace be within Thy walls. ℟. And plenteousness within Thy palaces. ℣. May the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens rest in peace. ℟. Amen. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

COLLECTS.

O GOD, Whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose us.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who alone workest great marvels: send down upon our Bishops, and Curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of Thy grace: and that they may truly please Thee, pour upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing.

WE beseech Thee, Almighty God, that Thy servant, our Sovereign, N., who has received from Thy mercy the government of this realm, may also receive the increase of all virtues, and being adorned therewith, may both shun the depths of sin, and overcome his enemies; and, being filled with grace, may be found worthy to come to Thee, the Truth and the Life, and be acceptable in Thy sight.

O GOD, Who by the grace of the Holy Ghost hast poured the gifts of charity into the hearts of Thy faithful people: grant unto Thy servants and Thy handmaidens for whom we entreat Thy mercy, health both of soul and body; that they may love Thee with all their strength, and may work out with unreserved affection the things that are well-pleasing unto Thee.

O GOD, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, graciously to shew us Thine ineffable mercy, that Thou mayest both deliver us from all our sins, and set us free from the punishments which they deserve,

O GOD the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens remission of all their sins: that the pardon they have always desired, by pious supplications may be obtained.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, in Thy compassion to unloose the chains of our sins, and by the intercession of Mary, the blessed and glorious and ever Virgin Mother of God, and of all Saints, keep us Thy servants, and the whole Catholic Church, in all sanctity; and purge from their vices those joined to us by kindred or friendship, or in the confession of the faith, and adorn them with virtues; grant us peace and safety; drive away from our friends all enemies visible and invisible, and keep them from sickness; grant charity to our enemies, and to all Thy faithful, living and departed, life in the land of the living, and eternal rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

THE PENITENTIAL PSALMS.

According to the Sarum use, the seven Penitential Psalms are said daily in Lent, one at each Office with Psalm li., Miserere. But before a Festival in Lent, at Nones of the Vigil, the three last Psalms are said, namely, Psalm cii., Domine exaudi, Psalm cxxx., De profundis, and Psalm cxliii., Domine exaudi; that they may be completed before the First Vespers of the Festival.

They are appointed to be said consecutively, after Sexts on Ash-Wednesday, before the blessing of ashes, and the ejection of penitents; after Nones on Maundy Thursday, at the reconciliation of penitents; and on Rogation Monday after Nones.

[According to the Roman use, which some may prefer, the seven Psalms are not said daily, but only on Fridays in Lent, with Litany, after Lauds. (The Sarum Litany, p. 245, may thus be used.)

The earlier part of the Sarum Ash-Wednesday Office is here subjoined, in order to form a Penitential Office for use when occasion shall serve.]

Psalm vi. Domine, ne in furore.

O LORD, rebuke me not in Thine indignation: neither chasten me in Thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore troubled: but, Lord, how long wilt Thou punish me?

4 Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for Thy mercy's sake.

5 For in death no man remembereth Thee: and who will give Thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning; every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed: they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm xxxi. Beati, quorum.

BLESSED is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven: and whose sin is covered.

Digitized by Google

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin : and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue : my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4 For Thy hand is heavy upon me day and night : and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto Thee : and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sin unto the Lord : and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto Thee, in a time when Thou mayest be found : but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, Thou shalt preserve me from trouble : Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go : and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding : whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly : but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord : and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Glory be, etc.

[Against Gluttony.]

Ps. xxxviii. Domine, ne in furore.

PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in Thine anger : neither chasten me in Thy heavy displeasure.

2 For Thine arrows stick fast in me : and Thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of Thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, Thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that heareth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : Thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not Thou far from me.

22 Haste Thee to help me : O Lord God of my salvation.

Glory be, etc.

[Against Lust.]

Psalm li. Miserere mei Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

2 Wash me throughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6 But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew Thy praise.

16 For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt offerings and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.

Glory be, etc.

[Against Avarice.]

Psalm cii. Domine, exaudi.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord : and let my crying come unto Thee.

2 Hide not Thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline Thine ear unto me when I call; O hear me, and that right soon.

3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weeping;

10 And that because of Thine indignation and wrath : for Thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

12 But Thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and Thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that Thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? Thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear Thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth Thy majesty;

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when His glory shall appear;

17 When He turneth Him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For He hath looked down from His sanctuary : out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

20 That He might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity : and deliver the children appointed unto death;

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and His worship at Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together : and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my journey : and shortened my days.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age : as for Thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of Thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

27 And as a vesture shalt Thou change them, and they shall be changed : but Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail.

28 The children of Thy servants shall continue : and their seed shall stand fast in Thy sight.

Glory be, etc.

Psalm cxxx. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with Thee : therefore shalt Thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for Him : in His word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

Psalm cxliii. Domine, exaudi.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for Thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2 And enter not into judgment with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all Thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of Thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto Thee : my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not Thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear Thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in Thee is my trust : shew Thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto Thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God : let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for Thy Name's sake : and for Thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of Thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul; for I am Thy servant.

Glory be, etc.

Ant. Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; neither take Thou vengeance of our sins : spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father :

Silently to the end. The Priest repeats aloud :

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. O God, save Thy servants and handmaidens. ℟. Who put their trust in Thee. ℣. Send them help, O Lord, from the sanctuary. ℟. And strengthen them out of Sion. ℣. Help us, O God of our salvation. ℟. And for the glory of Thy Name deliver us; and be merciful unto our sins, for Thy Name's sake. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

COLLECTS.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those that confess their sins unto Thee; that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by Thy merciful pardon may be absolved.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, inspire Thy servants with saving grace, that their hearts may be melted by true contrition, and Thine anger turned away by due repentance.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, that these Thy penitent servants may be continually mindful of their purification; and that they may bring the same to good effect, let the grace of Thy presence ever prevent and follow them.

LET Thy compassion, O Lord, we beseech Thee, prevent these Thy servants, that all their iniquities may be blotted out by Thy ready forgiveness.

O LORD, hear our supplications, and shew forth Thy loving mercy to Thy servants; heal their wounds, and forgive their sins, that they, being separated from Thee by no iniquities, may ever hold fast unto Thee their Lord.

O LORD, Who in Thy mercy art not wearied by our sin, but dost accept our penitence; look, we beseech Thee, upon Thy servants who confess that they have grievously sinned against Thee; for to Thee it pertaineth to absolve offences, and pardon sinners, and Thou hast said that Thou wouldest not the death of a sinner, but his repentance. Grant therefore, O Lord, that these Thy servants may keep unto Thee the vigil of penitence here, and amending their ways, may hereafter give Thee thanks for eternal joys.

O GOD, Whose pardon all men need, remember Thy servants and handmaidens; and because through the deceitfulness and frailty of their mortal bodies they are despoiled of virtue, and have done amiss in many things, we beseech Thee, pardon them who confess, spare them who entreat; that they who by their deserts are accused, by Thy mercy may be saved; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Thou Who didst quickly cure of burning fever
Peter's wife's mother and the noble's son,
Of the centurion's servant the reliever,
Mightiest One;
Heal soul and body, give Thy perfect curing
Unto those causes whence diseases spring;
Let not the gnawing pangs we are enduring
Uselessly sting.
Vigour upon Thy drooping people sending,
Thy full salvation ever on them pour;
Grant, as of old, to feeble ones amending;
Help and restore.
Hearken, O God, in pity to our crying,
Aid all for whom to Thee we make complaint,
Be Thy refreshment felt by each one lying Weary and faint.
Banish each pang which makes the body perish,
Bid every throe of agony be still,
Let welcome health the tortured members cherish;
Strengthen from ill.

ORDER FOR THE COMMENDATION OF A SOUL BEFORE DEATH.

First is said a short Litany, as follows:

Lord, have mercy,
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Be merciful: spare him, good Lord.
Be merciful: help him, good Lord.
Be merciful: deliver him, good Lord.

From Thy wrath,
From an evil death,
From the power of the devil,
From the pains of hell,
By Thy Nativity,
By Thy Cross and Passion,
By Thy Death and Burial,
By Thy glorious Resurrection,
By Thy wonderful Ascension,
By the grace of the Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
In the Day of Judgment,

Good Lord, deliver him.

We sinners : beseech Thee to hear us.

That Thou wouldest spare him : we beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

While the soul is in its agony, is said :

(1)

DEPART, Christian soul, out of this world; in the Name of God the Father Almighty, Who created thee: in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Son of the Living God, Who suffered for thee; in the Name of the Holy Ghost, Who regenerated thee. Thus, when thou shalt have departed from the body, mayest thou have an entrance to Mount Sion, the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of Angels, and to the general assembly of the Church of the first-born which are written in heaven. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered; let the powers of darkness flee before Him; nor let them dare to assault a lamb, redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. Christ, Who suffered His agony for thee, preserve thee now in this agony of death. Christ, Who died on the Cross for thee, preserve thee from everlasting death. He, the good Shepherd, acknowledge His own lamb and set thee in the fold of His elect. He give thee to see thy Redeemer face to face, and, being present with Him, to behold with happy eyes the full manifestation of the truth for ever and ever. Amen.

(2)

O MERCIFUL God, O gracious God, O God Who according to the multitude of Thy mercies dost blot out the sins of the penitent, and by the grace of remission dost remove the guilt of past transgressions, mercifully look upon this Thy servant, N., and hear him, who with entire and hearty confession hath implored the pardon of all his sins. Renew in him, O most tender Father, whatsoever has been corrupted through earthly frailty, or injured by the fraud of the devil; and bring him, a member of the body of the Church, into the unity of the Redeemed. Have compassion on his groaning, O Lord, have compassion on his tears; and since he trusteth only in Thy mercy, admit him to the sacrament of Thy reconciliation; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

[Instead of Prayers (1) and (2), may be said the following :

I COMMEND thee, dearest brother, to Almighty God, and commit thee to Him, Whose creature thou art; that when thou shalt have paid the debt of mankind by death, thou mayest return to thy Maker, Who formed thee from the dust of the earth. When, therefore, thy soul shall depart from the body, may the resplendent host of Angels hasten to thee; may the judicial council of Apostles come to thee; may the triumphant army of white-robed Martyrs meet thee; may the white and ruddy band of Confessors encompass thee; may the choir of joyful Virgins receive thee; and may the love of the blessed rest in the bosom of the Patriarchs enfold thee. May Christ Jesus appear to thee with a mild and gracious countenance, and may He assign thee to be one of those who ever stand before Him. Mayest thou know nothing of the horror of darkness, of the flames of hell, of racking torments. May the most hateful adversary and his spirits give way before thee; may he tremble at thine approach with accompanying Angels, and flee away into the vast chaos of eternal night. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered, and let them also that hate Him flee before Him; as the smoke vanisheth, let them vanish, and as wax melteth before the fire, so let the sinners perish before God. And let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God. Let then the legions of hell be confounded and brought to shame, and let not the ministers of Satan dare to hinder thy way. May Christ, Who was crucified for thee, deliver thee from torment; may Christ, Who vouchsafed to die for thee, deliver thee from death; may Christ, the Son of the living God, place thee in the ever verdant pastures of His Paradise, and may He, the true Shepherd, number thee amongst His sheep. May He absolve thee from all thy sins, and may He assign thee a portion at His right hand among His elect. Mayest thou see thy Redeemer face to face, and standing before Him for ever, behold with happy eyes the open vision of the truth. And placed thus among the hosts of the blessed, mayest thou enjoy the sweetness of divine contemplation for ever and ever. Amen.]

Let us pray.

RECEIVE Thy servant, O Lord, into the place of salvation, hoped for from Thy mercy. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, from all the perils of hell, from the dangers of suffering, and from all tribulation. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Enoch and Elias from the common death of the world. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Noah from the flood. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Abraham from Ur of the Chaldees. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Job out of his sufferings. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Isaac from being sacrificed by the hand of his father Abraham. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Lot from Sodom and the flames of fire. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Moses from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Daniel from the lions' den. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver the three children from the fiery furnace, and from the hand of an unrighteous king. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Susanna from false witness. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver David from the hand of king Saul, and from the hand of Goliath. ℟. Amen.

Deliver his soul, O Lord, as Thou didst deliver Peter and Paul from prison. ℟. Amen.

And, as Thou didst deliver Thy most blessed Virgin and Martyr Thecla from three most horrible torments, so deign to deliver the soul of this Thy servant, and make him to enjoy with Thee the blessedness of heaven. ℟. Amen.

Let us pray.

TO Thee, O Lord, we commend the soul of Thy servant; and we pray Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, that Thou wouldest not delay to place him in the bosom of the Patriarchs, for whom Thou didst mercifully descend into this earth. Acknowledge, O Lord, Thy creature, not created by strange gods, but by Thee, the only true and living God; for there is none other God beside Thee, O Lord, and none that can do as Thou doest. Make the soul of Thy servant, O Lord, joyful in Thy presence, and remember not his former sins and excesses, which the violence or heat of evil desires excited; for although he hath sinned, yet he hath not denied the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, but hath believed, and had a zeal for God within him, and hath worshipped God Who made all things. ℟. Amen.

Let us pray.

REMEMBER not, O Lord, we pray Thee, the sins and ignorances of his youth, but according to Thy great mercy remember him in the brightness of Thy glory. May the heavens be opened unto him, may the Angels be gathered unto him; receive, O Lord, Thy servant into Thy kingdom. May holy Michael the Archangel receive him, who attained to be the prince of the heavenly warfare. May the holy Angels of God meet him on the way, and lead him into the city of the heavenly Jerusalem. May blessed Peter the Apostle receive him, to whom the keys of the heavenly kingdom were given by God. May holy Paul assist him, who was counted worthy to be a vessel of election. May holy John, the chosen Apostle of God, intercede for him, to whom heavenly secrets were revealed. May all the holy Apostles pray for him, to whom the power of binding and loosing was given by the Lord. May all the Saints of God intercede for him, who for the Name of Christ bore pain in this world; that he, delivered from the bands of the flesh, may be counted worthy to come to the glory of the heavenly kingdom, being presented by the same Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

If the soul continue in its agony, that which follows, or any part of it, may be said.

Ps. iii. Domine, quid multiplicati?

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me : many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul : There is no help for him in his God.

3 But Thou, O Lord, art my defender : Thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice : and He heard me out of His holy hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again : for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people : that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Up, Lord, and help me, O my God : for Thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord : and Thy blessing is upon Thy people.

Glory be, etc.

ONLY-BEGOTTEN and Beloved Son of the Living God, Who for the redemption of the world didst vouchsafe to be born in a manger, to be set at nought of the Jews, to be betrayed by Judas with a kiss, to be bound with fetters, to be led as a lamb to the slaughter, to be torn with scourges, to be defiled with spitting, to be crowned with thorns, to be fastened to the Cross, to be reckoned among the transgressors, to die in agony: we beseech Thee that by these Thy most holy sufferings, and by Thy Cross and Death, Thou wouldest vouchsafe to deliver Thy servant from the pains of hell, and to bring him into that place whither Thou didst bring the thief that was crucified with Thee; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the Four Evangelists.

JESUS taketh with Him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed and very heavy: and saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death, tarry ye here and watch with Me. And He went a little farther and fell on His face and prayed, saying, O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt. And there appeared an Angel unto Him from heaven, strengthening Him. He went away again the second time and prayed, saying, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto Thee, take away this cup from Me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what Thou wilt. And being in an agony, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was as it were great drops of blood, falling down to the ground.

Psalm lxx. Deus in adjutorium.

HASTE Thee, O God, to deliver me: make haste to help me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me evil.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame: that cry over me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seek Thee be joyful and glad in Thee: and let all such as delight in Thy salvation say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poor and in misery: haste Thee unto me, O God.

6 Thou art my helper, and my redeemer: O Lord, make no long tarrying.

Glory be, etc.

Let us pray.

LORD Jesus Christ, we humbly beseech Thy mercy, by that Thy sorrow of soul, even unto death, and by the agony which, when Thy Passion was at hand, Thou didst endure when Thy sweat was, as it were, great drops of blood falling down to the ground, deliver this Thy servant, now surrounded by the agony of death: guard him in this hour against all assaults of the devil: deliver him from the terrors of approaching death: and because he fears through the remembrance of his sin, bid him be of good courage, through the abundance of Thy mercy; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Psalm cxlii. Voce mea ad Dominum.

I CRIED unto the Lord with my voice: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaints before Him: and shewed Him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heaviness Thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also upon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto: and no man cared for my soul.

6 I cried unto Thee, O Lord, and said; Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the living.

7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very low.

8 O deliver me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto Thy Name: which thing if Thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

Glory be, etc.

℣. Look upon my adversity and misery. ℟. And forgive me all my sin. ℣. Thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth. ℟. Turn Thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me. ℣. Forsake me not, O Lord my God. ℟. Be not Thou far from me. ℣. O that I had wings like a dove. ℟. Then would I flee away and be at rest. ℣. Let me die the death of the righteous. ℟. And let my last end be like his.

Let us pray.

LORD Jesus Christ, Who by the mouth of Thy prophet didst say, I have loved thee with an everlasting love, therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee: we beseech Thee by the love wherewith Thou hast loved us, that Thou wouldest vouchsafe to offer and to shew forth to God the Father for the soul of this Thy servant, all the bitterness of the Passion which Thou didst endure upon the Cross, and deal with him at this hour, not as his sins have deserved, but as Thy Death hath merited; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

These Psalms and Prayers having been finished, (or before they are finished, if the moment of the soul's departure be at hand), let there be read over the dying person that which follows of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ:

AND one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on Him, saying, If Thou be Christ, save Thyself and us. But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? and we indeed justly: for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this Man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken me? After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to His mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said, It is finished. And when He had cried with a loud voice, He said, Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, He gave up the ghost.

Let us pray.

BE mindful, O most loving Jesu, of that hour, in which, hanging on the Cross Thou didst cry, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me? And again, Father, into Thy hands I commend My Spirit: and having said this, didst give up the ghost. By that Thy most precious Death, which was our life, we pray Thee not to forsake this Thy servant, who hath none other helper beside Thee; but vouchsafe to receive his spirit and to cause him to enter into Thy kingdom, where he may love Thee and the Father and the Holy Ghost, with perpetual love, and together with Thy Saints and elect, may tell of Thy loving-kindness for ever and ever. Amen.

Let us pray.

TO Thee, O Lord, we commend the soul of Thy servant, N., that dead unto the world, it may live unto Thee; and the sins which he has committed through the frailty of this earthly life, do Thou mercifully blot out by Thy pitying forgiveness; through Christ our Lord. Amen.]

Office of the Dead.

Here follows the Roman Rubric: for the Sarum Order, see General Rubrics.

[This is said, except in Easter tide, on the first day of every month, not hindered by a Double Feast, in which case it is said on the first day not so hindered. But in Advent and Lent, on every Monday not so hindered, except in Holy Week. In Choirs it is said after the Office of the day, i. e., Vespers after Vespers, and Matins after Lauds of the day, unless the use of the place be different: out of Choir it is said as occasion serves.]

Vespers

begin at once with the

Ant. I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

Psalm cxvi. Dilexi, quoniam.

I AM well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer;

2 That He hath inclined His ear unto me: therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

4 I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and He helped me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? Thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

At the end of every Psalm and Canticle is said:

Eternal rest: grant unto them, O Lord.

And light perpetual: shine upon them.

Ant. I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

Ant. Wo is me : that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech.

Psalm cxx. Ad Dominum.

WHEN I was in trouble I called upon the Lord : and He heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips : and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue : even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Wo is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech : and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them : that are enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof : they make them ready for battle.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Wo is me : that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech.

Ant. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil : yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

Psalm cxxi. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills : from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh even from the Lord : Who hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved : and He that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold, He that keepeth Israel : shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord Himself is thy keeper : the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

6 So that the sun shall not burn thee by day : neither the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil : yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in : from this time forth for evermore.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil : yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.

Ant. If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

Psalm cxxx. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with Thee : therefore shalt Thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for Him : in His word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

8 And He shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it?

Ant. Despise not then : the works of Thine own hands.

Psalm cxxxviii. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : even before the gods will I sing praise Thee.

2 I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy Name, because of Thy loving-kindness and truth : for Thou hast magnified Thy Name, and Thy word, above all things.

3 When I called upon Thee, Thou heardest me : and enduedst my soul with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise Thee, O Lord : for they have heard the words of Thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord : that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath He respect unto the lowly : as for the proud, He beholdeth them afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt Thou refresh me : Thou shalt stretch forth Thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and Thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shall make good His loving-kindness toward me : yea, Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of Thine own hands.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Despise not then : the works of Thine own hands.

℣. I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me.

℟. Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lord.

Ant. to Mag. All that the Father giveth Me, shall come unto Me : and him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out.

The Prayers following are said kneeling, and so likewise at Lauds :

Our Father, in silence. ℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil.

Psalm cxlvi., Lauda, anima mea, at Vespers, as also Psalm cxxx., De profundis, at the end of Lauds, is not said on All Souls' Day, nor on the day of a death or burial. At other times it is always said.

Psalm cxlvi. Lauda, anima mea.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man : for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth he shall turn again to his earth : and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help : and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is : Who keepeth His promise for ever;

6 Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong : Who feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison : the Lord giveth sight to the blind.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen : the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers; He defendeth the fatherless and widow : as for the way of the ungodly, He turneth it upside down.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for evermore : and throughout all generations.

Eternal rest, etc.

℣. From the gates of hell. ℟. Deliver their souls, O Lord. ℣. May they rest in peace. ℟. Amen. ℣. Hear my prayer, O Lord. ℟. And let my crying come unto Thee. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

[When the corpse is present, both at Vespers and Lauds, is said the greater Collect.

O GOD, Whose property is ever to have mercy and to spare: we suppliants intreat Thee for the soul of Thy servant [or handmaiden] N., which today Thou hast called to depart from this world: that Thou wouldest not deliver it into the hands of the enemy, nor forget it finally, but command it to be received by the holy Angels, and led into the land of the living; and whereas it hath hoped and believed in Thee, may it be found worthy to rejoice in the society of Thy Saints; through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord.]

COLLECTS.

GOD, Who among apostolic Priests hast raised up Thy servants to the dignity of the Episcopate [or Priesthood], mercifully grant them a share in their blessed companionship for ever.

GOD, Who art the Giver of pardon, and the Lover of human salvation; we pray Thy mercy, that, Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, and all Thy Saints interceding, Thou wouldest grant to all the brethren, neighbours, and benefactors of our congregation, to attain the fellowship of everlasting blessedness.

GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens remission of all their sins: that the pardon they have always desired, by pious supplications, may be obtained; Who livest and reignest to ages of ages. ℟. Amen.

But on All Souls' Day, when this last Prayer is said alone, it is ended thus:

Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, throughout all ages.

On the Day of a Burial.

COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, deliver the soul of Thy servant [or handmaid,] N., that, dead to the world, it may live unto Thee: and that which he hath committed by frailty of the flesh in his human conversation, wipe away by the grace of Thy most merciful loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

On the Anniversary of that Day.

COLLECT.

GOD, Who art the Lord of mercies, grant to the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens, the anniversary of whose burial we commemorate, a place of refreshment, the quiet of beatitude, and the glory of light; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

If the Anniversary of one only, it is said in the singular number.

For a Man Departed.

COLLECT.

INCLINE Thine ear, O Lord, to our prayers who humbly entreat Thy mercy: that Thou wouldest grant to Thy servant N., whom Thou hast called from this world, a place in the land of peace and light, and wouldest call him to the companionship of Thy Saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

For a Woman Departed.

COLLECT.

WE beseech Thee, O Lord, of Thy pity, have mercy on the soul of Thy handmaid, N., and as Thou hast freed her from the contagion of mortality, so be Thou pleased to give her a portion and an inheritance among Thine elect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The bones which Thou hast humbled : shall rejoice.

Psalm li. Miserere mei Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

2 Wash me throughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight: that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6 But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew Thy praise.

16 For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings, and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. The bones which Thou hast humbled : shall rejoice.

Ant. Hear, Lord, my prayer : unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Psalm lxv. Te decet hymnus.

THOU, O God, art praised in Sion : and unto Thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

2 Thou that hearest the prayer : unto Thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeeds prevail against me : O be Thou merciful unto our sins.

4 Blessed is the man whom Thou choosest, and receivest unto Thee : he shall dwell in Thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple.

5 Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in Thy righteousness, O God of our salvation : Thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

6 Who in His strength setteth fast the mountains : and is girded about with power.

7 Who stilleth the raging of the sea : and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at Thy tokens : Thou that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise Thee.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it : Thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water : Thou preparest their corn, for so Thou providest for the earth.

11 Thou waterest her furrows, Thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof : Thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

12 Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness : and Thy clouds drop fatness.

13 They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness : and the little hills shall rejoice on every side.

14 The folds shall be full of sheep : the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Hear, Lord, my prayer : unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Ant. Thy right hand : hath upholden me, O Lord.

Psalm lxiii. Deus, Deus meus.

O GOD, Thou art my God : early will I seek Thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for Thee, my flesh also longeth after Thee : in a barren and dry land where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for Thee in holiness : that I might behold Thy power and glory.

4 For Thy loving kindness is better than the life itself : my lips shall praise Thee.

5 As long as I live will I magnify Thee on this manner : and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied even as it were with marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth Thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered Thee in my bed : and thought upon Thee when I was waking?

8 Because Thou hast been my helper : therefore under the shadow of Thy wings will I rejoice.

9 My soul hangeth upon Thee : Thy right hand hath upholden me.

10 These also that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword : that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shall rejoice in God; all they also, that swear by Him shall be commended : for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Here is not said Eternal rest.

Psalm lxvii. Deus misereatur.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : and shew us the light of His countenance, and be merciful unto us;

2 That Thy way may be known upon earth : Thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise Thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise Thee.

4 O let the nations rejoice and be glad : for Thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praise Thee, O God : let all the people praise Thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : and God, even our own God, shall give us His blessing.

7 God shall bless us : and all the ends of the world shall fear Him.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Thy right hand : hath upholden me, O Lord.

Ant. From the gates of hell : deliver my soul, O Lord.

Song of Hezekiah.

Ego dixi. Isaiah xxxviii.

I SAID, in the cutting off of my days : I shall go to the gates of the grave.

2 I am deprived of the residue of my years : I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord, in the land of living.

3 I shall behold man no more : with the inhabitants of the world.

4 Mine age is departed : and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent.

5 I have cut off like a weaver my life : He will cut me off with pining sickness.

6 From day even to night wilt Thou make an end of me : I reckoned till morning that, as a lion, so will He break all my bones.

7 From day even to night wilt Thou make an end of me : like a crane or a swallow so did I chatter; I did mourn as a dove.

8 My eyes fail : with looking upward.

9 O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me : what shall I say? He hath both spoken unto me, and Himself hath done it.

10 I shall go softly all my years : in the bitterness of my soul.

11 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit : so wilt Thou recover me, and make me to live : behold, for peace I had great bitterness.

12 But Thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption : for Thou hast cast all my sins behind Thy back.

13 For the grave cannot praise Thee, death cannot celebrate Thee : they that go down into the pit cannot hope for Thy truth.

14 The living, the living, he shall praise Thee, as I do this day : the father to the children shall make known Thy truth.

15 The Lord was ready to save me : therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Let every spirit : praise the Lord.

Psalm cxlviii. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord of heaven : praise Him in the height.

2 Praise Him, all ye angels of His : praise Him, all His host.

3 Praise Him, sun and moon : praise Him, all ye stars and light.

4 Praise Him, all ye heavens : and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord : for He spake the word, and they were made ; He commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for ever and ever : He hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

7 Praise the Lord upon earth : ye dragons, and all deeps ;

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours : wind and storm, fulfilling His word ;

9 Mountains and all hills : fruitful trees and all cedars ;

10 Beasts and all cattle : worms and feathered fowls ;

11 Kings of the earth and all people : princes and all judges of the world.

12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord : for His Name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth.

13 He shall exalt the horn of His people ; all His saints shall praise Him : even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth Him.

Here is not said Eternal rest.

Psalm cxlix. Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the Lord a new song : let the congregation of saints praise Him.

2 Let Israel rejoice in Him that made him : and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise His Name in the dance : let them sing praises unto Him with tabret and harp.

4 For the Lord hath pleasure in His people : and helpeth the meek-hearted.

5 Let the saints be joyful with glory : let them rejoice in their beds.

6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth : and a two-edged sword in their hands :

7 To be avenged of the heathen : and to rebuke the people :

8 To bind their kings in chains : and their nobles with links of iron.

9 That they may be avenged of them, as it is written : Such honour have all His saints.

Here is not said Eternal rest.

Psalm cl. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE God in His holiness : praise Him in the firmament of His power.

2 Praise Him in His noble acts : praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

3 Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet : praise Him upon the lute and harp.

4 Praise Him in the cymbals and dances : praise Him upon the strings and pipe.

5 Praise Him upon the well-tuned cymbals : praise Him upon the loud cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath : praise the Lord.

Eternal rest, etc.

Ant. Let every spirit : praise the Lord.

COLLECTS.

O GOD, Who leddest the children of Israel on dry land through the midst of the sea, and by the leading of a star didst shew the three Magi the way to come to Thee; grant us, we beseech Thee, a prosperous journey and a tranquil time, that, Thy holy Angel accompanying us, we may safely reach the place whither we go, and finally attain the haven of everlasting salvation.

O GOD, Who didst bring Abraham Thy servant from Ur of the Chaldees, and didst keep him in safety through all the ways of his pilgrimage; we beseech Thee that Thou wouldest protect us Thy servants. Be to us, O Lord, in setting forth, a support, in the way a consolation, in heat a shadow, in rain and cold a covering, in weariness a chariot, in adversity a support, in slippery places a staff, in shipwreck a port; that, Thou being our Leader, we may prosperously reach the place whither we go, and at length return in safety to our home.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that Thy family may walk in the way of salvation, and, following the counsels of blessed John the forerunner, may safely come to Him Whom he foretold, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

HYMN. Lætabundus.

FULL of gladness,
Let our faithful Choir be singing
Alleluia.
Monarch's Monarch
From unspotted Maiden springing :
Alleluia.

Him the Holy Virgin bore,
Wonderful and Counsellor,
Sun from star had spring :
Sun, that never knoweth night :
Star, for ever shining bright,
Ever glittering.

As a star a ray most fair,
Thus the Virgin also bare,
Like in form, the Child ;
Nor the star by that its ray,
Nor the Virgin any way
By the Birth defiled.

Now conforms the cedar tall
To the hyssop of the wall
In our vale of tears :
He, God's Word and Essence, came
To assume our mortal frame,
And with man appears.

Though Isaiah had foreshewn,
Though the Synagogue had known,
Yet the truth she will not own,
Still remaining blind :
If she do her prophets wrong,
If she will not hear their throng,
Still she may, in Gentile song,
Seek the deed, and find.

Turn, Judæa, and repent,
Credit thine Old Testament :
Why upon destruction bent,
Miserable race ?
Whom its oracles foretold,
Born to save the world, behold ;
Him a Virgin's arms enfold,
Full of truth and grace. Amen.

Festival of S. Joseph, Confessor.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Psalms. Jacob begat Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus: that was called Christ.

Psalms of the Feria.

Chapter. Prov. ii.

HE keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of His saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

℟. The beloved of the Lord shall dwell in safety by Him: and the Lord shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between His shoulders. ℣. A faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household. ℟. And the Lord shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between His shoulders. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. The beloved of the Lord shall dwell in safety by Him: and the Lord shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between His shoulders.

Hymn. Te Joseph celebrent agmina cœlitum.

JOSEPH, pure spouse of that immortal Bride,
Who shines in ever-virgin glory bright,
Through all the Christian climes thy praise be sung;
Through all the realms of light.

Thine arms embraced thy Maker newly born;
With Him to Egypt's desert didst thou flee;
Him in Jerusalem did seek and find;
O grief, O joy for thee.

Grant us, great Trinity, with this Thy Saint,
Unto the starry mansions to attain;
There, with glad tongues, Thy praise to celebrate
In one eternal strain.

℣. Exceeding glad shall he be.
℟. Of Thy salvation, O Lord.
Ant. to Mag. Take this Child: and nurse It for Me.

Collect.

O LORD, Who didst appoint blessed Joseph to be the foster-father of Thine only-begotten Son, and the guardian of His Virgin Mother: keep us, we beseech Thee, under Thy perpetual care; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Festival of the Nativity of S. John Baptist.

First Vespers.

Psalms of the Feria.

Ant. The Angel of the Lord came down to Zacharias, saying: Receive a son in thine old age; and thou shalt call his name John Baptist.

Chapter. Jer. i.

BEFORE I formed thee in the belly I knew thee: and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

℟. Among those that are born of women: there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist. ℣. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord. ℟. There is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Among those that are born of women: there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist.

Hymn. Ut queant laxis.

OH that once more, to sinful men descending,
Thou from polluted lips their chains wert rending,
So, holy John, might worthy hymns ascending,
Tell of Thy wonders.

Lo! from the hill of heaven's eternal glory,
Comes a bright herald to thy father hoary,
Gives thee thy name, thy birth and wondrous story
Truly foretelling.

But, while the heav'nly word he disbelieveth,
Lo! all his power of ready utt'rance leaveth,
Till by thy birth his tongue again receiveth
Power of speaking.

Thou, while thy mother's womb was thee containing,
Knewest thy King, in secret still remaining,
Thus was each parent through her child obtaining
Knowledge of mysteries.

Father and Son, to Thee be adoration,
Spirit of Both, to Thee like veneration,
Praise to the One true God of our salvation,
Ever and ever. Amen.

℣. There was a man sent from God.
℟. Whose name was John.

Ant. to Mag. When Zacharias went into the temple of the Lord: there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, by Whose providence Thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of Thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of repentance; make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHAPTER. Is. xlix.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people from far: the Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath He made mention of my name.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. O nimis felix.

O SAINT thrice happy, merit high attaining,
Whose snowy pureness no foul spot is staining,
Mightiest Martyr, home in deserts gaining,
Greatest of Prophets.

He who bare thirty-fold bright garlands weareth,
He who bare sixty double glory shareth,
His triple chaplet who an hundred beareth,
Holy one, decks thee.

Come then, thou mighty Saint, of worth past telling,
All stony hardness from each breast expelling,
And in each rugged, crooked pathway quelling,
Roughness and windings.

So this world's gracious Author and Salvation,
In each pure spirit, free from degradation,
Shall, when He cometh, find a fitting station,
For His dear footsteps.

Now let celestial choirs, glad anthems pouring,
God, One and Trinal, praise Thee, while adoring,
We too, all prostrate, pardon are imploring:
Spare Thy redeemed ones. Amen.

FESTIVAL OF S. MARY MAGDALENE.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Psalms. Behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner: when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment.

Psalms of the Feria.

CHAPTER. Prov. xxxi.

WHO can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

℟. Verily, great was the love of Mary Magdalene: who outstayed the disciples at the tomb of the Lord. ℣. Glowing with the fervour of love, and believing Him to be taken away, whom she had seen laid in the sepulchre. ℟. Who outstayed the disciples at the tomb of the Lord. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Verily, great was the love of Mary Magdalene: who outstayed the disciples at the tomb of the Lord.

HYMN. Collaudemus Magdalene.

SING we now of Mary's trial;
Joy and sorrow let us tell,
Both uniting in one rapture,
Heavenward in one note to swell,
When the dove's glad note was mingled
With the dirge of Philomel.

Nought the number of the feasters,
Seeking Jesus, did she fear;
She her Master's feet anointed,
Washed them with the falling tear;
With her flowing hair she wiped them,
Made them ready for the bier.

Lo! the cleansed doth wash the Cleanser;
On the Fount doth fall the rain;
Lo! the flower the raindrop sheddeth,
Which returns to wash her stain;
Heaven to earth in dew descendeth,
Earth gives back her dew again.

Spikenard in the alabaster,
Offers she as tribute there;
In the pouring of the unguent,
She a mystic sign doth bear:
Sick, anointeth her Physician,
Her own healing to prepare.

Gazed the Lord in deep compassion
Down on Mary bending low:
Much she loves: her sins are many;
They are all forgiven now.
On the Resurrection morning,
Mary first her Lord shall know.

Glory to the Paschal Victim,
To our God all praise and might:
For the Lamb by death hath conquered,
Lion, Victor in the fight;
Rose He on the morn of triumph,
With the spoils of death bedight. Amen.

℣. Mary hath chosen that good part.
℟. Which shall not be taken away from her.

Ant. to Mag. And she stood at His feet behind Him weeping: and began to wash His feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Alleluia.

HYMN. Æstimavit Hortolanum.

AS the gardener Him addressing,
Well and rightly she believ'd:
He, the Sower, gave His blessing
To the seed her heart receiv'd:
Not at first His form confessing,
Soon His voice her soul perceiv'd.

Digitized by Google

She beheld, as yet not knowing,
In the mystical disguise,
Christ, that in her breast was sowing
Deep and heavenly mysteries:
Till His voice, her name bestowing,
Bade her hear and recognise.

She to Jesus, Jesus weepeth,
Of her Lord remov'd complains;
Jesus in her breast she keepeth;
Jesus seeks, yet still retains:
He that soweth, He that reapeth
All her heart, unknown remains.

Why, kind Jesu, why thus hiding,
When Thyself Thou would'st reveal?
Why, in Mary's breast abiding,
From her love Thyself conceal?
Why, true Light in her residing,
Can she not its radiance feel?

Oh! how strangely Thou eludest
Souls that on Thee have believ'd;
But eluding, ne'er deludest,
Nor deceiv'st, nor art deceiv'd;
But including, still excludest;
Fully known, yet not perceiv'd.

Laud to Thee, and praise for ever,
Life, hope, light of ev'ry soul!
Through Thy merits may we never
Be inscrib'd in death's dark roll,
But with Mary's true endeavour
All our sins, like her, condole! Amen.

℣. Her sins, which are many, are forgiven.

HYMN. O Maria, noli flere.

WEEP not, Mary, weep no longer,
Nor another seek to find;
Here indeed the Gardener standeth,
Gardener of the thirsty mind:
In the spirit's inner garden
Seek that Gardener ever kind.

Whence thy grief and lamentation?
Lift, faint soul, thy heart on high,
Seek not memory's consolation:
Jesus, Whom thou lov'st is nigh;
Dost thou seek thy Lord? thou hast Him,
Though unseen by human eye.

Whence thy sorrow, whence thy weeping?
True the joy thou hast within;
Lives within thee what thou know'st not,
Balm to heal the wounds of sin:
'Tis within, why wander vainly,
Seeking languor's medicine?

Now I wonder not, thy Master
If thou know'st not while He sows;
For His seed, the word eternal,
Unto fulness in thee grows;
"Mary," saith He,—thou, "Rabboni,"—
And the soul her Saviour knows.

Glory be to God the Giver,
That His grace is given free,
To the humble sigh of Mary
Summoned by the Pharisee;
Grace's foretaste to the sinner,
Then life's full feast giveth He. Amen.

HYMN. Cælestis formam gloriæ.

A TYPE of those bright rays on high
For which the Church hopes longingly,
Christ on the holy mountain shews,
Where brighter than the sun He glows:

Tale for all ages to declare:
For with the three disciples there,
Where Moses and Elias meet,
The Lord holds converse, high and sweet.

The chosen witnesses stand nigh,
Of grace, the law, and prophecy;
And from the cloud the Holy One
Bears record to the only Son.

With face more bright than noontide ray,
Christ deigns to manifest to-day
What glory shall be theirs above,
Who joy in God with perfect love.

And faithful hearts are raised on high
By this great vision's mystery;
For which, in yearly course, we raise
The voice of prayer, and hymn of praise.

Thou, Father, Thou, Eternal Son,
Thou, Holy Spirit, Three in One,
To this same glory bring us nigh,
That we may see Thee eye to eye. Amen.

Psalm cxxxviii. Confitebor tibi, p. 59.

CHAPTER. Phil. ii.

HE humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a Name which is above every name: that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

℟. O praise the Lord with me, and let us magnify His Name together : for our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have hoped in His holy Name. ℣. Tell of all His marvellous works, sing praise to His holy Name. ℟. For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have hoped in His holy Name. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have hoped in His holy Name.

HYMN. Exultet cor precordiis.

O LET the heart exulting beat,
When Jesus' holy Name resounds;
Above all other it is sweet,
And in all gladness it abounds.

Jesus, Who comforteth in woe,
Jesus, Who heals the wounds of sin,
Jesus, Who curbs the fiends below,
Jesus, Who routs Death's arms within.

Jesus! it soundeth sweetest, best,
In every measure, hymn, and song;
And with its comfort soothes the breast,
And lifts us up, and makes us strong.

Let that great Name of Him the Lord,
Jesus, from tongues of all men peal;
And let the voice and heart accord,
That every ill its sound may heal.

Jesu, Who savest sinners lost,
Be present as we kneel in prayer;
Guide Thou the erring, tempest-tost,
And us, Thy guilty servants, spare.

O let Thy Name be our defence,
In every peril guard and stay,
And purging us from sin's offence,
Perfect us in the better way.

O Christ, all glory be to Thee,
Who shinest with this Name above,
Honour, and worship, majesty,
Be Thine, O Jesu, Lord of love.

O Jesu, from the Virgin sprung,
All glory be ascribed to Thee,
Like praise be to the Father sung,
And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

℣. All the world shall worship Thee, and sing of Thee.

℟. And praise Thy Name.

Ant. to Mag. But I will rejoice in the Lord, and I will exult in Jesus my God: for He that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is His Name. [Alleluia.]

COLLECT.

GOD, Which hast made the glorious Name of Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord most dear to Thy faithful people, and most terrible to evil spirits; grant, we beseech Thee, that all we, who worship this Name on earth, may receive in this life the sweetness of Thy holy consolations, and in the world to come, the joy of exultation, and of eternal blessedness in heaven; through the same Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

MEMORIAL OF THE TRANSFIGURATION.

CHAPTER. 1 Cor. i.

TO all that in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

℟. Thanks be to God.

HYMN. Jesu auctor clementiæ.

JESU, Thou source of pity blest,
Thou hope and gladness of the breast,
O stream of beauty, source of grace,
Delight of every heart and place!

Jesu, the beauty Angels see,
The ears' ecstatic minstrelsy,
The nectar of the Heavenly Home,
The lip's delicious honey comb!

Flower of Virgin Mother blest,
Jesu, true sweetness, purest, best,
Of man the honour and the head,
Thy light of lights upon us shed.

More glorious than the sun to see,
More fragrant than the balsam-tree,
My heart's desire, and boast, and mirth,
Jesu, Salvation of the earth.

Jesu, Who highest bounty art,
And wondrous joyance of the heart,
Of goodness the infinity,
Constrain us with Thy charity.

O King of Virtues, King renowned,
With glory and with victory crowned,
Jesu, by Whom all grace is given,
Thou honour of the courts of heaven!

Let choirs of Angels sing Thy Name,
And echo all Thy matchless fame,
Jesus on joyful earth hath smiled,
And us with God hath reconciled.

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Blessed be the Name of the Lord Jesus.

℟. From this time forth for evermore.

FESTIVAL OF S. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

First Vespers.

Ant. to Psalms. The heavenly host adore the Son of the great King: Cherubim and Seraphim proclaim Him holy.

Psalms of the Feria.

CHAPTER. Rev. i.

GOD signified things which must shortly come to pass; by His Angel unto His servant John: who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

℟. Thee, Holy Lord, all Angels praise in the highest, saying: To Thee be praise and honour, O Lord. ℣. Cherubim also and Seraphim proclaim Thee holy, with all the orders of heaven, saying: ℟. To thee be praise and honour, O Lord. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Thee, Holy Lord, all Angels praise in the highest, saying: To Thee be praise and honour, O Lord.

HYMN. Tibi Christe Splendor Patris.

THEE, O Christ, the Father's Splendour,
Life and virtue of the heart,
In the presence of the Angels
Sing we now with tuneful art:
Meetly in alternate chorus
Bearing our responsive part.

Thus we praise with veneration
All the armies of the sky;
Chiefly him, the warrior Primate
Of celestial chivalry:
Michael, who in princely virtue
Cast Abaddon from on high.

By whose watchful care, repelling,
King of Everlasting grace!
Every ghostly adversary,
All things evil, all things base;
Grant us of Thine only goodness
In Thy paradise a place.

Laud and honour to the Father;
Laud and honour to the Son;
Laud and honour to the Spirit;
Ever Three and ever One:
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

℣. In the presence of the Angels I will sing praise unto Thee.

℟. I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy Name.

Ant. to Mag. When He bringeth in the First-begotten into the world, He saith: And let all the Angels of God worship Him.

COLLECT.

O EVERLASTING God, Who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; mercifully grant, that as Thy holy Angels alway do Thee service in heaven, so by Thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN. Christe sanctorum decus Angelorum.

CHRIST, of the holy Angels light and gladness,
Maker and Saviour of the human race,
O may we reach the world unknown to sadness,
And see Thy face.

Angel of peace, may Michael to our dwelling
Down from high heaven in mighty calmness come,
Breathing all peace, and hideous war dispelling
To hell's dark gloom.

Angel of might, may Gabriel swift descending
Far from our gates our ancient foes repel,
And, as of old o'er Zacharias bending,
In temples dwell.

Angel of health, may Raphael lighten o'er us,
To every sick bed speed his healing flight,
In deeds of doubt direct the way before us,
Guide us aright.

Mary, the harbinger of peace supernal,
Mother of God, with all the Angel train,
All Saints be with us, till the bliss eternal
In Christ we gain.

Be this by Thy thrice holy Godhead granted,
Father and Son, and Spirit ever blest;
Whose glory by the Angel host is chanted,
By all confest. Amen.

HYMN. Eterne Rector siderum.

ETERNAL Ruler of the sky,
Whose might hath made and governs all;
Beneath Thy care and loving eye,
All things Thou hast created fall.

Hear Thou the cry of sinful man,
As spread the gloomy shades of night;
Our souls enlighten Thou anew
Who gav'st the word, "Let there be light."

Send Thou the Angel Thou didst set
To be our guardian and our friend;
May He from taint of sin and death
Our soul and all its powers defend.

The wily serpent's envious craft
May his angelic might destroy,
Lest Satan's net and snares unseen,
Our heedless souls with guile annoy.

Far from our land may he repel
Alarm of war and bloody fray,
Give tranquil peace to Christian homes,
Drive plague and pestilence away.

Glory to God the Father be
Whose mercy sends the Angel-host,
To guard the souls by Christ set free,
And hallowed by the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Ant. 2. O how glorious is the kingdom where all the Saints rejoice with Christ : they are clothed in white robes, and follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.

Psalm cxvii. Laudate Dominum, p. 50.

Ant. 3. The righteous shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble : they shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people.

Psalm cxlvi. Lauda anima mea, p. 63.

Ant. 4. A holy and very and marvellous light, shedding brightness on those who endured in the strife of the battle, they shall receive from Christ : everlasting splendour wherein they shall be glad and rejoice.

Psalm cxlvii. Laudate Dominum, quoniam, p. 64.

Ant. 5. All the elect of God remember us before God : that we may be united to them by the help of their prayers.

Psalm cxlvii. 12. Lauda Hierusalem, p. 64.

Chapter. Rev. vii.

AND I saw another Angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four Angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

℟. Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great : for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth : let us be glad and rejoice, and give glory to Him. ℣. Chosen generation, royal priesthood, peculiar people, shew forth the praises of God. ℟. For the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. ℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. ℟. Let us be glad, and rejoice, and give glory to Him.

Hymn. Jesu salvator seculi.

O JESU, Saviour of the earth,
Help Thy redeemed ones in their need,
And let the Maid who gave Thee birth
For hapless sinners ever plead.

Let Angel armies kneel to Thee,
And Patriarchs in shining train,
And Seers in goodly company,
That we may full remission gain.

The Baptist, herald of Thy face,
The bearer of the mystic keys,
With all Apostles, ask Thy grace
To grant us prisoners release.

The Martyr-choir in heavenly seat,
The Priests who made confession bold,
The stainless Virgin ranks, intreat
That we be loosed from evil's hold.

The prayers of all Thy ministry,
Of all the dwellers in the skies,
Join with the vows we make to Thee,
To win us life's eternal prize.

All laud to God the Father be,
All laud, eternal Son, to Thee,
All praise for ever, as is meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

℣. Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord.

℟. And be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Ant. to Mag. Blessed are ye, O Saints of God : who have been counted worthy to become coheirs with heavenly powers, and enjoy the brightness of glory.

Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who hast knit together Thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord; grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn. Christe redemptor omnium.

O CHRIST, Redeemer of mankind,
Thy servants here protect and spare,
Who hearest, with a loving mind,
The blessèd Virgin's holy prayer.

May those glad hosts which see Thy face,
The spirits of the heavenly home,
Away from us all evils chase,
Both past, and present, and to come.

The Prophets of the Judge most high,
The twelve Apostles of the Lord,
For us, with interceding cry,
Pray that Thou keep us in Thy ward.

God's Martyrs, who have won renown,
His Confessors, in bright array,
Ask that we too may win the crown
Which shines in everlasting day.

The choir of Virgins lily-white,
Thy Priests and all Thy ministry,
With every Saint in prayer unite,
Till we be joined, O Christ, to Thee.

Then purge away all unbelief
From every land where Christians dwell,
That unto Thee, our Victor Chief,
Our thanks and praises we may tell.

All laud to God the Father be,
All laud, Eternal Son, to Thee,
All praise for ever, as is meet,

℟. The righteous live for evermore : reward also is with the Lord : and the care of them is with the most High. ℣. Therefore shall they receive a glorious kingdom, and a beautiful crown from the Lord's hand. ℣. Their reward also is with the Lord. ℣. Glory, praise, honour, majesty, might, and jubilation be to the Father, and to the Begotten One, and to the Holy Spirit. ℟. The care of them is with the most High.

HYMN. Christe redemptor omnium, ℣. and ℟., as at Lauds.

Ant. to Mag. O Saviour of the world, save us all, and let Thy holy Virgin-mother pray for us, with the holy Apostles, Martyrs, Confessors, and Virgins : that we may be delivered from all evil, and be counted worthy now and ever to be filled with good things.

These Vespers of All Saints being ended, forthwith are begun Festival Vespers of the Dead, p. 260.

Compline.

As on the previous day.

COMMEMORATION OF ALL SOULS.

Lauds.

All as p. 264. [But according to the Sarum use, Eternal rest, etc., is not said at the end of each Psalm, but only once at the close of all.]

At Prime, and the other Hours, is not to be said, O God, make speed to save us, nor any Hymn, but the Antiphon is begun immediately after the usual introductory Prayers which are always said in silence.

Prime.

Ant. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord : and light perpetual shine upon them.

Psalm liv. Deus in nomine.
Psalm cxix. Beati immaculati, and Retribue servo tuo.

The Psalms end without Gloria, and the Antiphon is repeated. Then follows :

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
Our Father.

℣. And lead us not into temptation. ℟. But deliver us from evil. ℣. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. ℟. And light perpetual shine upon them. ℣. From the gates of hell. ℟. Deliver their souls, O Lord. ℣. I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord. ℟. In the land of the living. ℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

COLLECT.

GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens remission of all their sins; that the pardon they have always desired, by pious supplications may be obtained; Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, throughout all ages. Amen.

After the Collect is not said, The Lord be with you.

℣. May they rest in peace.
℟. Amen.

Thus are said Prime, Tierce, Sexts, and Nones, on this day. Vespers are of the Octave. If the day falls on Sunday, the commemoration of All Souls is deferred till the morrow.]
